

A SPECIAL KIND OF COURAGE

C*APTAIN Ron Bryant had a reputation that went ahead of him. Decorated in Malaya, a stiff upper lip and a stickler for the rules, he was a real regimental soldier.*

Yet at the first sign of the enemy he ran away like a frightened rabbit.

Obviously reputations can be wrong — or can they?

Prophetic Women of Bold Love Shawn Madigan, 2010-06-18 This book introduces women from various parts of the world who have experienced violence in some form and used that experience to actively foster peace Some of the women may be better known than others for they are Nobel Peace Laureates Yet each woman is equally prophetic in the bold love that creates a better world The women represent a variety of countries and religious traditions Yet there is a unity in the underlying spirituality of non violence that grounds each prophetic life and the loving work for human dignity reconciliation and peace The women are models for living in ways that transform the world

Michael Gelven, 2005-07-26 War is a multifaceted and complex phenomenon that cannot be understood merely by isolating its underlying principles The elements that compose the vast mosaic of our conceptions of war must be identified and examined in light of their philosophical origins Michael Gelven not only identifies what the fundamental principles are but he also extracts from the history of philosophy the arguments and analyses of the concepts that explain how we think about it War and Existence is primarily concerned with what war is or what the truth about war is rather than the moral question of whether war ever ought to be waged it only indirectly considers the military concerns of how war out to be carried out The elements or marks of war such as courage horror heroism sacrifice command and vastness are each examined by reference to a great philosophical figure whose critical analyses of these elements provide us with a deep understanding of them Gelven does not restrict his inquiry to mere formal concerns since the philosophical marks of war are concretized in judgments about actual wars His holistic approach includes not only actual historical events that surround our greatest military conflicts but also literary figures poets and composers whose works wrestle with the enormity of this splendid yet troubling phenomenon The two phenomena war and peace are viewed against the entire background of humanity with all its folly and sublimity War and Existence thus offers a thoughtful coherent response to one of the most problematic issues of humanity Meditation on the Trinity Anthony J. Kelly, 2024-12-31 One of the areas of sustained interest for Reverend

Professor Anthony Kelly CSsR has been the mystery of the Trinity the divine mystery constituted as Father Son and Spirit Indeed his whole life as theologian teacher priest and preacher and even as poet has been spent in the quest firstly to know the mystery in which we live and move and have our being and to penetrate it ever more deeply and secondly to communicate it ever The essays in this collection demonstrate the wide range of genre in which Kelly writes from the highly academic and scholarly addressing the subtle refinements and sophisticated argumentation of theological scholarship such as the essay on Trinitarian Connections in this collection through more contemplative and meditative reflections to the very practical as in the challenges of preaching on Trinity Sunday As is very evident in these essays Kelly systematically but gently expatiates on the meaning of the mysteries of faith skilfully interweaving references from the biblical witness classic creedal statements of faith doctrinal statements and insights from the tradition including the mystics They show him to be a consummate systematician robustly orthodox but restlessly imaginative ever bent on expressing the mysteries of Christian faith evocatively meaningfully and persuasively In a telling comment Kelly writes If faith is to remain alive to the living God if it is to serve the Word and communicate in the Spirit our language needs to be restlessly imaginative Digest , 1895
