John Hartley

Teach Yourself Cultural Studies:

Teach Yourself Cultural Studies Will Brooker, 1999 This comprehensive introduction highlights the key theorists and issues in cultural studies from its origins to recent work on video games TV fandom and the Internet The book's lively and easy to follow style is suitable for both beginners and first level students of cultural studies Cultural Studies Will Brooker, 1998 Introducing Cultural Studies David Walton, 2007-11-29 An outstanding entry level text aimed at those with little or no cultural studies knowledge Innovative creative and clever Times Higher Education The ideal textbook for FE and first year HE cultural studies students Its quality and character allow the reader to feel the enthusiasm of its author which in turn becomes infectious instilling in the reader a genuine sense of ebullient perturbation Art Design Media The Higher Education Authority An introduction to the practice of cultural studies this book is ideal for undergraduate courses Full of practical exercises that will get students thinking and writing about the issues they encounter this book offers its readers the conceptual tools to practice cultural analysis for themselves There are heuristics to help students prepare and write projects and the book provides plenty of examples to help students develop their own ideas Written in a creative playful and witty style this book Links key concepts to the key theorists of cultural studies Includes a wide range of references of popular cultural forms Emphasizes the multidisciplinary nature of cultural studies Includes pedagogical features such as dialogues graphs images and recommended readings The book's skills based approach enables students to develop their creative skills and shows students how to improve their powers of analysis generally Jung: A Complete Introduction: Teach Yourself Phil Goss, 2015-07-30 Jung A Complete Introduction is designed to give you everything you need to succeed all in one place It covers the key areas that students are expected to be confident in outlining the basics in clear jargon free English and providing added value features like summaries of key books and even lists of questions you might be asked in your seminar or exam The book uses a structure that mirrors the way Jung is taught on many university and counselling courses Chapters include individuation and the archetypal power of the unconscious Jung's early life Jung's early career and key influences Freud and Jung the self and ego the dark side anima and animus archetypes typology Jungian analysis working with dreams active imagination developmental approaches application of Jungian analysis to mental health needs and Jung's legacy in culture spirituality and therapy Jung employs the Breakthrough Method to help you advance quickly at any subject whether you're studying for an exam or just for your own interest The Breakthrough Method is designed to overcome typical problems you'll face as learn new concepts and skills Problem I find it difficult to remember what I've read Solution this book includes end of chapter summaries and questions to test your understanding Problem Lots of introductory books turn out to cover totally different topics than my course Solution this book is written by a university lecturer who understands what students are expected to know Fan Cultures Matthew Hills, 2003-09-02 Emphasising the contradictions of fandom Matt Hills outlines how media fans have been conceptualised in cultural theory Drawing on case studies of specific fan groups from Elvis impersonators to X-Files and Trekkers Hills discusses a range of approaches to fandom from the Frankfurt School to psychoanalytic readings and asks whether the development of new media creates the possibility of new forms of fandom. Fan Cultures also explores the notion of fan cults or followings considering how media fans perform the distinctions of cult status.

Teleparody Angela Hague, David Lavery, 2002. In a cautionary attempt to dissuade those who might be tempted to write such material, Teleparody is a compilation of reviews of fictional but all too possible contributions to academic Television Studies.

Teaching Yourself Social Theory David Harris, 2002-12-13. Social theory is a very difficult subject to teach and it is one that students generally find hard to get to grips with. Teaching Yourself Social Theory offers a highly original and comprehensive resource that will be welcomed by students and teachers alike. Barry Smart, University of Portsmouth. I have no hesitation in recommending Harris' text to students and teachers of social theory. Sociology. This refreshing and accessible text demonstrates how social theory can be made into an intelligible discourse that touches upon key aspects of everyday life. The abstraction and formalism of much contemporary social theory is criticized as unnecessarily scholastic for the beginner. The author maintains that the main problems in studying the subject are not intrinsic to social theory but derive from how the subject is taught as a university discipline. This lively book uses non-specialist terms to introduce more complex themes and incorporates a Website with questions and reading guides to some of the classic works.

Haunting Inquiry Robert Nellis, 2009-01-01. The NFB's mandate is to make and distribute films designed to help Canadians in all parts of Canada to understand the ways of living and the problems of Canadians in other parts. NFB Founding Commissioner John Grierson. It is only by our lack of ghosts we're haunted. Canadian poet Earle Birney. Haunting Inquiry. Classic NFB Documentary. Jacques Derrida and the Curricular. Otherwise reintroduces significant if sometimes forgotten National Film Board of Canada documentaries into contemporary curriculum conversation. Author Robert Christopher Nellis employs an inflection of Derridean deconstruction to mobilize historical, political and intellectual themes emerging from the films as elliptical curricular opportunities. The work explores hauntings in and around the documentaries to open toward Others neither fully present nor absent within the Canadian imagination. They remain troublingly illicit as is the character of haunting. This book's contribution to the literature of curriculum is a unique and innovative conceptual framework, reintroduction of many classic NFB documentaries and the use of a productive language and outlook to mobilize fresh perspectives and hopeful possibilities.

Beyond Subculture Rupa Huq, 2007-01-24. Using case studies and first-hand interviews with consumers and producers including Noel Gallagher and Talvin Singh, Rupa Huq investigates a series of musically centred global youth cultures and re-examines the link between music and subcultures.

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28. Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale. Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism, the social, the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story
