Stevenson, 2010-05-24 In Performance Cognitive Theory and Devotional Culture Jill Stevenson uses cognitive theory to explore the layperson s physical encounter with live religious performances and to argue that laypeople s interactions with other devotional media such as books and art objects may also have functioned like performance events By revealing the remarkable resonance between cognitive science and medieval visual theories Stevenson demonstrates how understanding medieval culture can enrich the study of performance generally She concludes by applying her theories of medieval performance culture to contemporary religious forms including creationist museums Hell Houses and megachurches Political Dramaturgies and Theatre Spectatorship Liz Tomlin, 2019-06-13 What do we mean when we describe theatre as political today How might theatre makers provocations for change need to be differently designed when addressing the precarious spectator subject of twenty first century neoliberalism In this important study Liz Tomlin interrogates the influential theories of Jacques Ranci re to propose a new framework of analysis through which contemporary political dramaturgies can be investigated Drawing in particular on Ernesto Laclau and Chantal Mouffe Lilie Chouliaraki and Judith Butler Tomlin argues that the capacities of the contemporary and future spectator to be effected or affected by politically engaged theatre need to be urgently re evaluated

Central to this study is Tomlin's theorized figuration of the neoliberal spectator subject as precarious individualized and ironic with a reduced capacity for empathy agency and the ability to imagine better futures This in turn leads to a predilection for a response to injustice that is driven by a concern for the feelings of the subject self rather than concern for the suffering other These characteristics are argued to shape even those spectator subjects towards the left of the political spectrum thus necessitating a careful reconsideration of new and long standing dramaturgies of political provocation Dramaturgies examined include the ironic invitations of Made in China and Martin Crimp the exploration of affect in Kieran Hurley's Heads Up the new sincerity that characterizes the work of Andy Smith the turn to the staging of the spectators other in Developing Artists Queens of Syria and Chris Thorpe and Rachel Chavkin's Confirmation and the community activism of Common Wealth s The Deal Versus the People The Spectator ,1900 Studies in the Spectator Role Michael Benton, 2017-09-25 Michael Benton's book develops the concept of spectatorship as an answer to these questions It explores the similarities and differences in our experiences of literature and the visual arts and discusses their implications for pedagogy and their applications in cross curricular work in the classroom Teachers will find that while many of the visual and verbal texts may be familiar the approaches to them offer fresh insights and a rich agenda for the classroom Shakespeare Fielding Hogarth Blake Wordsworth Constable Turner the Pre Raphaelites Wilfred Owen Paul Nash Stanley Spencer Ted Hughes and Seamus Heaney the range of authors and artists discussed is both extensive and relevant to the National Curriculum and to post 16 and undergraduate courses The Desert World Pierre Jean Jouve, 1996 Jouve's work has been compared to that of Gide Mauriac and Malraux and has been praised in the Chicago Tribune the Library Journal and the New York Times Book Review First published in 1927 the story focuses upon the troubled relationships uniting three characters Jacques de Todi the homosexual son of a pastor Luc Pascal a French poet and Baladine Nikolaievna a mysterious and fascinating Russian woman involved with them both Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Development of the Theatre Allardyce Nicoll, 1927 Anna Letitia Barbauld William McCarthy, Olivia Murphy, 2013-12-24 Anna Letitia Barbauld New Perspectives is the first collection of essays on poet and public intellectual Anna Letitia Barbauld 1743 1825 By international scholars of eighteenth century and Romantic British literature these new essays survey Barbauld s writing from early to late her versatility as a stylist her poetry her books for children her political writing her performance as editor and reviewer They explore themes of sociability materiality and affect in Barbauld's writing and trace her reception and influence Rooted in enlightenment philosophy and ethics and dissenting religion Barbauld's work exerted a huge impact on the generation of Wordsworth and Coleridge and on education and ideas about childhood far into the nineteenth century William McCarthy's introduction explores the importance of Barbauld's work today and co editor Olivia Murphy assesses the commentary on Barbauld that followed her rediscovery in the early 1990s Anna Letitia Barbauld New Perspectives is the indispensible introduction to Barbauld's work and current thinking about it Annual Volume of the Walpole Society

Walpole Society (Great Britain),1924 Bosch and Bruegel Joseph Leo Koerner, 2023-10-17 A bold new interpretation of two northern Renaissance masters In this visually stunning and much anticipated book acclaimed art historian Joseph Koerner casts the paintings of Hieronymus Bosch and Pieter Bruegel in a completely new light revealing how the painting of everyday life was born from what seems its polar opposite the depiction of an enemy hell bent on destroying us Supreme virtuoso of the bizarre diabolic and outlandish Bosch embodies the phantasmagorical force of painting while Bruegel through his true to life landscapes and frank depictions of peasants is the artistic avatar of the familiar and ordinary But despite their differences the works of these two artists are closely intertwined Bruegel began his career imitating Bosch's fantasies and it was Bosch who launched almost the whole repertoire of later genre painting But Bosch depicts everyday life in order to reveal it as an alluring trap set by a metaphysical enemy at war with God whereas Bruegel shows this enemy to be nothing but a humanly fabricated mask Attending closely to the visual cunning of these two towering masters Koerner uncovers art history s unexplored underside the image itself as an enemy An absorbing study of the dark paradoxes of human creativity Bosch and Bruegel is also a timely account of how hatred can be converted into tolerance through the agency of art It takes readers through all the major paintings drawings and prints of these two unforgettable artists including Bosch's notoriously elusive Garden of Earthly Delights which forms the core of this historical tour de force Elegantly written and abundantly illustrated the book is based on Koerner's AW Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts a series given annually at the National Gallery of Art Washington Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC Please note All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size
