The Of Literary Lists

The Of Literary Lists:

The Book of Literary Lists, 1985 The List Robert E. Belknap, 2008-10-01 I am no more lonely than the Mill Brook or a weathercock or the north star or the south wind or an April shower or a January thaw or the first spider in a new house wrote Henry David Thoreau in Walden In creating this list and many others that appear in his writings Thoreau was working within a little recognized yet ancient literary tradition the practice of listing or cataloguing This beautifully written book is the first to examine literary lists and the remarkably wide range of ways writers use them Robert Belknap first examines lists through the centuries from Sumerian account tablets and Homer's catalogue of ships to Tom Sawyer's earnings from his fence painting scheme then focuses on lists in the works of four American Renaissance authors Emerson Whitman Melville and Thoreau Lists serve a variety of functions in Emerson's essays Whitman's poems Melville's novels and Thoreau's memoirs and Belknap discusses their surprising variety of pattern intention scope art and even philosophy In addition to guiding the reader through the list's many uses this book explores the pleasures that lists offer The Charm of a List Lucie Doležalová, 2009-01-14 Lists one of the most archaic literary genres stand behind many of our complex mental or rhetorical structures and they often influence the way we conceptualize the world even if we are unaware of it They seem plain but may conceal a complicated inner logic They are agrammatical but may tell a story Their basic features selection order and layout may be enough to give them enormous power by including they exclude by ordering they create a hierarchy by taking on particular physical aspects they place themselves into a specific context These and other issues are discussed in the present transdisciplinary volume collecting the best revised contributions to a workshop on lists held at the Center for Theoretical Study in Prague in November 2008 Each of the 13 articles by researchers from seven countries provides a case study on the subject of list The fields covered include late antique medieval and early modern history philology philosophy cognitive and computer science The contributors aim both at presenting particular cases specific lists or list types and at the same time at addressing methodological issues exploring the ways of researching lists in their particular disciplines formulating relevant research themes and questions contextualizing the subject Since theoretical discourse on lists has not been established yet this volume should be seen as a first step in the process showing the variety of possible research directions on a transdisciplinary level and raising interest in the topic which although it may seem a bit obscure at first has indeed a lot to offer Lists and Catalogues in Ancient Literature and Beyond Rebecca Laemmle, Cédric Scheidegger Laemmle, Katharina Wesselmann, 2021-02-22 Lists and catalogues have been en vogue in philosophy cultural media and literary studies for more than a decade These explorations of enumerative modes however have not yet had the impact on classical scholarship that they deserve While they routinely take a limited set of ancient models as their starting point there is no comparably comprehensive study that focuses on antiquity conversely studies on lists and catalogues in Classics remain largely limited to individual texts and with some notable exceptions offer little in terms of explicit theorising The present volume is an attempt to close this gap and foster the dialogue between the recent theoretical re appraisal of enumerative modes and scholarship on ancient cultures The 16 contributions to the volume juxtapose literary forms of enumeration with an abundance of ancient non sub or para literary practices of listing and cataloguing In their different approaches to this vast and heterogenous corpus they offer a sense of the hermeneutic epistemic and methodological challenges with which the study of enumeration is faced and elucidate how pragmatics materiality performativity and aesthetics are mediated in lists and catalogues

Ancient Greek Lists Athena Kirk,2021-03-11 Ancient Greek Lists brings together catalogic texts from a variety of genres arguing that the list form was the ancient mode of expressing value through text Ranging from Homer s Catalogue of Ships through Attic comedy and Hellenistic poetry to temple inventories the book draws connections among texts seldom juxtaposed examining the ways in which lists can stand in for objects create value act as methods of control and even approximate the infinite Athena Kirk analyzes how lists come to stand as a genre in their own right shedding light on both under studied and well known sources to engage scholars and students of Classical literature ancient history and ancient languages

The Age of Johnson Jack Lynch,J. T. Scanlan,2021-06-18 Volume 24 features commentary on a range of Johnsonian topics his reaction to Milton his relation to the Allen family his notes in his edition of Shakespeare his use of Oliver Goldsmith in his Dictionary and his always fascinating Nachleben The volume also includes articles on topics of strong interest to Johnson penal reform Charlotte Lennox s professional literary career and the conjectural history of Homer in the eighteenth century

Bridging the Gap Between Conversation Analysis and Poetics Raymond F. Person, Jr.,Robin Wooffitt,John P. Rae,2021-12-30 This collection extends the conversation beginning with Gail Jefferson s seminal 1996 article On the Poetics of Ordinary Talk linking the poetics of ordinary talk with the work of poets to bring together critical perspectives on new data from talk in interaction and applications of Jefferson s poetics to literary discourse Bringing together contributions from Conversation Analysis and literary scholars the book begins by analyzing the presentation which served as the genesis for Jefferson s article to highlight the occurrence of poetics in institutional talk The first section then provides an in depth examination of case studies from Conversation Analysis which draw on new data from naturally occurring discourse The second half explores literary poetics as a form of institutional talk emerging from the poetics of ordinary talk offering new possibilities for interpreting work in classics biblical studies folklore studies and contemporary literature Each chapter engages in a discussion of Jefferson s article toward reinforcing the relationships between the two disciplines and indicating a way forward for interdisciplinary scholarship The collection highlights the enduring influence of Jefferson s poetics to our understanding of language both talk in interaction and literary discourse making this book of particular interest to students and researchers in Conversation Analysis literary studies stylistics and pragmatics

The Philosophical Stage Joshua Billings, 2024-06-04 A bold new reconception of ancient Greek drama as a mode of philosophical thinking The Philosophical Stage offers an innovative approach to ancient Greek literature and thought that places drama at the heart of intellectual history Drawing on evidence from tragedy and comedy Joshua Billings shines new light on the development of early Greek philosophy arguing that drama is our best source for understanding the intellectual culture of classical Athens In this incisive book Billings recasts classical Greek intellectual history as a conversation across discourses and demonstrates the significance of dramatic reflections on widely shared theoretical questions He argues that neither literature nor philosophy was a defined category in the fifth century BCE and develops a method of reading dramatic form as a structured investigation of issues at the heart of the emerging discipline of philosophy A breathtaking work of intellectual history by one of today's most original classical scholars The Philosophical Stage presents a novel approach to ancient drama and sets a path for a renewed understanding of early Greek thought

Classifying Christians Todd S. Berzon, 2016-02-23 Classifying Christians investigates late antique Christian heresiologies as ethnographies that catalogued and detailed the origins rituals doctrines and customs of the heretics in explicitly polemical and theological terms Oscillating between ancient ethnographic evidence and contemporary ethnographic writing Todd S Berzon argues that late antique heresiology shares an underlying logic with classical ethnography in the ancient Mediterranean world By providing an account of heresiological writing from the second to fifth century Classifying Christians embeds heresiology within the historical development of imperial forms of knowledge that have shaped western culture from antiquity to the present
