The Old Fashioned Get Well Postcard:

The Old-Fashioned Get Well Postcard Book Cassandra Eason,1992-09-01 Oak Park in Vintage Postcards Douglas Deuchler,2003-08-06 Although it was first settled in the 1830s Oak Park did not become an independent municipality until it split from Cicero Township in 1902 No longer a rustic small town the village soon became a population magnet attracting ever larger numbers of prosperous progressive people to settle in what many soon referred to as the finest of the streetcar suburbs Coincidentally use of the penny picture postcard had approached a national mania during this era Thus from the earliest years of the 20th century the rapid growth and development of Oak Park was well documented even celebrated with a vast and varied array of outstanding postcard images Geneva in Vintage Postcards John J. Laukaitis,2004 Geneva was an ideal location for settlement with rich farming soil a river to power the mills and a plentiful supply of trees for lumber it didn t take long to attract and support a thriving community Incorporated in 1858 Geneva remains an idyllic village home to fine architecture from the mid to late 19th century scenic parks along the banks of the Fox River and a sense of community spirit and pride Geneva in Vintage Postcards opens a window into the past allowing us to experience what this community most wanted to present to others and what visitors most wanted to share with their families and friends From scenes of the historic business district to the banks of Island Park the vintage postcards of Geneva reveal a community rich in history and charm Postcards to the Soul Dordi Andersen,2009-12 The Photographic Journal of America ... ,1917 Rick Steves' Postcards from Europe Rick Steves,2009-04-01 In Postcards from Europe Rick Steves takes you on a private tour through the heart of Europe introducing you to his local friends and sharing his favorite travel moments from the Netherlands through Germany Italy and Switzerland with a grand Parisian finale Whether you re dreaming in an armchair have packed or are unpacking Postcards from Europe will inspire a love of travel of Europe and of Europeans Harford County in Vintage Postcards Bill Bates,2005 Since the early 1900s postcards have offered views of all facets of life in Harford County These keepsakes document natural beauties such as Kilgore Falls and natural disasters such as the ice boulders that invaded Havre de Grace during the winter floods of the Susquehanna River Church spires dominate a bird s eye view of Jarrettsville from 1910 The streets and stores of Aberdeen Forest Hill and Perryman come to life Postcards reveal the pride of homeowners in Darlington and Bel Air This volume features the many hard working citizens who helped the county prosper farm hands fishermen smithies North Harford slate quarry workers and many more World War I views of a soldier s life at Edgewood Arsenal salute the county s military The stunning portraits in this collection highlight the people who made Harford County what it is today Fifteen Postcards Kirsten McKenzie,2015-08-17 History shapes those who travel through it Following the unexplained disappearance of her parents and in a last ditch attempt to save the antique store she has inherited from financial ruin Sarah Lester takes on a deceased estate Amongst the estate is a collection of vintage postcards which lead Sarah on a journey through time Sarah is unprepared for what these postcards hint at about their

reclusive former owner and soon they complicate her life in unimaginable ways transporting her to Victorian London colonial New Zealand and to the British Raj in India Sarah has to fight her twenty first century instincts and a century of emancipation to survive Traversing three continents and two centuries where tiger hunts and ruby necklaces are irrevocably entwined with murders and mysteries auction houses and antiquities Sarah is drawn into the enigma that could solve her parents disappearance and the question of should she stay or should she go gets harder and harder to answer the deeper she delves into the past Perfect for fans of the Outlander series and lovers of The Time Travelers Wife What people are saying about Fifteen Postcards If history lessons had been this entertaining I would have scored an A Andrene Low author of the Excess Baggage series This story is one for devotees of adventurous historical fiction and tales of plucky young women finding their feet Stephanie Jones CoastFM Book Reviewer I think the author has done a commendable job in bringing the story to life and it s obvious that she has used extensive historical research to ensure that the story always feels authentic and that s not an easy feat to pull off JaffaReadsToo Book Blogger Kirsten McKenzie has written a very unusual novel part time travel part historical and part antique review Sarah s adventures in other times and other continents linked together by the postcards and the antiques are well researched and entertainingly written Historical Novel Society What reviewers are saying about Kirsten McKenzie McKenzie has done a spectacular job of combining well researched history with a hint of mysterious intrigue Anxious Canadian Blog Kirsten Mckenzie has written an excellent foray into historical fiction I m honestly not quite sure how she was able to keep up with and integrate the different settings time periods and characters without losing her place But she managed it magnificently Author Sean Whittaker McKenzie s descriptions of the shop are well drawn and wonderfully evoke the jumbled chaos of layers of leftovers from centuries of everyday life NZBookLovers blog

