Speech Communication Rational Approach:

Speech Communication John C. Zacharis, Coleman C. Bender, 1976-01-01 Communication and Group Decision Making Randy Y. Hirokawa, Marshall Scott Poole, 1996-07-09 The long awaited second edition of Communication and Group Decision Making advances a unique perspective on group decisionmaking complementing approaches taken in management psychology and sociology Group communication processes are extremely important yet they have proven to be elusive and difficult to understand and the type of theory necessary to make sense of the processes differs from those commonly found in the social sciences This exceptional book gathers together and discusses a number of strong theoretical frameworks that have developed over the past 15 years Providing important empirical evidence the authors take stock of recent developments in group communication research The essays are distinctive both in their explicit focus on communication processes and in their location in a unique intellectual tradition The Rhetoric of Blair, Campbell, and Whately James L.

Golden, Edward P. J. Corbett, 1968 Hugh Blair George Campbell and Richard Whately whose works were first published in the late 18th and early 19th centuries constituted the great triumvirate of British Rhetoricians For 20 years earlier printings of this book which contains substantial excerpts comprising the most significant portions of their writings have been widely used as textbooks in history of rhetoric courses An increasing interest in rhetoric at the college level has created a renewed demand for reprints of such classic primary texts The Preface places the three rhetoricians within the context of the rhetorical tradition which began in 5th century BCE Greece The bibliographies have been updated to include 20th century scholarly work on Blair Campbell and Whately and on the 18th and 19th century rhetorical movement Biographical sketches of Blair Campbell and Whately are also provided International Review of Research in Mental Retardation
