Speech Communication A Comprehensive Approach:

Speech Communication Ernest G. Bormann, Nancy C. Bormann, 1977 Comprehensive Approach to Communication Bernard J. Brommel, 1976 Contemporary Speech, 1983-08 The comprehensive approach Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee, 2010-03-18 The Defence Committee report recommends that when troops are committed to operations in future there must be robust plans to coordinate military and reconstruction efforts from the earliest stages The next Government should lay out the requirements of the Comprehensive Approach the combination of civilian and military actors in a counter insurgency operation in order better to preserve all the lessons learned in the complex operations of Iraq and Afghanistan many of them having been painfully re learned from Bosnia Kosovo and even Malaya The Committee looks to the recently formed Stabilisation Unit owned by the Department for International Development the Foreign and Commonwealth Office and the Ministry of Defence to maintain a capacity to deploy significant numbers of personnel for post conflict reconstruction and to ensure that vital knowledge and skills gained during deployments in Iraq and Afghanistan are retained and built on The Comprehensive Approach requires close work with local nationals to build up their capability and confidence in all fields including security governance law and order and development This must include women at all levels The Government needs to find better ways to draw on the expertise of NGOs without compromising the effectiveness and safety of aid workers on the ground Twentieth-Century Roots of Rhetorical Studies Jim A. Kuypers, Andrew King, 2001-03-30 Kuypers King and their contributors explore the conception of rhetoric of eleven key American rhetoricians through analyses of their life s work Each chapter provides a sense of that scholar s conception of rhetoric be it through criticism theory or teaching The communication discipline often highlights the work of others outside the discipline however it rarely acclaims the work of its own critics teachers and theorists In this collection the essays explore the innate mode of perception that guided the rhetorical understanding of the early critics In so doing this work dispels the myth that the discipline of Speech Communication was spawned from a monolithic and rigid center that came to be called neo Aristotelianism Scholars and researchers involved with the history of rhetoric rhetorical criticism and theory and American public address uill find this title to be a necessary addition to their collection

The Oxford Handbook of Deaf Studies in Language Marc Marschark,Patricia Elizabeth Spencer,2016 Language development and the challenges it can present for individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing have long been a focus of research theory and practice in D deaf studies and deaf education Over the past 150 years but most especially near the end of the 20th and beginning of the 21st century advances in the acquisition and development of language competencies and skills have been increasing rapidly This volume addresses many of those accomplishments as well as remaining challenges and new questions that have arisen from multiple perspectives theoretical linguistic social emotional neuro biological and socio cultural Contributors comprise an international group of prominent scholars and practitioners from a variety of academic and clinical backgrounds The result is a volume that addresses in detail current knowledge emerging questions and innovative educational practice in a variety of contexts The volume takes on topics such as discussion of the transformation of efforts to identify a best language approach the sign versus speech debate to a stronger focus on individual strengths potentials and choices for selecting and even combining approaches the effects of language on other areas of development as well as effects from other domains on language itself and how neurological socio cognitive and linguistic bases of learning are leading to more specialized approaches to instruction that address the challenges that remain for deaf and hard of hearing individuals This volume both complements and extends The Oxford Handbook of Deaf Studies and Deaf Education Volumes 1 and 2 going further into the unique challenges and demands for deaf or hard of hearing individuals than any other text and providing not only compilations of what is known but setting the course for investigating what is still to be learned By All Means Communicate LeRoy L. Lane,2005-05-03 The perfect guide to more effective communication By All Means Communicate Second Edition presents communication concepts and skills that can be used in a variety of situations LeRoy L Lane Ph D University of Oregon brings years of teaching experience to this hybrid approach to communication covering fundamentals interpersonal small group and public contexts The new edition explores topics such as Taking notes on the speaker s message Chapter 2 Improving your perception Chapter 3 Touching in nonverbal communication Chapter 5 Characteristics of creativity Chapter 6 Management of interpersonal conflicts Chapter 8 , Persuasion and Influence in American Life Gary C. Woodward,Robert E. Denton, Jr.,2013-12-23 For more than twenty five years the authors have highlighted the complexities subtleties and pervasive influence of persuasive messages The seventh edition again blends historical rhetorical and social psychological approaches to persuasion theory The engaging discussions and multiple examples introduce the intricacies of social influence and highlight methods of presentation as well as evaluation The dynamic topic of persuasion presents a constantly changing palette for analysis The authors dissect theory and practice in multiple contexts from interpersonal interactions to public communication and persuasive campaigns to advertising to politics Twitter YouTube and social networking sites offer new media for persuasive appeals The means of persuading one another changes constantly yet much of what was written by Aristotle continues to be relevant The production of persuasive messages and the study of message effects have been and will continue to be fertile ground for exploration Persuasion is an interactive process requiring willing and attentive participants Becoming responsible ethical and credible persuaders involves systematic thinking and informed preparation The skills required for planning composing and delivering effective messages are equally useful for evaluating messages received The seventh edition provides a thorough up to date discussion of classic and contemporary theories of persuasion to aid readers in developing skills as effective persuaders and as critical consumers of persuasive messages Perspectives on the Classification of Specific Developmental Disorders J. Rispen,T.A. van Yperen,W. Yule,2013-11-11 Perspectives on the Classification of Specific Developmental Disorders is an up to date review of the controversy surrounding the classification of such disparate disorders as reading spelling writing and language disorders Severe and specific impairments in these functions do exist and appear to follow a developmental course How to identify children presenting with such problems and how to operationalize the disorders has long challenged professionals This text grew from an international symposium held in the Netherlands but all chapters have been specially prepared for the publication Described in the foreword by Sir Michael

