Speaking Out Of Turn Lectures And Speeches 1940 1991:

Speaking Out Of Turn Manning Clark, 2013-05-09 This fascinating book brings together forty two selected speeches and lectures by Professor Manning Clark They range over fifty years from What of Germany delivered in 1940 to the last delivered in 1991 just before his death at the launch of Barry Humphries book The Life and Death of Sandy Stone and reveal recurring themes as well as developments in Clark s thinking In one sense they are all of a piece They reflect the values aspirations regrets and laughter of one passionate and intelligent man In another they change and develop during the course of that man s intellectual and emotional career In early manhood he analysed issues and problems ruthlessly in terms of his own values In middle life he portrayed men and women and expounded ideas from a historical perspective Towards his end the elegiac mood prevailed and he sought not always successfully to speak as a life affirmer and to regard all men and women and events with the eye of pity A History of Australia Volumes 1 2 Earliest Times 1838 deals with the pre white settlement era and the earliest years of European colonisation through to the establishment of an increasingly settled society and the expeditions of the great inland explorers Patrick White Beyond the Grave Ian Henderson, Anouk Lang, 2015-08-15 Patrick White 1912 1990 won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1973 and remains one of Australia s most celebrated writers In 2006 White s literary executor Barbara Mobbs released a highly significant collection of hitherto unpublished papers reviving mainstream and scholarly interest in his work Patrick White Beyond the Grave considers White s writing in light of the new findings acknowledging his homosexuality in relation to the development of his literary style examining the way he engages his readers and contextualizing his life and oeuvre in relation to London and to London life Thought provoking this collection of original essays represents the work of an outstanding list of White scholars from around the globe and will no doubt inspire further work on White from a rising generation of scholars of twentieth century literature beyond Australia

