African Traditions Meeting Islam Lawrence Odhiambo Oseje, 2018-12-31 In many communities across the world traditional beliefs and practices are passed down generations and are a feature of day to day life despite the influence of outside sources Focusing on Luo Muslims in Kenya Dr Lawrence Oseje looks at the interaction of Islam and traditional Luo practices especially those around death and burial Dr Oseje s research with Luo Muslims in Kendu Bay investigates the impact of the traditional Luo conceptualization of death with their current views and provides new understanding of fundamental issues that affect the lives of ordinary Muslims From his observation of this community Oseje encourages a celebration of traditions and customs showing that an appreciation of traditions and beliefs can help develop ministry to local communities Dr Oseje s findings result in a deepened understanding of cultures how they develop from a blend of influences and provides anthropological and missiological guidelines for cross cultural ministry particularly in times of bereavement

The Meanings of Death John Bowker, 1993-03-26 A major contribution to debates about the value of death and its place in Western and Eastern religions is presented by this work s belief that religious and secular attitudes can support and reinforce one another through their attitudes towards death      Speaking of Death Michael K. Bartalos, 2008-11-30 In the post 9 11 moments months and years America has come to develop a new mortality awareness Death and our understanding that it can be sudden and is certainly inevitable is being talked about more than ever before As the team in this volume shows through groundbreaking research surveys interviews and vignettes death awareness has grown strong and has changed the way we think and act not only in relation to ourselves and our loved ones but in relation to society overall Those changes include nuances from increases in the number and size of college courses focused on death rapid growth of death books death photography television shows dealing with death as well as the recording and dissemination of death videos from those that show family members dying peacefully to the execution of terrorists or their captives Impromptu street creations to memorialize common people who have died have emerged as have new ways to dispose of dead bodies including blasting ashes into space or placing them under the sea or giving them a green resting place in a natural forest Our means of grieving coping and beliefs about afterlife have been altered too This work also includes a look at cosmologists and physicists who have revised their theories on humanity s legacy when our world meets a fateful end who propose a means by which mankind s achievements might survive indefinitely transporting from one universe to another without violating the known laws of physics This book will intrigue all with an interest in considering not only death and how 9 11 changed America s views on and beliefs about it but also considering what could lie beyond that end for all of us      Extreme Islam Adam Parfrey, 2015-03-23 Documentation from the self proclaimed enemies of the West      Cities of Culture John R.

Gold,2016-12-05 City authorities in recent years have competed vigorously to gain the right to host international festivals In doing so they are heirs to a long tradition since cities have always served as a natural location for festivals and fairs providing settings on a scale impossible elsewhere Cities of Culture examines the role of the Western city as the scene of staged cultural events over the last 150 years Adopting a lively comparative perspective it highlights the development of international festivals since London s Great Exhibition of 1851 Making extensive use of case studies and illuminating examples it offers thought provoking insight into the material and symbolic significance of international festivals in urban affairs The book opens with an historical analysis of the role of the city as centre for celebrations rites and festivities from Antiquity to the French Revolution The next three sections of the book each focus on a different form of international festival The first deals with the history of staging the International Expositions with case studies of the Great Exhibition 1851 New York s World s Fair 1939 40 and Montreal s Expo 67 1967 The next part covers the Summer Olympic Games from their revival at Athens in 1896 to the Atlanta Games 1996 discussing the implications of their fluctuating fortunes for their host cities The third section discusses the history of a recently founded event that is assuming ever greater importance the European Cities of Culture programme The conclusion provides an overview of the events that celebrated the Millennium and examines the prospects for international festivals as part of the urban agenda of the twenty first century Cities of Culture will appeal to students of cultural history urban and cultural geography specialists in arts and heritage events management and anyone with an interest in the development of the contemporary Western city Index of Islamic Literature ,1989
