Meyers, 1996-06-01 Despite widespread agreement that the District of Columbia's political system has collapsed there is a serious lack of thoughtful proposals addressing the political future of the nation's capital In this book Edward M Meyers examines the opinions of average Americans about Washington D C in order to understand how many Americans are likely to approach the question of what reforms are needed Meyers first explores the political economic and social conditions of the District providing an informed context for understanding and evaluating its political options Presenting the results of in depth qualitative research with focus groups held across the country Meyers reveals that regardless of the participants knowledge about the District their beliefs in six basic concepts or schemata such as respect for democratic rights attitudes about race and aversion to an intrusive federal government molded their opinions about various options for District self governance The book concludes with insights into the District by local and national political leaders including OMB Director Alice Rivlin Jesse Jackson Representatives Eleanor Holmes Norton Thomas Davis and James Walsh and Marion Barry Religion in Liberal Political Philosophy Cécile Laborde,Aurélia Bardon,2017-05-19 Until now there has been no direct and extensive engagement with the category of religion from liberal political philosophy Over the last thirty years or so liberals have tended to analyze religion under proximate categories such as conceptions of the good in debates about neutrality or culture in debates about multiculturalism US constitutional lawyers and French political theorists both tackled the category of religion head on under First Amendment jurisprudence and the political tradition of la cit respectively but neither of these specialized national discourses found their way into mainstream liberal political philosophy This is somewhat paradoxical because key liberal notions state sovereignty toleration individual freedom the rights of conscience public reason were elaborated as a response to 17th Century European Wars of Religion and the fundamental structure of liberalism is rooted in the western experience of politico religious conflict So a reappraisal of this tradition and of its validity in the light of contemporary challenges is well overdue This book offers the first extensive engagement with religion from liberal political philosophers The volume analyzes from within the liberal philosophical tradition itself the key notions of conscience public reason non establishment and neutrality Insofar as the contemporary religious revival is seen as posing a challenge to liberalism it seems more crucial than ever to explore the specific resources that the liberal tradition has to answer it Classification Bulletin of the United States Patent Office from ... United States. Kuechler SS leaders such as Ohlendorf Pohl and Hildebrandt industrialists such as Flick Alfried Krupp and the directors of I G Farben and leading professional men such as the famous physician Gerhard Rose and the jurist and Acting Minister of Justice Schlegelberger In view of the weight of the accusations and the far flung activities of the defendants and the extraordinary amount of official contemporaneous German documents introduced in evidence the records of these trials constitute a major source of historical material covering many events of the fateful years 1933 and even earlier to 1945 in Germany and elsewhere in Europe The Nuernberg trials under Law No 10 were carried out under the direct authority of the Allied Control Council as manifested in that law which authorized the establishment of the Tribunals The judicial machinery for the trials including the Military Tribunals and the Office Chief of Counsel for War Crimes was prescribed by Military Government Ordinance No 7 and was part of the occupation administration for the American zone the Office of Military Government OMGUS Law No 10 Ordinance No 7 and other basic jurisdictional or administrative documents are printed in full hereinafter The proceedings in these trials were conducted throughout in the German and English languages and were recorded in full by stenographic notes and by electrical sound recording of all oral proceedings The 12 cases required over 1 200 days of court proceedings and the transcript of these proceedings exceeds 330 000 pages exclusive of hundreds of document books briefs etc Publication of all of this material accordingly was quite unfeasible This series however contains the indictments judgments and other important portions of the record of the 12 cases and it is believed that these materials give a fair picture of the trials and as full and illuminating a picture as is possible within the space available Copies of the entire record of the trials are available in the Library of Congress the National Archives and elsewhere In some cases due to time limitations errors of one sort or another have crept into the translations which were available to the Tribunal In other cases the same document appears in different trials or even at different parts of the same trial with variations in translation For the most part these inconsistencies have been allowed to remain and only such errors as might cause misunderstanding have been corrected
