The Theory of Taxation for Developing Countries David M. G. Newbery, Nicholas Herbert Stern, 1987 Written by experts in the field this book uses the modern theory of public finance to analyze tax and pricing policy in developing countries

Tax Policy for Developing Countries Mr. Vito Tanzi, Mr. Howell H. Zee, 2001-01-01 Discusses important tax policy issues facing developing countries today provides a review of the role of tax incentives and identifies some policy challenges posed by the globalization of the world economy Draws on country cases

Taxation in Developing Countries Roger Gordon, 2010-07-05 Taxes are a crucial policy issue especially in developing countries Just recently proposals to raise middle class taxes toppled the Bolivian government and plans to extend or increase the value added tax caused political unrest in Ecuador and Mexico Despite the impact of tax policy on developing countries a comprehensive study has yet to be written Treating Argentina Brazil India Kenya Korea and Russia as key case studies this volume outlines the major aspects of current tax codes and explores their economic and political implications Examples of both the poorest and wealthiest developing countries Argentina Brazil India Kenya Korea and Russia uniquely demonstrate the diverse fiscal problems of tax reform Each economy relies heavily on indirect and corporate income taxes though recently some have reduced their tariff rates and have switched from excise to value added taxes There is a large informal economy in most of these countries and tax evasion by firms is a significant concern As a result tax revenue remains low even though rates are as high as those in developed economies Also unconventional methods to collect revenue have been implemented including bank debit taxes state ownership of firms and implicit taxes on individuals in the informal sector Exploring these and other concerns as well as changes in tax law administration and fiscal pressures this comprehensive anthology clarifies the current landscape of tax administration and the economic future of the world's poorer economies

Tax Policy in Developing Countries, 1994

Taxation and State-Building in Developing Countries Deborah Brautigam, Odd-Helge Fjeldstad, Mick Moore, 2008-01-10 There is a widespread concern that in some parts of the world governments are unable to exercise effective authority When governments fail more sinister forces thrive warlords arms smugglers narcotics enterprises kidnap gangs terrorist networks armed militias Why do governments fail This book explores an old idea that has returned to prominence that authority effectiveness accountability and responsiveness is closely related to the ways in which governments are financed It matters that governments tax their citizens rather than live from oil revenues and foreign aid and it matters how they tax them

Taxation stimulates demands for representation and an effective revenue authority is the central pillar of state capacity. Using case studies from Africa, Asia, Eastern Europe and Latin America, this book presents and evaluates these arguments, updates theories derived from European history in the light of conditions in contemporary poorer countries and draws conclusions for policy makers. Tax Policy for Developing Countries Vito Tanzi, 2001 Tax Policy and Economic Development Richard Miller Bird, 1992

Evaluation of the unique conditions that apply to developing nations and an examination of their impact on both the kinds of taxes that may be raised and the effective administration of tax policy.

Tax Policy for Developing Countries Vito Tanzi, Howell Zee, 2001-01-01 Discusses important tax policy issues facing developing countries today, provides a review of the role of tax incentives and identifies some policy challenges posed by the globalization of the world economy. Draws on country cases. The Theory and Practice of Tax Reform in Developing Countries Ehtisham Ahmad, Ehtisham Ahmad, Nicholas Stern, 1991-07-26

Study on tax reform from basic economic principles with emphasis to guidelines for a practical tax reform for Pakistan. Tax Reform in Developing Countries Wayne R. Thirsk, 1997

Tax Reform in Developing Countries carefully examines the experience of eight developing countries that have undergone and in some instances are still undergoing significant and comprehensive tax reform. The countries are Bolivia, Colombia, Indonesia, Jamaica, Korea, Mexico, Morocco and Turkey. It draws on their experiences to find lessons learned and to see how they may be applied to other countries on the road to tax reform. Equal attention is given to the process of tax reform, how it is implemented and the substance or results of reform efforts. Throughout the focus is on the practical rather than the theoretical aspects of tax reform. Taxes and Fiscal Policy in Under-developed Countries United Nations. Technical Assistance Administration, United Nations, 1954

The Challenges of Tax Reform in a Global Economy James Alm, Jorge Martinez-Vazquez, Mark Rider, 2005-11-29 This book presents 15 original papers and commentaries by a distinguished group of tax policy and tax administration experts. Using international examples, they highlight the state of knowledge of tax reform, present new thinking about the issue and analyze useful policy options. The book's general goal is to examine the current and emerging challenges facing tax reformers and to assess possible directions future reforms are likely to take. More specific themes include distributional issues, how to tax capital income, how to design specific taxes (e.g. the income tax, the value added tax, the property tax), how to consider the politics and administrative aspects of tax reform and how to combine the separate insights into comprehensive tax reform. Taxation in Developing Countries Richard Miller Bird, Oliver Oldman, 1990

Selection of studies relating to taxation in developing countries. The papers are organized under the following subjects: approaches to development taxation, lessons from experience, taxation and incentives, problems in direct taxation, the reform of indirect taxation, the role of local taxes, tax administration and tax policy. Contributors: Carl S. Shoup, Vito Tanzi, Richard Goode, Charles E. McLure, Richard Bird, Oliver Oldman, Sijbren Cnossen and many others.
