Science on American Television Marcel Chotkowski, 2024-05-31 As television emerged as a major cultural and economic force many imagined that the medium would enhance civic education for topics like science And indeed television soon offered a breathtaking banquet of scientific images and ideas both factual and fictional Mr Wizard performed experiments with milk bottles Viewers watched live coverage of solar eclipses and atomic bomb blasts Television cameras followed astronauts to the moon Carl Sagan through the Cosmos and Jane Goodall into the jungle Via electrons and embryos blood testing and blasting caps fictional Frankensteins and chatty Nobel laureates television opened windows onto the world of science But what promised to be a wonderful way of presenting science to huge audiences turned out to be a disappointment argues historian Marcel Chotkowski LaFollette in Science on American Television LaFollette narrates the history of science on television from the 1940s to the turn of the twenty first century to demonstrate how disagreements between scientists and television executives inhibited the medium s potential to engage in meaningful science education In addition to examining the content of shows she also explores audience and advertiser responses the role of news in engaging the public in science and the making of scientific celebrities Lively and provocative Science on American Television establishes a new approach to grappling with the popularization of science in the television age when the medium s ubiquity and influence shaped how science was presented and the scientific community had increasingly less control over what appeared on the air Special Edition Daniel Einstein, 1987 journalism and journalists have intersected with hostile barriers and divisions in the past we can have a more nuanced understanding of the current global media environment      Through Jaundiced Eyes William Puette,1992 Cover the period 1930 to 1991 Contains lists of movies television news specials and documentaries and plot synopses of television dramas about labour unions      Encyclopedia of Television Horace Newcomb,2014-02-03 The Encyclopedia of Television second edition is the first major reference work to provide description history analysis and information on more than 1100 subjects related to television in its international context For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclo pedia of Television 2nd edition website      Academic Films for the Classroom Geoff Alexander,2014-01-10 Exploring a realm of film often dismissed as campy or contrived this book traces the history of classroom educational films from the silent era through the 1980s when film finally began to lose ground to video based and digital media It profiles 35 individual academic filmmakers who played a role in bringing these roughly 100 000 16mm films to classrooms across North America paying particular attention to auteur John Barnes and his largely neglected body of work Other topics include the production companies contributing to the growth and development of the academic film genre the complex history of post Sputnik federally funded educational initiatives which influenced the growth of the academic film genre and the denouement of the genre in classrooms and its resurgence on the Internet      That's the Way It Is Charles L. Ponce de Leon,2015-05-04 This engaging and important study examines the evolution of TV news and its long history of blending journalism and entertainment American Historical Review Today s media critics often decry the state of television news saying that it s too dumbed down becoming more entertainment than information But this familiar narrative fails to acknowledge real changes in media and Americans news consuming habits It also harkens back to a golden age that on closer examination is revealed to be not so golden As Charles L Ponce de Leon explains in That s the Way It Is TV news has always walked a fine line between hard news and fluff Ponce de Leon traces the entire history of televised news from the household names of the late 1940s and early 50s like Eric Sevareid Edward R Murrow and Walter Cronkite through the rise of cable the political power of Fox News and the satirical punch of Colbert and Stewart He describes an industry forever in transition where newsmagazines and celebrity profiles vie with political news and serious investigations The need for ratings success and the lighter human interest stories that can help bring it Ponce de Leon makes clear has always sat uneasily alongside a real desire to report hard news Highlighting the paradoxes at the heart of TV news and telling a story rich in familiar figures and fascinating anecdotes That s the Way It Is offers an insightful and engaging account of how television has presented our history as it happens      Private Screenings Lynn Spigel,Denise Mann,1992 While much research into television has been historical textual or empirical this volume approaches the topic from a sociocultural and feminist perspective to address important questions from the viewpoint of the audience as well as from that of the industry The contributors examine the ways in which the television industry seeks to deliver a female audience to its advertisers while inserting itself into women s lives both at home and in the marketplace hence the concept of a private screening in which the outside media world is brought into the personal space The volume analyzes how television delivers consumption to its female audience by displaying commodities and lifestyles that attempt to engender an idealized sense of community and how audiences understand television programming and how these programs construct definitions of femininity Los Angeles Documentary and the Production of Public History, 1958-1977 Joshua Glick, 2018-01-23 Los Angeles Documentary and the Production of Public History 1958 1977 explores how documentarians working between the election of John F Kennedy and the Bicentennial created conflicting visions of the recent and more distant American past Drawing on a wide range of primary documents Joshua Glick analyzes the films of Hollywood documentarians such as David Wolper and Mel Stuart along with lesser known independents and activists such as Kent Mackenzie Lynne Littman and Jess Salvador Trevi o While the former group reinvigorated a Cold War cultural liberalism the latter group advocated for social justice in a city plagued by severe class stratification and racial segregation Glick examines how mainstream and alternative filmmakers turned to the archives civic institutions and production facilities of Los Angeles in order to both change popular understandings of the city and shape the social consciousness of the nation Special Edition Daniel Einstein, 1997 The second of two volumes which when taken together provide a comprehensive overview of network television news documentary news magazine and special news programming broadcast over ABC CBS and NBC from the 1950s through the 1980s Into the Fray Tom Mascaro, 2012-09-30 From 1961 to 1989 a committed group of documentary journalists from the National Broadcasting Company NBC reported the stories of America s overseas conflicts Stuart Schulberg supplied film evidence to prosecute Nazi war criminals and established documentary units in postwar Berlin and Paris NBC newsman David Brinkley created the template for prime time news in 1961 and bore the scars to prove it In 1964 Ted Yates and Bob Rogers produced a documentary warning of the pitfalls in Vietnam Yates was later shot and killed in Jerusalem on the first day of the Six Day War while producing a documentary for NBC News In Into the Fray Tom Mascaro vividly recounts the characters and experiences that helped create a unique colorful documentary film crew based at the Washington bureau of NBC News From the Kennedy era through the Reagan years the journalists covered wars rebellions the Central Intelligence Agency covert actions the Pentagon military preparedness and world and American cultures They braved conflicts and crises to tell the stories that Americans needed to see and hear and in the process they changed the face of journalism Mascaro also looks at the social changes in and around the unit itself including the struggles and triumphs of women and African Americans in the field of television documentary Into the Fray is the story of adventure loyalty to reason and life and death in the service of broadcast journalism The Archivability of Television Lauren Bratslavsky, Elizabeth Peterson, 2025-06 This anthology critically evaluates archives and archival processes that collect order and preserve elements of television as historically culturally socially politically and economically significant material What do we know about how television moved from ephemeral broadcasts and mounds of paperwork documenting bureaucratic and creative processes to become historical material housed in archives This book's guiding principles are to interrogate where television as historical material lives and to collect the stories of some ways television preservation has been and continues to be deeply circumstantial and idiosyncratic Bringing together work by academics archivists and practitioners the book offers insights into the archival processes that confer television programs with historical value With a focus on television's archival spaces the book contributes more broadly to theories histories and practices of archiving Likewise the theories and questions about archives provide insights into the specificities of the medium the relations between technologies and culture the political economy of the culture industries and the minutiae of television's place in American society
