

A photograph of a desert landscape. A paved road with double yellow lines runs from the bottom center towards the horizon. The road is flanked by sandy dunes and sparse, low-lying desert vegetation. The sky is a clear, pale blue. A large, semi-transparent red rectangular box is superimposed over the upper middle of the image, containing white text. Below the red box, centered on the road, is a small black rectangular box with white text.

Spectator (The), 1836      Humanism Tony Davies, 1997 Humanism offers students a clear and lucid introductory guide to the complexities of Humanism one of the most contentious and divisive of artistic or literary concepts Showing how the concept has evolved since the Renaissance period Davies discusses humanism in the context of the rise of Fascism the onset of World War II the Holocaust and their aftermath Humanism provides basic definitions and concepts a critique of the religion of humanity and necessary background on religious sexual and political themes of modern life and thought while enlightening the debate between humanism modernism and antihumanism through the writings and works of such key figures as Pico Erasmus Milton Nietzsche and Foucault      Every Man in His Humour Ben Jonson, 2000-10-13 This is the 1601 quarto version of Ben Jonson's play set in Florence The text is edited and modernised and instead of endorsing the folio version as the superior play the introduction seeks to understand this version on its own terms      Speak that I May See Thee Sarah Greenleaf Whittier, 1976      The Sermons of John Donne, Volume IV John Donne, 2022-04-29 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1959      The sense of early modern writing Mark Robson, 2018-09-30 In The sense of Early Modern writing Mark Robson pursues the relation between the concept of the early modern and modernity tracing the complex interactions of post Romantic philosophical aesthetics and early modern rhetoric and poetics The book therefore questions the status of what we now think of as literary texts in a period prior to the emergence of literature as a category In this way Robson argues for an attention to the classical notion of aisthesis that is for the crucial dimension of perception and response in reading and thinking and its rhetorical determination to be taken into account Robson's theoretically informed approach drawing in particular on the work of Jacques Derrida and Paul de Man fundamentally challenges the idea that critical theory is of little relevance in the reading of early modern texts The sense of Early Modern writing includes readings of both familiar and unfamiliar texts by Shakespeare Sidney Jonson Hester Pulten and others and considers topics such as ears eyes tongues hands and voices in order to ask How should we read early modern texts The book will therefore be of interest to all students and researchers in early modern or Renaissance studies as well as to those thinking through the theories and histories of literature aesthetics and rhetoric      The Works of John Donne, D.D., Dean of Saint Paul's, 1621-1631 John Donne, 1839      *The works of John Donne.
