The Acadian Diaspora Christopher Hodson, 2012-05-01 Late in 1755 an army of British regulars and Massachusetts volunteers completed one of the cruelest most successful military campaigns in North American history capturing and deporting seven thousand French speaking Catholic Acadians from the province of Nova Scotia and chasing an equal number into the wilderness of eastern Canada Thousands of Acadians endured three decades of forced migrations and failed settlements that shuttled them to the coasts of South America the plantations of the Caribbean the frigid islands of the South Atlantic the swamps of Louisiana and the countryside of central France The Acadian Diaspora tells their extraordinary story in full for the first time illuminating a long forgotten world of imperial desperation experimental colonies and naked brutality Using documents culled from archives in France Great Britain Canada and the United States Christopher Hodson reconstructs the lives of Acadian exiles as they traversed oceans and continents pushed along by empires eager to populate new frontiers with inexpensive pliable white farmers Hodson s compelling narrative situates the Acadian diaspora within the dramatic geopolitical changes triggered by the Seven Years War Faced with redrawn boundaries and staggering national debts imperial architects across Europe used the Acadians to realize radical plans tropical settlements without slaves expeditions to the unknown southern continent and perhaps strangest of all agricultural colonies within old regime France itself In response Acadians embraced their status as human commodities using intimidation and even violence to tailor their communities to the superheated Atlantic market for cheap mobile labor Through vivid intimate stories of Acadian exiles and the diverse transnational cast of characters that surrounded them The Acadian Diaspora presents the eighteenth century Atlantic world from a new angle challenging old assumptions about uprooted peoples and the very nature of early modern empire

An Historical Geography of Europe Robin Alan Butlin, Robert A. Dodgshon, 1998 An Historical Geography of Europe represents the first multi authored comprehensive study on the subject It provides the reader with an analytical and explanatory account of European historical geography from classical times to the modern period including the vast changes to landscape settlements population and in political and cultural structures and character that have taken place since 1500 The book takes account of the vast volume of relevant research and literature that has been published over the past two or three decades in order to achieve a unique coverage and synthesis of this very broad range of evidence and opinion and has tried to engage with many of the main themes and debates to give a clear indication of changing ideas and interpretations of the subject This book brings together British and European authors from a number of disciplines who have considerable distinction in the various fields of historical geography and related fields including a significant number who have already written on the wider problem of European historical geography It is amply illustrated with maps and diagrams to present many of the issues in a visual form The Primacy of the Image in Northern European Art, 1400-1700 Debra Cashion, Henry Luttikhuisen, Ashley West, 2017-08-21 The Primacy of the Image in Northern Art 1400 1700 Essays in Honor of Larry Silver is an anthology of 42 essays written by distinguished scholars on current research and methodology in the art history of Northern Europe of the late medieval and early modern periods Written in tribute to Larry Silver Farquhar Professor of the History of Art at the University of Pennsylvania the topics are inspired by Professor Silver's renowned scholarship in these areas Early Netherlandish Painting and Prints Sixteenth Century Netherlandish Painting Manuscripts Patrons and Printed Books Diner and the Power of Pictures Prints and Printmaking and Seventeenth Century Painting Studies of specific artists include Hans Memling Albrecht Dürer Hans Baldung Grien Hieronymus Bosch Pieter Bruegel Hendrick Goltzius and Rembrandt Navigating by the Southern Cross Kenneth Morgan, 2021-01-28 In this comprehensive study Kenneth Morgan provides an authoritative account of European exploration and discovery in Australia The book presents a detailed chronological overview of European interests in the Australian continent from initial speculations about the Great Southern Land to the major hydrographic expeditions of the 19th century In particular he analyses the early crossings of the Dutch in the 17th century the exploits of English buccaneer adventurer William Dampier the famous voyages of James Cook and Matthew Flinders and the little known French annexation of Australia in 1772 Introducing new findings and drawing on the latest in historiographical research this book situates developments in navigation nautical astronomy and cartography within the broader contexts of imperial colonial and maritime history Imagining The Pacific Bernard Smith, 2018-06-01 In this book Bernard Smith explores in more depth the issues first dealt with in his classic European Vision and the South Pacific He continues his careful examination of how European artists and scientists travelling to the Pacific during the time of Cook's voyages were stimulated to see the world in new and creative ways In analysing intensely personal responses to a new accessible environment Bernard Smith shows how science topography and travel had an impact on current pictorial genres Among many surprising findings he argues that the obligation science placed on art to provide information was a factor in the triumph of Impressionism during the late nineteenth century With its breadth of vision and attention to detail its exploration of the complex relationship between the pursuit of knowledge and the exercise of power Imagining the Pacific takes its place alongside Bernard Smith's earlier work as a milestone in historical scholarship The Aboriginal Male in the Enlightenment World Shino Konishi, 2015-10-06 This is the first historical study of indigenous Australian masculinity Using the reactions of eighteenth century western explorers to

