The Opium Hunter:

Opium to Java James Robert Rush, 2007 Opium smoking was a widespread social custom in nineteenth century Java and commercial trade in opium had far reaching economic and political implications As in many of the Dutch territories in the Indonesian archipelago the drug was imported from elsewhere and sold throughout the island under a government monopoly a system of revenue farms These monopoly franchises were regulated by the government and operated by members of Java's Chinese elite who were frequently also local officials appointed by the Dutch The farms thus helped support large Chinese patronage networks that vied for control of rural markets throughout Java James Rush explains the workings of the opium farm system during its mature years by measuring the social economic and political reach of these monopolies within the Dutch dominated colonial society His analysis of the opium farm incorporates the social history of opium smoking in Java and of the Chinese officer elite that dominated not only the opium farming but also the island's Chinese community and much of its commercial economy He describes the relations among the various classes of Chinese and Javanese as well as the relation of the Chinese elite to the Dutch and he traces the political interplay that smuggling and the black market stimulated among all these elements An important contribution to the social and political history of Southeast Asia and now brought back to life as a member of Equinox Publishing's Classic Indonesia series this book gives a new dimension to our knowledge of nineteenth century Javanese society and the processes of social control and economic dominance during the colonial period JAMES R RUSH is a historian of modern Southeast Asia whose other works include The Last Tree Reclaiming the Environment in Tropical Asia Java A Travellers Anthology and several volumes of contemporary Asian biography in the Ramon Magsaysay Awards series His is associate professor of history at Arizona State University The Opium Hunter Alex Kilgore, 1981 The Opium Hunter: They Call Me the Mercenary Jerry Ahern, 2011-12 HANK FROST THE ONE EYED MERC CAPTAIN Hank Frost the one eyed mere Captain with the mile long string of eye patch jokes the overused 9mm and a low budget bank account loses the commission on a multi million dollar deal and to keep on eating hires out for a vendetta against the Burmese drug warlords With a mercenary commando team Frost penetrates the steaming Southeast Asian jungles to knock off the kingpin of the raw opium trade and avenge a savage murder From New Orleans to Upstate New York from Miami to Thailand Frost is duking it out with the billion dollar drug business a Cosa Nostra capo who wants to corner the market and power mad warlords at the head of the opium pipeline Then he has to deal with the girl from the drug awareness political action group who wants to get the hard facts on opium smuggling and could wind up a high priced harem slave And the one eyed man is sentenced to an execution that might just switch him over to headless jokes Hunt's Merchants' Magazine and Commercial Review Freeman Hunt, Thomas Prentice Kettell, William Buck Dana, 1860 Hunt's Merchants' Magazine Freeman Hunt, 1847 The India-China Opium Trade in the Nineteenth Century Hunt Janin, 1999-01-01 From 1823 to 1860 a fleet of small fast brigs and schooners carried chests of opium from India to China
