Slimming Down Growing Up:

Slimming Down and Growing Up Neva Coyle, Marie Chapian, 1985 A practical one month plan for teaching kids and parents to apply the principles that made Free To Be Thin such a success Your Child's Weight Ellyn Satter, 2011-12-01 As much about parenting as feeding this latest release from renowned childhood feeding expert Ellyn Satter considers the overweight child issue in a new way Combining scientific research with inspiring anecdotes from her decades of clinical practice Satter challenges the conventional belief that parents must get overweight children to eat less and exercise more In the long run she says making them go hungry and forcing them to be active makes children preoccupied with food prone to overeating turned off to activity and likely to gain too much weight Trust is a central theme here children must be able to trust parents to provide as much food as they need to satisfy their appetites parents must trust children to eat only as much as they need Satter provides compelling evidence that if parents do their jobs with respect to feeding children are remarkably capable of knowing how much to eat Growing Up African in Australia Maxine Beneba Clarke, 2019-04-02 I was born in Harare the capital of Zimbabwe My dad was a freedom fighter waging war for an independent state South Sudan We lived in a small country town in the deep south of Western Australia I never knew black people could be Muslim until I met my North African friends My mum and my dad courted illegally under the Apartheid regime My first impression of Australia was a housing commission in the north of Tasmania Somalis use this term Dhaqan Celis Dhaqan means culture and Celis means return Learning to kick a football in a suburban schoolyard Finding your feet as a young black dancer Discovering your grandfather's poetry Meeting Nelson Mandela at your local church Facing racism from those who should protect you Dreading a visit to the hairdresser House hopping across the suburbs Being too black Not being black enough Singing to find your soul and then losing yourself again Welcome to African Australia Compiled by award winning author Maxine Beneba Clarke with curatorial assistance from writers Ahmed Yussuf and Magan Magan this anthology brings together voices from the regions of Africa and the African diaspora including the Caribbean and the Americas Told with passion power and poise these are the stories of African diaspora Australians Contributors include Faustina Agolley Santilla Chingaipe Carly Findlay Khalid Warsame Nyadol Nyuon Tariro Mavondo and many many more A deeply moving and unforgettable read there is something to learn from each page FOUR AND A HALF STARS Books Publishing A complex tapestry of stories specific in every thread and illuminating as a whole The wonderful strength of this anthology lies in the easily understood and the never imagined Readings In the face of structural barriers to health care education housing and employment the narratives in Growing Up African are tempered with stories of deep courage hope resilience and endurance The Conversation Growing Up African in Australia is almost painfully timely It speaks to the richness of a diaspora that is all too often deprived of its nuances Lively moving and often deeply affecting it is an absolute must read FOUR AND A HALF STARS The AU Review Come to Dust Penny Freedman, 2024-09-28 The latest in the Gina Gray crime series featuring a sharp tongued pushy grandmother amateur detective In this adventure she is joined by her 16 year old granddaughter Freda to solve the crime of dead academic
