Parks, 2013-12 32 Linden Avenue is perched high up on a hill overlooking a small town in western Pennsylvania and is the heart of this evocative journey through the author's fragmented memories of Appalachia The murmuring of the women the love and everyday lives of those living in the hard hill country and then the drenching of those memories in the deep hushed and hovering Protestant faith of that time and that place is woven into a spell drenched in the detailed memories of everyday life A child temporarily separated from her father and mother and brother by fate found magic and succor and most of all enduring love The young mother sees the same magic through older eyes and in the midst of the pain of her mother's final illness and bitter frustrated life is as when a child comforted by her family from the hill Haunted throughout her life the author sees all this from even older eyes and vows that her children and now grandchildren shall not be deprived of the chance to seize meaning and beauty and thus comfort from these remembrances Faraway Summer Johanna Hurwitz, 2014-06-30 Two weeks seems like forever to Dossi Rabinowitz a poor Jewish orphan from New York City who is sent by the Fresh Air Fund to a small Vermont town during the summer of 1910 With her journal as her closest companion Dossi reflects on her struggle to understand her Christian host family and their rural community