Postcards Keith Conlon, Ron Kandelaars, 2001 Every Sunday evening hundreds of thousands of South Australians tune in at five thirty to watch Channel Nine s Postcards program The team led by Mr South Australia Keith Conlon showcases the state s remarkable places and characters The War Diary of Clare Gass Clare Gass, 2004 The diary of a nurse who served with the Canadian Army Medical Corps in France during the First World War The Stationer, Printer and Fancy Trades' Register, 1910 Columbus, Georgia in Vintage Postcards Kenneth H. Thomas, 2001 Founded in 1828 as a planned city by the Georgia Legislature Columbus prospered due to its location on the Chattahoochee River Industry sprang up along the shores of the Chattahoochee and shaped Columbus s identity as one of Georgia s premier cities Today a thriving metropolis it is the Columbus of yesteryear that is illuminated within these pages Early postcard views reflect the city from around 1905 to 1942 showcasing many of its businesses neighborhoods and parks Included are places virtually unknown to citizens today the Bell Tower the City Market North Highlands Park and Wildwood Park as well as those that were landmarks a century ago and landmarks still the Iron Bank the Springer Opera House the Union Depot the YMCA and Fort Benning The Amateur Photographer & Photography, 1927 Postcards from Stanland David H. Mould, 2016-01-31 Central Asia has long stood at the crossroads of history It was the staging ground for the armies of the Mongol Empire for the nineteenth century struggle between the Russian and British empires and for the NATO campaign in Afghanistan Today multinationals and nations compete for the oil and gas reserves of the Caspian Sea and for control of the pipelines Yet Stanland is still to many a terra incognita a geographical blank Beginning in the mid 1990s academic and journalist David Mould's career took him to the region on Fulbright Fellowships and contracts as a media trainer and consultant for UNESCO and USAID among others In Postcards from Stanland he takes readers along with him on his encounters with the people landscapes and customs of the diverse countries Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan and Uzbekistan he came to love He talks with teachers students politicians environmental activists bloggers cab drivers merchants Peace Corps volunteers and more Until now few books for a nonspecialist readership have been written on the region and while Mould brings his own considerable expertise to bear on his account for example he is one of the few scholars to have conducted research on post Soviet media in the region the book is above all a tapestry of place and a valuable contribution to our understanding of the post Soviet world

Bay City and Beyond in Vintage Postcards Leon Katzinger, 2003-07-23 Throughout its history the Bay City area has been a fascinating place to explore Its early 20th century role as a lumber and shipping center helped it develop into a charming place to live work and raise a family While thriving industry contributed to the development of Bay City itself neighboring communities like Auburn Essexville Kawkawlin Linwood and Pinconning were developing into smaller agricultural and residential villages This book a companion to Bay City 1900 1940 in Vintage Postcards uses archival postcards to document the progress and growth that have taken place in Bay City and its surroundings Bay City and Beyond takes readers on a captivating tour of the streets businesses schools homes people and events that have shaped the Bay City area as it is known today

Vintage Postcards from the African World Jessica B. Harris, 2020-05-15 For over forty years professor and culinary historian Jessica B Harris has collected postcards depicting Africans and their descendants in the American diaspora They are presented for the first time in this exquisite volume Vintage Postcards from the African World In the Dignity of Their Work and the Joy of Their Play brings together more than 150 images providing a visual document of more than a century of work in agricultural and culinary pursuits and joy in entertainments parades and celebrations Organized by geography Africa the Caribbean and the United States as well as by the types of scenes depicted the farm the garden and the sea the marketplace the vendors and the cooks leisure entertainments and festivities the images capture the dignity of the labors of everyday life and the pride of festive occasions Superb and rare images demonstrate everything from how Africans and their descendants dressed to what tools they used to how their entertainments provided relief from toil Three essays accompany the postcards one of which details Harris's collection and the collecting process A second presents suggestions on how to interpret the cards A final essay gives brief information on the history of postcards and postcard dating and its increasing use and value to scholars

some artists able to command huge sums of money for their works while the vast majority are ignored or dismissed by critics This book shows that these marginalised artists the dark matter of the art world are essential to the survival of the mainstream and that they frequently organize in opposition to it Gregory Sholette a politically engaged artist argues that imagination and creativity in the art world originate thrive in the non commercial sector shut off from prestigious galleries and champagne receptions This broader creative culture feeds the mainstream with new forms and styles that can be commodified and used to sustain the few artists admitted into the elite This dependency and the advent of inexpensive communication audio and video technology has allowed this dark matter of the alternative art world to increasingly subvert the mainstream and intervene politically as both new and old forms of non capitalist public art This book is essential for anyone interested in interventionist art collectivism and the political economy of the art world West Central Georgia in

Vintage Postcards Gary L. Doster,1998 From the 1890s through the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America's history This fascinating new history of West Central Georgia showcases more than two hundred of the best vintage postcards available Page 4 of cover Robeson County in Vintage Postcards K. Blake Tyner,2005 Carved out of fertile farmland along the border of the Carolinas in 1787 Robeson County is North Carolina's largest county spanning 948 square miles The county is called The State of Robeson not only because of its size but because of its fierce independence and self reliance Unique in its equally balanced tri racial population Robeson County has residents that are Native American African American and white Over the centuries these people have worked together to create a culturally diverse community

Galesburg Illinois in Vintage Postcards Carley R. Robison,2000 Galesburg Illinois is a town proud of its history and heritage From its founding by courageous and determined pioneers in 1837 to the present day it has been referred to in many ways including The Ideal City and The Buckle on the Corn Belt Galesburg Illinois in Vintage Postcards uses postcards as the lens to focus on the fascinating history of this Midwestern town Throughout its history the postcard has always been a popular means of communication Looking back at them now we are offered a unique insight into the places and times illustrated on the cards and an intimate look at the people sending these cards to loved ones in faraway locations