Clio's Lives Doug Munro, John G. Reid, 2017-10-09 Including contributions from leading scholars in the field from both Australia and North America this collection explores diverse approaches to writing the lives of historians and ways of assessing the importance of doing so Beginning with the writing of autobiographies by historians the volume then turns to biographical studies both of historians whose writings were in some sense nation defining and those who may be regarded as having had a major influence on defining the discipline of history The final section explores elements of collective biography linking these to the formation of historical networks A concluding essay by Barbara Caine offers a critical appraisal of the study of historians biographies and autobiographies to date and maps out likely new directions for future work Clio s Lives is a very good scholarly collection that advances the study of autobiography and biography within the writing of history itself taking theoretical questions in significant new directions The contributors are well known and highly respected in the history profession and write with an insight and intellectual energy that will ensure the book has considerable impact They examine cutting edge issues about the writing of history at the personal level through autobiography and biography in diverse and innovative ways Together the writers have provided reflective chapters that will be widely read for their impressive theoretical advances as well as being inspirational for new entrants to the disciplinary area Patricia Grimshaw University of Melbourne Clio's Lives brings together a most interesting and varied cast of contributors Its chapters contain sophisticated and well penned ruminations on the uses of biography and autobiography among historians These are clearly connected with the general themes of the volume This delightfully mixed bag makes very good reading and as well will serve as a substantial contribution to the study of the biography and autobiography Eric Richards Flinders University Action as History Stein Helgeby, 2016-03-03 R G Collingwood's philosophy of history reflected his historical practices and his moral philosophy Reflection on historical practice provided him with a theory of knowledge his moral philosophy provided him with a theory of the object of history This study shows how Collingwood's concepts of action and history developed together Thinkers, Activists, and Politics R. G. Williams, 2025-06-27 This book is a collection of critical essays that examines the lives politics and ideas of several radical activists writers and revolutionaries over the past two centuries individuals who fought for human freedom Spanning figures from Karl Marx to Che Guevara the essays delve into the challenges these revolutionaries faced and how their bold ideas reshaped political thought They also highlight how the legacy of their actions continues to fuel debates about freedom humanity and the role of the individual in modern society People often interpret the world real revolutionaries attempt to change it Private Lives, Public History Anna Clark, 2016-02-01 The past is consumed on a grand scale popularised by television programs enjoyed by reading groups walking groups historical societies and heritage tours and supported by unprecedented digital access to archival records Yet our history has also become the subject of heated political contest and debate In Private Lives Public History historian Anna Clark explores how our personal pasts intersect with broader historical questions and debates Drawing on interviews with Australians from five communities around the country she uncovers how we think about the past in the context of our local and intimate stories and the role history plays in our lives Knowledge Solution: Australian History Anna Clark, 2019-11-05 What can we learn from recurring events across the recent history of Australia of colonisation nationalism racism fighting on foreign shores land booms industrial campaigns and culture wars Arguments about the discipline of Australian History from thinkers across the ideological and historical spectrum are distilled in these extracts and essays The Knowledge Solution Australian History is the second collection in a series that draws from the remarkable books published by Australia's oldest university press Contributors include Bain Attwood Geoffrey Blainey Michael Cannon Raffaello Carboni Manning Clark Peter Cochrane James Curran Mark Davis Alexandra Delliios Richard Evans Michele Grossman Marcia Langton Helen MacDonald Stuart Macintyre Janet McCalman Mark McKenna Lisa Palmer Ray Parkin Rachel Perkins Robert Reynolds John Rickard Kathryn Shain Peter Spearritt Peter Sutton Rebe Taylor Maureen Tehan David Unaipon Jo Wainer Stuart Ward Ellen Warne Myra Willard and Alexis Wright Decolonizing Trauma Studies: Trauma and Postcolonialism Sonya Andermahr, 2018-10-01 This book is a Dangerous Dreamers Peter Hruby, Petr Hrubý, 2010 Australian spy Ian Milner was suspected of working for Soviet and Czechoslovak secret services on four continents He served at the United Nations in New York and the FBI followed him day and night before eventually declaring he was not a spy But secret documents from Prague show he was spying all along Wilfred Burchett claimed to be an independent Australian journalist He wrote dozens of books and Prague documents prove that he was a secret member of the Communist Party of Australia He also worked for Soviet Korean Chinese and Vietnamese secret services Drawing upon past secret documents of Australian Czechoslovak and U S secret agencies along with important Soviet records historian and professor Peter Hruby who grew up under Communist rule and taught in Australia for decades uncovers the secrets of the ideology and its manipulative advocates Along with the stories of spies previously unknown or overlooked also discover How Communists pushed for revolution in Australia The role of writers and artists in the struggle How terrorists and politicians influenced the movement And much more Uncover the secrets of history and discover the truth about Communism and its role in Australia in Dangerous Dreamers Here is the (Australian) News Melissa Agnew, 2008 Australia is a big country that needs fine voices to resonate Australia wide in our ever changing news industry The newscasting profession has struggled to overcome a scarcity of training or guidance material on how to use the voice properly to present the news on radio and television Hence this book is specifically for Australian newscasters

Constitutions Judith Pryor, 2007-08-09 Bringing a postcolonial perspective to UK constitutional debates and including a detailed and comparative engagement with the constitutions of Britain's ex colonies this book is an original reflection upon the relationship between the written and the unwritten constitution Can a nation have an unwritten constitution While written constitutions both found and define modern nations Britain is commonly regarded as one of the very few exceptions to this rule Drawing on a range of theories concerning writing law and violence from Robert Cover to Jacques Derrida Constitutions makes a theoretical intervention into conventional constitutional analyses by problematizing the notion of a written constitution on which they are based Situated within the frame of the former British empire this book deconstructs the conventional opposition between the margins and the centre as well as between the written and unwritten by paying very close detailed attention to the constitutional texts under consideration Pryor argues that Britain's unwritten constitution and immemorial common law only take on meaning in a relation of difference with the written constitutions of its former colonies These texts in turn draw on this pre literate origin in order to legitimize themselves The unwritten constitution of Britain can therefore be located and dislocated in postcolonial written constitutions Constitutions is an excellent addition to the bookshelves of all students of the philosophy of law political theory constitutional and administrative law and jurisprudence

