The Dialogical Spirit Amos Yong, 2014-10-22 Contemporary proposals for Christian theology from postliberalism to Radical Orthodoxy and beyond have espoused their own methodological paradigms Those who have ventured into this domain of theological method however have usually had to stake their claims vis a vis trends in what may be called the contemporary post al age whether of the postmodern post Christendom post Enlightenment post Western or postcolonial varieties This volume is unique among offerings in this arena in suggesting a way forward that engages on each of these fronts and does so from a particularistic Christian perspective without giving up on Christian theology s traditional claims to universality This is accomplished through the articulation of a distinctive dialogical methodology informed by both pentecostalism and evangelicalism one rooted in the Christian salvation history narrative of incarnation and Pentecost that is yet open to the world in its many and various cultural ethnic religious and disciplinary discourses Amos Yong here engages with twelve different interlocutors representing different ecumenical religious and disciplinary perspectives The Dialogical Spirit thus not only proffers a model for Christian theological method suitable for the twenty first century global context but also exemplifies this methodological approach through its interactions across the contemporary scholarly academic and theological landscape

Bodies and Machines (Routledge Revivals) Mark Seltzer, 2014-11-13 Bodies and Machines is a striking and persuasive examination of the body machine complex and its effects on the modern American cultural imagination Bodies and Machines first published in 1992 explores the links between techniques of representation and social and scientific technologies of power in a wide range of realist and naturalist discourses and practices Seltzer draws on realist and naturalist writing such as the work of Hawthorne and Henry James and the discourses which inform it from scouting manuals and the programmes of systematic management to accounts of sexual biology and the rituals of consumer culture He explores other mass produced and mass consumed cultural forms including visual representations such as composite photographs scale models and the astonishing iconography of standardization
