Unsettling Education Anna-Leah King, Kathleen O'Reilly, Patrick J. Lewis, 2024-07-19 This edited collection tackles unsettling as an emerging field of study that calls for settlers to follow Indigenous leadership and relationality and work toward disrupting the colonial reality through their everyday lives Bringing together Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars and activists Unsettling Education considers how we can reconcile and transcend ongoing settler colonialism The contributors reflect on how the three concepts of unsettling Indigenization and decolonization overlap and intersect in practical and theoretical ways Questions are raised such as how can we recognize and address historical and current injustices that have been imposed upon Indigenous Peoples and their lands How can we respect the fundamental and inherent sovereignty and rights of Indigenous Peoples as we work toward reconciliation And how do we work collectively to build more equitable and just communities for all who call Canada home Unsettling Education is well suited for college and university courses in Indigenous studies or education that focus on decolonization land based learning Indigenization unsettling and reconciliation