Observing Australia Ken Inglis, 2013-04-18 Ken Inglis is one of Australia's most admired and warmly regarded historians For forty years he has looked with a sharp but sympathetic eye at how we came to be who we are Written with style and wit Observing Australia is a collection of his short pieces They come from many sources for Inglis's engagement in our continuing conversation about Australian life has always been expressed through the mainstream press as well as in scholarly journals and his books Of those books The Stuart Case related how the life of an Aboriginal man wrongly condemned to death was saved while Australian Colonists set a new path for Australian social history Later came Inglis's penetrating history of the ABC and his role as a creator of the massive bicentennial history Australians A Historical Library and his recent multi award winning Sacred Places War Memorials in the Australian Landscape This collection reflects the breadth of Inglis's interests the making and remaking of Australian nationality war memory and ritual the lives of colleagues such as Manning Clark and Stephen Murray Smith religion multiculturalism and finding the right word

Highland Homecomings Paul Basu, 2007-03-12 The first full length ethnographic study of its kind Highland Homecomings examines the role of place ancestry and territorial attachment in the context of a modern age characterized by mobility and rootlessness With an interdisciplinary approach speaking to current themes in anthropology archaeology history historical geography cultural studies migration studies tourism studies Scottish studies Paul Basu explores the journeys made to the Scottish Highlands and Islands to undertake genealogical research and seek out ancestral sites Using an innovative methodological approach Basu tracks journeys between imagined homelands and physical landscapes and argues that through these genealogical journeys individuals are able to construct meaningful self narratives from the ambiguities of their diasporic migrant histories and recover their sense of home and self identity This is a significant contribution to popular and academic Scottish studies literature particularly appealing to popular and academic audiences in USA Canada Australia New Zealand and Scotland

Life Writing After Empire Astrid Rasch, 2018-10-11 A watershed moment of the twentieth century the end of empire saw upheavals to global power structures and national identities However decolonisation profoundly affected individual subjectivities too Life Writing After Empire examines how people around the globe have made sense of the post imperial condition through the practice of life writing in its multifarious expressions from auto biography through travel writing to oral history and photography Through interdisciplinary approaches that draw on literature and history alike the contributors explore how we might approach these genres differently in order to understand how individual life writing reflects broader societal changes From far flung corners of the former British Empire people have turned to life writing to manage painful or nostalgic memories as well as to think about the past and future of the nation anew through the personal experience In a range of innovative and insightful contributions some of the foremost scholars of the field challenge the way we think about narrative memory and identity after empire This book was originally published as a special issue of Life Writing

Solid Bluestone Foundations Kathleen Fitzpatrick, 2015-09-08 Hughenden the seaside mansion of Kathleen's grandparents provided the solid bluestone foundations of her somewhat peripatetic youth offering her a haven of emotional security and material abundance The puzzled observations and alert curiosity of a highly intelligent child are vividly recreated in these beautifully written recollections which paint an evocative picture of middle class life in Melbourne in the early years of the twentieth century The divisions between her Catholic and Protestant grandparents and the contrast between the dedicated civil servants on one side of the family and the energetic entrepreneurs on the other are depicted with the sharp eyed acuity of youth Kathleen s mediocre schooling the awakening of her feminist consciousness her discovery at the University of Melbourne of her true vocation as a historian and her unhappy experiences at Oxford are major themes of her memoir The book is greatly enhanced by Susan Davies Introduction family tree and other materials offering valuable new insights and information for historians those interested in women s lives and scholars of Australian autobiography First time readers as well as those already familiar with Solid Bluestone Foundations will welcome this elegant new edition of Kathleen Fitzpatrick s charming recollection of an Australian childhood

Eye for Eternity Mark McKenna, 2020-11-03 Manning

Clark was a complex demanding and brilliant man Mark McKenna s compelling biography of this giant of Australia s cultural landscape is informed by his reading of Clark s extensive private letters journals and diaries many that have never been read before An Eye for Eternity paints a sweeping portrait of the man who gave Australians the signature account of their own history It tells of his friendships with Patrick White and Sidney Nolan It details an urgent and dynamic marriage ripped apart at times by Clark s constant need for extramarital romantic love A son who wrote letters to his dead parents A historian who placed narrative ahead of facts A doubter who flirted with Catholicism A controversial public figure who marked slights and criticisms with deeply held grudges To understand Clark s life is to understand twentieth century Australia And it raises fundamental questions about the craft of biography When are letters too personal comments too hurtful and insights too private to publish Clark incessantly documented his life leaving notes to the biographers he knew would pursue his story He had a deep need to be remembered and this book means he will now be understood in an unforgettable way The Journal of Commonwealth Literature , 1998 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature
