Speaking Of Pets:

Speaking of Animals Terry Caesar, 2009 Speaking of Animals consists of a linked series of thirteen essays about subjects ranging from deciding to castrate a dog evaluating recent dog memoirs observing animals in Spain reading about the training of big cats watching Animal Planet and being unable to kill a racoon in Texas So often personal even while analyzing novels such as Water for Elephants or movies such as Giant or Into the Wild the essays offer both an implicit critique and a continuation of recent discursive trends in animal studies whose language is too haplessly abstracted from the animals in whose name we humans strive to speak as well as narrate

Speaking for Spot Nancy Kay, 2008 Provides hundreds of tips to help dog owners make well informed decisions for their pets including information on finding the right doctor understanding veterinary vocabulary and technology getting a second opinion and supporting one's pet through various stages of illness

The Speaking Animal Alison Suen, 2015-10-02 Animals regularly populate philosophical texts as a foil to illustrate what it means to be human How should we understand this human animal divide Not only does it inform us of who we are it also tells us how we should relate to the larger non human world The Speaking Animal interrogates the human animal divide by looking at our linguistic differences how the speaking human subject is constructed through its opposition to the dumb animal Alison Suen begins with an analysis of the role of language in animal ethics with an eye toward the voice voiceless opposition that is at work in animal advocacy After offering a critical analysis of the ethical and political significance of speaking for animals the book takes on a more constructive turn going against the usual interpretation of language as a capacity that allows us to reason Instead it argues that our language capacity is also a relational capacity Language is that which enables us to develop kinship with others including animal others