Aboriginal men Konishi argues that these encounters were not as negative as has been thought Virtual Voyages Paul Longley Arthur,2011 Virtual Voyages is a fascinating account of the European discovery of the elusive great south land told through the literature of imaginary voyages Written at the height of the era of European maritime exploration these bizarre and captivating tales with their wildly imaginative visions of antipodean inversion and strangeness reveal a hidden history of attitudes to colonization By exposing the relationship between myth and reality in the antipodes this book casts new light on the power of fiction to influence history Australia as the Antipodal Utopia Daniel Hempel,2019-10-31 Australia has a fascinating history of visions As the antipode to Europe the continent provided a radically different and uniquely fertile ground for envisioning places spaces and societies Australia as the Antipodal Utopia evaluates this complex intellectual history by mapping out how Western visions of Australia evolved from antiquity to the modern period It argues that because of its antipodal relationship with Europe Australia is imagined as a particular form of utopia but since one person s utopia is more often than not another s dystopia Australia s utopian quality is both complex and highly ambiguous Drawing on the rich field of utopian studies Australia as the Antipodal Utopia provides an original and insightful study of Australia s place in the Western imagination British Maritime Enterprise in the New World Peter T. Bradley,1999 This is a survey of the voyages of English navigators from the pioneers of the late 15th century to the scientific expeditions of the early 19th century not only in South American waters but also the Caribbean and North America The First Wave Gillian Dooley,Danielle Clode,2019-06-20 The European maritime explorers who first visited the bays and beaches of Australia brought with them diverse assumptions about the inhabitants of the country most of them based on sketchy or non existent knowledge contemporary theories like the idea of the noble savage and an automatic belief in the superiority of European civilisation Mutual misunderstanding was almost universal whether it resulted in violence or apparently friendly transactions Written for a general audience The First Wave brings together a variety of contributions from thought provoking writers including both original research and creative work Our contributors explore the dynamics of these early encounters from Indigenous cosmological perspectives and European history of ideas from representations in art and literature to the role of animals food and fire in mediating first contact encounters and Indigenous agency in exploration and shipwrecks The First Wave includes poetry by Yankunytjatjara Aboriginal poet Ali Cobby Eckermann fiction by Miles Franklin award winning Noongar author Kim Scott and Danielle Clode and an account of the arrival of Christian missionaries in the Torres Strait Islands by Torres Strait political leader George Mye Routledge Library Editions: Women, Feminism and Literature Isobel Armstrong,2013-12-19 Reissuing seminal works originally published between 1979 and 1994 Routledge Library Editions Women Feminism and Literature offers a selection of scholarship from a time of great change in feminist studies and literary studies Topics cover all aspects of women s literature gender and feminism through literary criticism and the work of women literary theorists A Draught of the South Land Paul Moon,2024-01-01 The story of how the map of New Zealand emerged is a fascinating one The first full map of the islands was published in London in 1773 which might seem the natural starting point but over the preceding 150 years fragments of charts and intelligence about New Zealand ricocheted around various parts of the world In A Draught of the South Land Paul Moon provides the first comprehensive account of this piecemeal process Moon's investigation covers several continents over more than a century and reveals the personalities blunders strategic miscalculations scientific brilliance and imperial power plays that were involved Above all he examines the roles played by explorers and traders M ori and European rulers scientific societies and military groups as well as specialist cartographers and publishers At a time when maps as colonial tools enablers of trade and objects of curiosity are being studied anew his careful analysis and engaging narrative will be of interest to scholars everywhere

Travel Narratives, the New Science, and Literary Discourse, 1569-1750 Judy A. Hayden, 2016-03-03 The focus of this volume is the intersection and the cross fertilization between the travel narrative literary discourse and the New Philosophy in the early modern to early eighteenth century historical periods Contributors examine how in an historical era which realized an emphasis on nation and during a time when exploration was laying the foundation for empire science and the literary discourse of the travel narrative become intrinsically linked Together the essays in this collection point out the way in which travel narratives reflect the anxiety from changes brought about through the discoveries of the new knowledge and the way this knowledge in turn provided a new and more complex understanding of the expanding world in which the writers lived The worlds in this text are many for no world is monomial from the antipodes to the New World from the heavens to the seas and from fictional worlds to the world which contains and or constructs one s nation and empire All of these essays demonstrate the manner in which the New Philosophy dramatically changed literary discourse
