The Quest for Biblical Servant Leadership KeumJu Jewel Hyun, Grace Y. May, Philomena Mwaura, Julius Kithinji, 2023-05-26 Improve your service While many claim to offer models of leadership suitable for contemporary society this book goes a notch higher by doing so through the prism of Jesus s servant leadership As the servant leader par excellence Jesus not only taught but demonstrated service by stooping down and washing his disciples feet This book distills

the experience and wisdom of men and women who have practically benefited from Jesus's leadership. Reflective of the global church, all the authors speak of a servant leadership inspired by love, honoring of God, humble in approach and seeking the welfare of others without neglecting a healthy self-regard. Whether you work on site or remotely, you will find the grist for robust leadership. This book is a must-read for theologians, businesspeople, educators, students, and Christian practitioners seeking to make a difference in our times.

Modeling Servant-Leaders for Africa Ndung'u John Brown Ikenye, 2010. This book seeks to help African Christian leaders to follow the notions of biblical leadership as servant hood and to train men and women with biblical and academic knowledge which will be critical practical pastoral and applicable in the Kenyan context and participate in the discovery, transmission and preservation of knowledge and stimulate the intellectual life and cultural development of Kenya.

Servant-Leadership Dr. Robert J. Cruz, 2024-05-21. Servant Leadership: The world's most potent leadership philosophy. Servant leadership is the foremost leadership tool that can be applied in personal and professional relationships. It will provide a remedy for what ails America today: the deep-seated root of racism. Today, servant leadership and racism permeate through our systems, ideologies, and movements. Servant leadership is the healing method we need for the soul of America. My goal is for this book to be a lightning rod to spark a fire in the hearts of people to use in their circles of influence and help close the racial gap that exists between servant leadership and racism. My hope is for people to acknowledge their racism, become free of it, and decide to contribute positively to building people and improving the communities where they serve, which just happen to be servant leadership characteristics. Yes, I agree this is a substantial goal. However, servant leadership and racism reside at opposite ends of the spectrum of humanity. To close the gap, it will take trust, courage, transparency, patience, love, perseverance, joy, and kindness. It will require that we not keep an account of wrongdoing and to forgive our brother or sister as many times as necessary for peace and love to prevail, rule, and reign in our hearts and lives. We can, and we must work together to make this reality. Help us, God. We cannot be quiet anymore.

Superservant Leader Fr. P. Amah (PhD), 2012-09. Ken Blanchard from Servant Leadership Revisited. With the traditional pyramid, the boss is always responsible, and the staff are supposed to be responsive to the boss. When you turn the pyramid upside down, those roles get reversed. Your people become responsible, and the job of management is to be responsive to their people. That creates a very different environment for implementation. If you work for your people, then what is the purpose of being a manager? To help them accomplish their goals. Your job is to help them win.

Shann Ray Ferch, PhD, Professor of Leadership, Gonzaga University. In an elegant and evocative rendering of the life of one of the world's great servant leaders, Edeh, Dr. Amah has given us a glimpse of global servant leadership and a true vision of the kind of leaders we need to help heal the heart of the world. Dr. Amah's book is a resource with global implications and with the honesty and tenderness that move us forward as human beings and that restore us to the deepest and most vital expressions of our collective humanity. In envisioning for us the life and impact of Emmanuel Edeh, Nigerian and global servant leader, Dr. Amah gives hope to the people of every continent and in fact helps us reach as global citizens for one another in hope and love and good service This hope is established first in the person then the collective and finally the world Peter Amah has given us a guide to that hope and placed in our hands the gift that leads us from the despair of the past to a future graced by discernment and love
