Oyaya,Nana Poku,2018-05-11 Kenya like the rest of Africa has gone through three sets of constitutional crises The first related to the trauma of colonialism and struggle for independence The second a period of constitutional dictatorship and the clamor for reform The third most recent crisis being one of identity legitimacy and the inability of the state to discharge its functions which has resulted in civil unrest violent ethnic conflicts poverty social exclusion and inequality The Making of the Constitution of Kenya examines the processes issues and challenges of constitution making governance and legitimacy in that country and the lessons that can be learned for others on the continent Equipping the reader with a sound historical perspective on constitutional developments and the crisis of constitutional legitimacy in Kenya it gives an invaluable insight into the normative and political complexities involved in evolving a truly democratic and widely acceptable constitutional order in Africa A Political Ecology of Kenya's Mau Forest Lisa Elena Fuchs,2023 A timely and important examination of the environmental crises investigating their biophysical political economic and socio cultural aspects that reveals why previous conservation efforts failed The eastern part of the Mau Forest the most important closed canopy forest in East Africa has come under severe threat since the 1990s In this political ecology Lisa Fuchs exploring the failure of the government led forest restoration and rehabilitation initiative to Save the Mau launched in 2009 the author examines two of the most contentious issues in Kenya since colonial times land and the environment She sheds light on the structural factors and the role of individuals in the forest s destruction and of non protection and traces the colonial legacy of post independent environmental conservation policies and practices In doing so Fuchs demonstrates that the Mau crisis is more than an environmental crisis it is also a political an economic and a socio cultural crisis Though a detailed empirical analysis the author shows that the Mau crisis led to the near collapse of landscapes and livelihoods in the Mau Forest ecosystem She traces the implementation of insufficient conservation programmes which resulted from historical path dependency and the adoption of global environmental governance blueprints forest allocation and benefits and exposes a forest management system that prioritises commercial forest production over biodiversity conservation Access and entitlements to the highly fertile forest land and the amalgamation of forest rehabilitation with the reclamation of grabbed public forest are emphasised as a further core contributor to the crisis The socio cultural dynamics within and among various forest dwelling communities including the indigenous hunting and gathering Ogiek and in migrant groups are also analysed The book highlights that local types of environmentalism are caught between the invention of traditions and perverse modernisation and shows the contradictory effects of the celebrated highly anticipated but poorly executed Save the Mau initiative and how the presence of political will to maintain the crisis conditioned its perseverance Finally the book proposes realistic alternatives to sustainable forest management in politicised environments whose relevance and applicability are considerable in this age of anthropogenic environmental crises and conflicts Published in association with IFRA AFRICAE Basic Data on the Economy of Kenya Robert L. The Post-Election Violence in Kenya Sosteness Francis Materu,2014-12-04 Since the historic Nuremberg Trial of 1945 an international customary law principle has developed that commission of a core crime under international law war crimes genocide crimes against humanity and aggression should not go unpunished History shows that when in Africa such violations occurred especially as a result of election disputes national and regional actors including the African Union resorted to political rather than legal responses However when crimes against humanity were alleged to have been committed in Kenya during the 2007 2008 post election violence a promising road map for criminal accountability was agreed upon alongside a political solution In the spirit of this road map the author analyzes the post election violence in Kenya from a legal point of view He extensively examines legal options for domestic criminal accountability and discusses both retributive prosecutions and restorative justice mainly truth commission mechanisms being the main legal responses to the gross violations of human rights Furthermore he thoroughly investigates the Kenya situation before the ICC and the legal cum political responses to the ICC intervention in Kenya Practitioners and academics in the field of international criminal law and related disciplines as well as political sciences and legal history will find in this book highly relevant information about alternative legal approaches of the fight against and punishment of crimes against humanity as defined under the ICC Statute
