Osmer, 2021-10-12 Moving beyond conversionism Many Christians today are uncomfortable with older simpler notions about evangelism as conversionism but see as insufficient the more progressive model of evangelism as hospitality Transcending that dichotomy Richard Osmer advances a theology of evangelism as a multifaceted act of invitation into Christ following community Osmer begins by exploring references to evangelism in the New Testament both in the Gospels and in the letters of Paul He then enters into dialogue with Karl Barth to work through ideas of church witness and the relationship of evangelism to salvation Finally with lucid explanations and illustrative case studies he offers guidance for pastors laity and students to use as they reimagine how evangelism might best happen in their churches and missional organizations Osmer s approach mirrors the conviction stated in his introduction that our concept of evangelism must be formed and constantly reformed by keeping the Bible church doctrine and practical theology in conversation Foundational to Osmer s rendering of evangelism as invitation is the essential truth that it is Christ and the Holy Spirit who calls converts and makes disciples not Christians Thus we can invite our neighbors to the wedding feast while remaining reassured that the table is already set Wisconsin Lutheran Quarterly ,1984 An Endless Line of Splendor Earle E. Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education The Continuing Conversion of the Church Darrell L. Guder, 2000-03-20 Western society is now a very different very difficult mission field In such a situation the mission of evangelism cannot succeed with an attitude of business as usual This volume builds a theology of evangelism that has its focus on the church itself Darrell Guder shows that the church's missionary calling requires that the theology and practice of evangelism be fundamentally rethought and redirected focused on the continuing evangelization of the church so that it can carry out its witness faithfully in today's world In Part 1 Guder explores how under the influence of reductionism and individualism the church has historically moved away from a biblical theology of evangelism Part 2 presents contemporary challenges to the church's evangelical ministry especially those challenges that illustrate the church's need for continuing conversion Part 3 discusses what a truly missional theology would mean for the church including sweeping changes in its institutional structures and practices Written for teachers church leaders and students of evangelism this volume is vital reading for everyone engaged in mission work Write the Vision Wilbert R. Shenk, 2001-05-16 Shenk contends that the engagement of the church with modern Western culture resulted in the marginalization of Christian faith and the undermining of the church's integrity He maintains that when the church of the West is renewed it will be a church of integrity and a clear sense of mission to its own culture Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God John Jefferson Davis, 2015-07-13 Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God presents a new paradigm for church ministry one that is based on fundamental truths of the Christian faith such as the Trinity union with Christ and the already presence of the Holy Spirit in the church This new paradigm can help busy pastors avoid burnout in the ministry and model Trinitarian New Testament patterns of ministry to their people Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God reflects the best of recent New Testament scholarship sensitivity to the contexts of globalized postmodern cultures dominated by digital media and practical applications for Christian life discipleship worship and mission Post-Christendom Studies: Volume 5 Steven M. Studebaker, Lee Beach, Gordon L. Heath, 2021-08-17 Post Christendom Studies publishes research on the nature of Christian identity and mission in the contexts of post Christendom Post Christendom refers to places both now and in the past where Christianity was once a significant cultural presence though not necessarily the dominant religion Sometimes Christendom refers to the official link between church and state The term post Christendom is often associated with the rise of secularization religious pluralism and multiculturalism in western countries over the past sixty years Our use of the term is broader than that however Egypt for example can be considered a post Christendom context It was once a leading center of Christianity Christendom moreover does not necessarily mean official public and dominant religion For example under Saddam Hussein Christianity was probably a minority religion but for the most part Christians were left alone After America deposed Saddam Christians began to flee because they became a persecuted minority In that sense post Saddam Iraq is an experience of post Christendom it is a shift from a cultural context in which Christians have more or less freedom to exercise their faith to one where they are persecuted and or marginalized for doing so     Accounts of a Campus Revival Timothy Beougher, Lyle W. Dorsett, 2002-09-04 In the spring of 1995 prayer and the Spirit of God wrought great changes in the halls of academia Through a series of revivals which began at Baptist churches in Brownwood and Santa Anna Texas God moved across the face of American campuses From Texas to Minnesota from Massachusetts to Oregon lives were touched and schools and churches were turned upside down While focusing on Wheaton College this book chronicles the events as they affected many schools and students You will find here the characteristics of revivals and a history of campus awakenings You will read firsthand accounts of how the Wheaton revival affected students and how it spread to other campuses and churches This touching report gives readers a glimpse of what happens when God s spirit moves in a dramatic way among His people