Rutter FRS as thoughtful and well informed discussions that may serve as a basis for a problem solving set of both research strategies and practical steps that will ensure real resolutions of the dilemmas outlined here the text should serve as a stimulating source for debate of the many issues involved

Clinical Cases in Dysfluency Kurt Eggers, Margaret Leahy, 2022-09-09 Clinical Cases in Dysfluency is an imperative work that introduces dysfluency in clinical and cultural contexts while encouraging reflection on clinical decision making involving the assessment and management of clients With inputs from eminent clinical researchers across the world this text brings together diverse voices and expertise to provide readers with innovative ideas for their own practice The book assists in refining clinical problem solving and valuing exchanges between clients and clinicians Featuring real life case studies covering stuttering and cluttering in children and adults it showcases the importance of evidence based practice and practitioner reflection demonstrating a range of approaches to address problems experienced with dysfluency and their management. The authors go on to discuss issues of stereotyping resilience and therapeutic commonalities in general and in multicultural contexts whilst also introducing the discipline of Dysfluency Studies where stuttering is considered positively in its complexity and not as a disorder. These concepts are effectively further illustrated through accompanying online resources including videos and weblinks. This is an indispensable resource for students and clinicians in the domains of Fluency Speech and Language Pathology and Communication Disorders and will be valuable reading to anyone interested in communication disorders, dysfluencies and application of theory to practice in these disciplines.

Dialogue and Literature Michael Macovski, 1994-05-12. Extending and reframing the works of Bakhtin, Gadamer, Ong and Foucault with particular emphasis on Bakhtin's late essays, Macovski constructs a theoretical model of literary dialogue and applies it to a range of Romantic texts. In reconsidering specific works within the context of cultural heuristics, rhetorical theory and literary history, Macovski redefines Romantic discourse as both extratextual and agonistic. He thereby re-evaluates such Romantic topics as the history of the autotelic self, the proliferation of lyric orality and the nineteenth-century critique of rhetoric. He examines poetry by Wordsworth and Coleridge as well as such nineteenth-century prose works as Frankenstein, Wuthering Heights and Heart of Darkness.
