Telling Of Lies A Mystery:

The Telling of Lies Timothy Findley, 1986 Timothy Findley's Novels Between Ethics and Postmodernism Dagmar Krause, 2005 Timothy Findley 1930 2002 is one of the most important contemporary Canadian writers His novels have been classified as postmodern exhibiting characteristic features such as parody historiographic metafiction and hybrid genres This classification of Findley as a postmodern writer however largely neglects the fact that Findley is deeply committed to the exploration of certain ethical and political themes Recurring topics in his work are for instance fascism environmental concerns and the problem of responsibility Sparked off by the fascinating question of how postmodernism and ethics can be reconciled at all and inspired by the so called ethical turn in the literary theory of the 1990s this study supplies a closer look at Findley s ethics with regard to its postmodern potential A detailed analysis of five of his novels The Wars Famous Last Words Not Wanted on the Voyage The Telling of Lies and Headhunter explores the ethical dimension of Findleys work and its consequences for his categorization as a postmodern writer Moral Metafiction Donna Pennee, 1991 Examines Findley s novels from The Last of the Crazy People through The Telling of Lies for the ways in which their use of metafictional devices pose specifically ethical challenges for readers Findley s novels dramatize the process of interpretation and interrogation of dominant discourses from the point of view of those subjects either already marginalized by history or who choose to repudiate dominant texts and thus become marginalized As revisionist texts these novels tell history from the losers point of view and in the process of explicating how dominant discourse is constructed they create the possibility of other constructions and seek to express counterdiscourses But they also make clear that such expressions are themselves constructions their ethical challenge lies in problematizing readers knowledge of dominant history and in asking readers to choose their constructions carefully Family Matters New York Tri-State Chapter of Sisters in Crime, Anita Page, Clare Toohey, Catherine Maiorisi, Cynthia Benjamin, Fran Cox, Lindsay A. Curcio, Eileen Dunbaugh, Lynne Lederman, Kate Lincoln, Terrie Farley Moran, Dorothy Mortman, Leigh Neely, Ellen Quint, Roslyn Siegel, Triss Stein, Cathi Stoler, Anne Marie Sutton, Deirdre Verne, Stephanie Wilson-Flaherty, Elizabeth Zelvin, 2014-09-09 Includes a 2015 Derringer Award winning short story The Kaluki Kings of Queens Come meet the relatives As diverse in theme and mood as the city itself these stories take us from from the explosive excitement of the New York City Marathon to a secret cellar in Queens from the warmth of an immigrant culture to the moneyed New York art world from brutality and poverty to Wall Street s privileged thugs the What the families have in common is this their lives have been changed forever by crime Motives The usual jealousy and greed rage and revenge self protection and politics secrets and lies Inside Family Matters Murder New York Style the twenty short stories by members of the New York Tri State chapter of Sisters in Crime edited by Derringer winner Anita Page are as diverse in theme and mood as the city s neighborhoods offering action packed mystery that ranges from cozy to noir The sleuths police officers and investigators who grapple with crime inside these covers are richly drawn and engagingly authentic Dorothy L.
