

TEACH YOURSELF®

The background of the cover is an underwater photograph. At the top, there's a bright, circular light source, likely the sun or moon, seen from below the water's surface. The water is a deep blue, and the light creates a shimmering, rippling effect on the surface. Below the light, the word 'philosophy' is written in a large, white, serif font. The word is positioned such that it appears to be floating in the water, with the light source acting as a backdrop for the upper half of the letters.
