Speaking Out Womens Economic Empowerment In South Asia:

Speaking Out Marilyn Carr,Martha Alter Chen,Renana Jhabvala,1997

Speaking Out Chrissie Whitehead,1994

Speaking Out Aga Khan Foundation Canada,United Nations Development Fund for Women,1996 The book demonstrates how women are gaining increased access to and control over economic resources and how this in turn has led to far reaching socio cultural and political changes It also shows how women are now building and taking control of their own organizations which are becoming more autonomous and financially self reliant

Speaking Out Women's Economic Empowerment in South Asia Carr,Chen,Renana Jhabvala,1996-01-01 Democracy and Civil Society in Asia Fahim Quadir,2004-03-18 This collection explores the possibilities for expanding and consolidating existing democratic spaces in Asia under the pressure of market reforms It provides new insights into the prospects for democratic consolidations in the region The book explores the ways of going beyond the official and elitist discourses on constitutional democracy and economic development It analyzes the complex challenges of deepening poverty and highlights the obstacles to the empowerment of marginalized communities including women and ethno religious minorities The authors of this volume suggest ways to engender development through grassroots democracy in the new millennium

Income-poverty and Beyond Raja Jesudoss Chelliah,R. Sudarshan,1999 Income Poverty and Beyond emphasizes the need to go beyond the conventional definition of poverty and look at the various human aspects of the problem Special care has been taken to make the information and analysis accessible to the general reader

Socioeconomic Empowerment of Women in Sudan Learning Experiences Nagwa Babiker Abdalla Yousif,2019-09-29 The SWGU believes that comprehensive development and planning processes can only be realised through the promotion of women s empowerment To achieve this goal the SWGU established a coordination mechanism with one of the biggest Sudanese federal ministries the Ministry for Social Planning MSP and in particular the National Council for Social Planning NCSP at both national and state levels Through fundamental empowerment activities women not only participated but also lead those institutions functionally related to the National Economic Planning Council NEPC Accordingly all work was harmonised to pursue the set of goals stated in the Comprehensive Poverty Reduction Strategy CPRS Since women s concerns are varied numerous and interdisciplinary in nature the SWGU officially directed it efforts towards the promotion of women s causes while unofficially targeting the whole spectrum of governmental institutions and non governmental organisations NGOs rather than limiting its efforts by trying to establish a ministry for women s affairs

Empowering Society Usha Jumani,2006-03-06 Empowerment is an integral element of a democratic system The maturity of a democracy is directly related to the level of empowerment its citizens and institutions experience The term empowerment is used in different contexts and this book addresses this problem through a comparative analysis of three major organisational systems business government and social development The book presents a new conceptual framework for understanding the process of empowerment It combines case studies specially for this volume with secondary data and the author's first hand experience of working with development organisations The differential understanding of empowerment in various organisational contexts helps to promote cross sectoral learning and contributes to a qualitative shift in empowering society as a whole

Civil Society and Women Activists in the Middle East Wanda Krause, 2012-05-27 In the Middle East and in Egypt in particular there has always been a tendency to accord complete supremacy to the authority and might of the state and to see society as a separate powerless entity However after the uprising of 2011 this assumption was turned on its head And it is the wide range of political activity beyond the remit of the official state where Wanda Krause locates a dynamic potential for political change from the bottom up She looks in particular at the influential role of women's private voluntary organisations in Egypt in shaping concepts of civil society and democracy Exploring both secular and Islamist organisations she offers a steadfast critique of the view that Islamic women activists are insignificant backward or uncivil Krause's examination of women activists in Egypt today is vital for those interested in Middle East and Gender Studies as well as those researching the wider issues of civil society and democratisation

Feminist Futures Kum-Kum Bhavnani, John Foran, Priya A. Kurian, Debashish Munshi, 2016-10-15 Straddling disciplines and continents Feminist Futures interweaves scholarship and social activism to explore the evolving position of women in the South Working at the intersection of cultural studies critical development studies and feminist theory the book's contributors articulate a radical and innovative framework for understanding the linkages between women culture and development applying it to issues ranging from sexuality and the gendered body to the environment technology and the cultural politics of representation This revised and updated edition brings together leading academics as well as a new generation of activists and scholars to provide a fresh perspective on the ways in which women in the South are transforming our understanding of development

Dangerous Intersections Jael Miriam Silliman, Ynestra King, 1999 This anthology offers a multicultural international look at the issues of environment development and population control Feminist scholars and activists reveal the racism behind the scapegoating of women the poor and immigrants as the source of major world problems and present realistic solutions that rely on the ingenuity and resourcefulness of women

Mainstreaming Gender in Social Protection for the Informal Economy Naila Kabeer, 2008 Explores the gendered dimensions of risk vulnerability and insecurity and hence the need for a gender perspective in the design of social protection measures This book provides an understanding of the constraints and barriers that confine women to more poorly remunerated more casual and more insecure forms of waged and self employment

Cinderella Or Cyberella? Nancy J. Hafkin, 2006 Cinderella or Cyberella what is the future for women in the knowledge society Cyberella is fluent in the uses of technology comfortable using and designing computer technology and working in virtual spaces Cinderella works in the basement of the knowledge society with little opportunity to reap its benefits Promoting women's empowerment through ICTs is one of the critical development challenges of the 21st century Nancy Hafkin and Sophia Huyer acknowledged as leading scholars on gender and information technology have assembled a stellar group of authors for this collection Each essay in the collection depicts ways in which ICTs provide opportunities for women to improve their incomes gain awareness of their rights and improve their own and their families well being Illustrative case studies from Africa Asia and Latin America show the global possibilities for women's empowerment through ICTs Other Contributors Sonia N Jorge Shafika Isaacs Shoba Arun Richard Heeks Sharon Morgan Maria Garrido Raul Roman and Vikas Nath

Managing for Change John Hailey, 2013-09-13 An increasing proportion of the world's poor is dependent on NGOs for the support the state cannot or will not provide but little has been written to analyze or guide best management practice which is so critical to their success Managing for Change addresses the key operational issues facing NGO managers drawing lessons from the reality of southern NGOs It explores areas such as the formation of strategy effective NGO leadership the handling of donor relations staff motivation and development and the management styles most appropriate to crises and change

Countering Discrimination in Social Work Bogdan Lesnik, 2017-07-05 Discrimination Isn't there enough talk about discrimination Yes indeed That is why we have to begin countering discrimination We need strategies that will make it inoperative or at least limit its scope But first we need to think how discrimination works and identify it where it works It concerns far more than mere procedural hitches for which a few legal provisions will do Countering Discrimination Volume 1998 of International Perspectives in Social Work yearbook brings papers that analyse mechanisms of social discrimination in a variety of such locations and bring proposals for counter strategies This is essential in social work if causes rather than manifestations of the problems it is concerned with are to be addressed But it is also essential that everybody who opposes discrimination recognise its subtle and dispersed ways of operation in the human services regardless of their own basic field of work In this respect the book will be useful to a very wide audience
