Spectrum Of The Sacred:

The Spectrum of the Sacred Baidyanath Saraswati, 1984 The Spectrum of the Sacred, 1984 The True Vine, Or, The Analogies of Our Lord's Allegory Hugh Macmillan, 1871 The True Vine Hugh Macmillan, 1871 Sophos Ontology Lee Irwin, 2024-01-04

Sophos Ontology On Post Traditional Spirituality discusses religious plurality and post traditional perspectives on emergent forms of sacred sensibility particularly for those identifying as spiritual but not religious This book is divided into three parts The first part is a retrospective account of multiple religious traditions with emphasis on esoteric thought as influenced by mystical writings covering western eastern and Native American traditions The second part discusses the need for a new conceptualization of the sacred as expressed through multiple spiritual perspectives relevant to a pansentient post traditional process ontology Other topics in this section include the importance of an ethically shaped spirituality collective influences dreams imagination and the role of pluralism in shaping beliefs Part three explores the role of faith redefined as spiritual commitment mysticism as direct experiential knowledge and transpersonal theory influenced by comparative studies in altered states of consciousness paranormal research and the metaphysics of discovery all contributing to the development of present and future spirituality

Beyond Idols Richard K. Fenn, 2001-06-21 This book attempts to articulate the nature of a secular society describe its benefits and suggests the conditions under which such a society could emerge To become secular argues Fenn is to open oneself and one's society to a wide range of possibilities some interesting and exciting some burdensome and dreadful While some sociologists have argued that a Civil Religion is necessary to hold together our newly religionless society Fenn urges that there is nothing to fear and everything to gain from living in a society that is not bound together by sacred memories and beliefs or by sacred institutions and practices

Theology and the Blues Justin McLendon, 2024-12-15 While all music genres incorporate religious imagery the blues has its origin in the soil of the church In its infancy the blues was often dismissed as undermining the church's gospel songbook The initial resistance however could not suppress the organic development of a genre of music born from suffering The great Mississippi Delta bluesman Muddy Waters once said The blues was born behind a mule Behind a beast of burden the working man found in the blues a way to console the everyday experiences of struggle sin loss despair love grief sin death and the fear and hope of crossing the River Jordan into eternal life The church's gospel songbook explores doctrinal foundations set to music but the blues dares to uncover insight into the lived experiences of spiritual journeys Theology and the Blues showcases theological themes inherent within the organic and expressive genre of the blues

Contemplative Literature Louis Komjathy, 2015-08-31 An anthology of primary texts on meditation and contemplative prayer from a wide range of religious traditions This is the first theoretically informed and historically accurate comparative anthology of primary texts on meditation and contemplative prayer Written by international experts on the respective texts and corresponding traditions Contemplative Literature provides introductions to and primary sources on contemplative practice from various religious traditions The contributors explore classical Daoist apophatic meditation Quaker silent prayer Jewish Kabbalah Southern Buddhist meditation Sufi contemplation Eastern Orthodox prayer Pure Land Buddhist visualization Hindu classical Yoga Dominican Catholic prayer Daoist internal alchemy and modern therapeutic meditation Each introduction to a contemplative text discusses its historical context the associated religious tradition and literature the method of contemplative practice and the text's legacy and influence Volume editor Louis Komjathy opens the work with a thoughtful consideration of interpretive issues in the emerging interdisciplinary field of contemplative studies Readers will gain not only a nuanced understanding of important works of contemplative literature but also resources for understanding contemplative practice and contemplative experience from a comparative and cross cultural perspective We have not seen anything this bold and this global since Friedrich Heiler wrote his classic study on the typology of prayer over eighty years ago Komjathy and his essayists have vastly expanded the scope depth and sophistication of this project here In the process they have struggled with all of the critical questions around religious pluralism tradition and religious authority and have emboldened the comparative project itself Contemplation and comparison it turns out go very well together Jeffrey J Kripal author of Comparing Religions Coming to Terms Teachers and scholars undergraduate and graduate students and general readers interested in contemplative practice will cherish a book like this I'm happy that Louis Komjathy has done this great work It will undoubtedly be hailed as a milestone Ruben L F Habito author of Healing Breath Zen for Christians and Buddhists in a Wounded World Tropical Ecology, 2006 Media Perceptions of Religious Changes in Australia Enqi Weng, 2019-12-05 This volume explores the contradiction between the news coverage given to issues of religion particularly since 2001 in relation to issues such as terrorism politics security and gender and the fact of its apparent decline according to Census data Based on media research in Australia and offering comparisons with the UK the author demonstrates that media discussions overlook the diversity that exists within religions particularly the country's main religion Christianity and presents religion according to specific interpretations shaped by race class and gender which in turn result in very limited understandings of religion itself Drawing on understandings of the sacred as a non negotiable value present in religious and secular form Media Perceptions of Religious Changes in Australia calls for a broader sociological perspective on religion and will appeal to scholars of sociology and media studies with interests in religion and public life Spectrum, 2006 Dynamics of Desacralization Paola Partenza, 2015-01-28 The idea of desacralization has become almost commonplace attributing to the word the rejection of what is sacred One might think that it is strictly connected to theology and its system or suppose that it implies the relationship human beings have with anything that can express a denial of the spiritual part of life The concept of desacralization has numerous meanings either from a philosophical or a literary viewpoint The scholars investigation of Dynamics of Desacralization has made this collection of essays rich and varied revealing new worlds the different authors have created What they do is to narrate various types of desacralization interrogating the nature of novels poems or works of art certain aspects of being are revealed through various expressions engaging the multiple levels and the meaning of desacralization providing an articulation and interpretation of it

Impurity and Sin in Ancient Judaism Jonathan Klawans,2004 Jonathan Klawans shows how the link between moral impurity and physical defilement as understood by the ancient Hebrews can be followed through to St Paul and the Christian era when the need for ritual purity was finally rejected

Master of the Moon: Ronnie James Dio Wikipedia Presents,

Explorations in Psychoanalytic Ethnography Jadran Mimica,2007-05-01 Whereas most anthropological research is grounded in social cultural and biological analysis of the human condition this volume opens up a different approach its concerns are the psychic depths of human cultural life worlds as explored through psycho analytic practice and or the psychoanalytically framed ethnographic project In fact some contributors here argue that the anthropological interpretation of human existence is not sustainable without psychoanalysis others take a less extreme radical stance but still maintain that the unconscious matrix of the human psyche and of the intersubjective social reality of any given cultural life world is a vital domain of anthropological and sociological inquiry and understanding

The Silent Church Zdravko Plantak,2016-07-27 The relationship between the Adventist church and society at large has always been ambiguous One reason for this has been the church's inarticulate social ethics While the church upheld the concept of human dignity promoted religious liberty and sided with the poor nationalism and racism developed among its members Women in the church were also unfairly treated Zdravko Plantak confronts this problem head on He begins by looking at the church's history theology and ethics in order to discover reasons for the inconsistencies in its approach to human rights and then moves on to propose a more comprehensive approach to its social ethics
