History of Civilizations of Central Asia Dani, Ahmad Hasan, Masson, V. M., UNESCO, 1992-12-31 Volume 1 of this UNESCO multi volume series traces the history of man in this vast region from the Palaeolithic beginnings to circa 700 BC when the foundations of the Achaemenian Empire were laid The earliest history of man is evidenced and the food producing areas of Turkmenistan Tajikistan and the Indus Valley explored The Bronze Age and the first signs of urbanization from the Indus to the Oxus are described as is the development of the nomadic pastoral tribes such as the Aryans whose history can be seen in proper perspective through archaeological evidence now available A comprehensive first instalment for any enthusiast interested in the history and development of Asia      Biblical Genesis - A new light on the origins of man and the original sin Don Guido Bortoluzzi, Renza Giacobbi, 2017-02-02 Fr Guido Bortoluzzi was born in 1907 and died in 1991 in the province of Belluno N E Italy Between 1968 and 1974 he received from the Lord eight revelations which concerned the origins of the Earth and of Man He was a man without malice and because of this it was granted him to see episodes that would normally make one feel awkward if not embarrassed but thanks to Fr Guido s candour they are related without trace of morbidity This inner attitude of Fr Guido permitted the Lord to deal with difficult subjects frankly and without circumlocutions As is the way with the Lord He chose as His witness a candid unprejudiced soul whose heart trusted in God s Love The contrast between the simplicity of the means and the greatness of the message makes it evident that the source of the contents cannot be but from God The Lord chose neither a theologian nor a scientist because as it is written in the Gospel it is not possible to put new wine in old wineskins i e in someone who is already self sufficient and content with his own theories without both of them being lost      The Aurignacians and Their Culture George Lucius Collie, 1928

title of Julian Jaynes's The Origin of Consciousness in the Breakdown of the Bicameral Mind Its prose is always lucid and often lyrical he unfolds his case with the utmost intellectual rigor The New York Times When Julian Jaynes speculates that until late in the twentieth millennium BC men had no consciousness but were automatically obeying the voices of the gods we are astounded but compelled to follow this remarkable thesis John Updike The New Yorker He is as startling as Freud was in The Interpretation of Dreams and Jaynes is equally as adept at forcing a new view of known human behavior American Journal of Psychiatry
