The Way and Its Power Laozi, Arthur Waley, 1958 Arthur Waley's brilliant and definitive translation of one of the foremost of all mystical books Lao Tzu's Tao Te Ching has become a modern classic in its own right Unlike previous translations it is founded not on the medieval commentaries but on a close study of all the early Chinese literature and it provides a singular example of authoritative scholarship skillfully blended with brilliant precise writing In his introduction Dr Waley gives an extensive scholarly account of Chinese thought down to the end of the third century B C Here the author presents a full picture of Chinese prehistory early philosophy and literature showing the original lofty conception of Taoism before the gradual corruption through the course of centuries tracing this conflict of philosophies and its background of politics

Tao Te Ching Lao Tzu, 2021-02-17 Limited Time Promotional Offer Tao Te Ching The Classic Book of The Way And Virtue The Tao Te Ching is an anti authoritarian treatise which posits that the way of virtue lies in non action Wu Wei through a recognition of the natural universal force known as the Tao The Tao flows without effort and like water goes where it will without striving and effects change and growth To be virtuous one should emulate the Tao and engage in non action not forcing an effect or outcome Human made laws it claims cannot make one virtuous and cannot contribute to good behavior inner peace or empathy with others because they are not in tune with nature It is only by recognizing the Tao and one s connection to it and all things that one may achieve these goals To recognize the Tao one must know what it is and so it is defined in the first chapter The Tao The Way that can be spoken of is not the Constant Tao The name that can be named is not a Constant Name Nameless is the origin of Heaven and Earth The named is the Mother of all things Thus the constant void enables one to observe the true essence The constant being enables one to see the outward manifestations These two come paired from the same origin But when the essence is manifested it has a different name This same origin is called The Profound Mystery As profound the mystery as it can be It is the Gate to the essence of all life Lao Tzu The Old Master Lao Tzu was an ancient Chinese philosopher and poet well known for penning the book Tao Te Ching He was the founder of philosophy of Taoism a religious and ethical custom of ancient China He is largely respected as a religious deity in various traditional Chinese religious schools of thought He is also believed by some to be an older contemporary of the famous philosopher Confucius The Tao Te Ching literally meaning The Way and Its Power presents the idea of Tao as being the end all and be all of existence It is extremely powerful yet down to earth It is the source of all being in the world The book intends to guide people on how to return to the laws and ways of nature to maintain the balance of the Tao Lao Tzu s philosophy was a simple one He was against putting effort and striving as he thought struggle is not only futile but also hinders productivity In his theory of wu wei he advises to simply do nothing By this he means not to go against the forces of nature wait for the gush of events nature brings to you and dive right in He advised not to struggle to change the natural order of things but to bring spontaneity to one's actions as one holds on to the nature's way of life. Followers of Taoism believe that striving for nothing will never lead them to failure. The one who has never failed is always successful, thus becoming powerful. Lao Tzu's journey began as he set foot towards the western border of China, currently Tibet. He was saddened by what he saw around him: men being diverted away from nature and the goodness it brings. A guard he met on the border asked Lao to write down his teachings as he went. This is when he wrote the famous Tao Te Ching, a 5,000 character account of his thoughts and philosophical ideas. The Tao of the Tao Te Ching Lao Tzu?, Laozi, Michael LaFargue, 1992-01-17. In this new translation and commentary, LaFargue interprets the concept of Tao in the Tao Te Ching as a spiritual state of mind cultivated in a particular school in ancient China, a state of mind which also expressed itself in a simple but satisfying life style and in a low key but effective style of political leadership. The interpretation offered here is not only historically accurate but also conveys the spiritual depth of the Tao Te Ching and its contemporary relevance. The translation is made transparent by a design that presents all of the commentary on the page facing the relevant text. Tao Tê Ching Laozi, 1959. Tao Teh Ching Laozi, Lao Tzu, 2003. The most widely known and read Chinese classic in the West, the Tao Teh Ching is a series of insightful comments on life and nature. Part poetry, part paradox, always forceful and profound, the Tao Teh Ching has been leading its readers to expand their view of life since it was written over two thousand years ago. The Tao Teh Ching teaches that the qualities of the enlightened sage or ideal ruler are identical with those of the perfected individual. This lucid translation demonstrates that these teachings are as useful in the arts of leadership as they are in developing a sense of balance and harmony in everyday life. John C. H. Wu has done a remarkable job rendering this difficult and subtle text into English while retaining the freshness and depth of the original. This edition features the Chinese text alongside the English translation. The Shambhala Library is a series of exquisitely designed and produced cloth editions of the world's spiritual and literary classics, both ancient and modern. Perfect for collecting or as gifts, each volume features a sewn binding, decorative endsheets, and a ribbon marker, a delightful to hold 4 x 6 trim size.
