Publication Ober, 2002-11 Reference Books Bulletin 2002-03 Mary Ellen Quinn, 2004 Arranged by broad subject and indexed by narrow subject and title this popular annual publication offers nearly 500 reviews of print and electronic reference sources General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1969 Culture and Education Margaret Zoller Booth, 2004-03-05 Booth analyzes the results of a longitudinal study tracking the academic progress of 80 students in Swaziland who must daily cross boundaries between their traditional African families and a Westernized educational system Particular attention has been paid to the impact of the absence of the father due to migrant labor on children's scholastic achievement The connection between the educational level of mothers and the schooling of daughters is also discussed Booth teaches educational psychology at Bowling Green State University Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com The Culture of Islam Lawrence Rosen, 2004-04-01 Having worked for several decades in North Africa anthropologist Lawrence Rosen is uniquely placed to ask what factors contribute to the continuity and changes characterizing the present day Muslim world In The Culture of Islam he brings his erudition and his experiences to illuminating key aspects of Muslim life and how central tenets of that life are being challenged and culturally refashioned Through a series of poignant tales from the struggle by a group of friends against daily corruption to the contest over a saint's identity from nostalgia for the departed Jews to Salman Rushdie's vision of doubt in a world of religious certainty Rosen shows how a dazzling array of potential changes are occurring alongside deeply embedded continuity a process he compares to a game of chess in which infinite variations of moves can be achieved while fundamental aspects of the game have had a remarkably enduring quality Whether it is the potential fabrication of new forms of Islam by migrants to Europe creating a new Euro Islam as Rosen calls it the emphasis put on individuals rather than institutions or the heartrending problems Muslims may face when their marriages cross national boundaries each story and each interpretation offers a window into a world of contending concepts and challenged coherence The Culture of Islam is both an antidote to simplified versions of Islam circulating today and a consistent story of the continuities that account for much of ordinary Muslim life It offers in its human stories and its insights its own contribution as the author says to the mutual understanding and forgiveness that alone will make true peace possible

The Routledge Research Companion to Electronic Music: Reaching out with Technology Simon Emmerson, 2018-05-16 The theme of this Research Companion is connectivity and the global reach of electroacoustic music and sonic arts made with technology The possible scope of such a companion in the field of electronic music has changed radically over the last 30 years The definitions of the field itself are now broader there is no clear boundary between electronic music and sound art Also what was previously an apparently simple divide between art and popular practices is now not easy or helpful to make and there is a rich cluster of streams of practice with many histories including world music traditions This leads in turn to a steady undermining of a primarily Euro American enterprise in the second half of the twentieth century Telecommunications technology most importantly the development of the internet in the final years of the century has made materials practices and experiences ubiquitous and apparently universally available though some contributions to this volume reassert the influence and importance of local cultural practice Research in this field is now increasingly multi disciplinary Technological developments are embedded in practices which may be musical social individual and collective The contributors to this companion embrace technological scientific aesthetic historical and social approaches and a host of hybrids but most importantly they try to show how these join up Thus the intention has been to allow a wide variety of new practices to have voice unified through ideas of reaching out and connecting together and in effect showing that there is emerging a different kind of global music

Banning Islamic Books in Australia Richard Pennell,Pam Pryde,Emmett Stinson,2011-06-15 In 2005 the Australian Federal Police referred eight Islamic books to the Australian Classification Board The goal was to secure a ban of the books all of which were alleged to advocate terrorist acts After nearly a year of review and intense public debate two of the books were refused classification and effectively banned in a move that would have severe repercussions for librarians scholars authors and the state of free speech in Australia Banning Islamic Books in Australia examines the cultural and political contexts that led up to the ban and the content of the books themselves in an attempt to determine what it was that made them seem so dangerous It also documents the unintended consequences of the ban on library collections and academic freedom and how this in turn affects free speech in contemporary Australia Islamic Studies Series Volume 9

Economic Crisis in Africa Magnus Blomström,Mats Lundahl,2002-01-22 While the pitiful images of famine victims generally emanate from the very poorest countries in Sub Saharan Africa the entire region faces an intense economic crisis Why is this area in a state of near permanent crisis and perhaps more importantly what can be done about it In Economic Crisis in Africa the authors use country studies to examine how this situation has come about The book is divided into four parts Part I presents an overall perspective of the African Crisis and its management Part II addresses the problems of the external sector Part III discusses the crises and structural adjustment from a microperspective and finally Part IV examines changes in economic systems which took place during the 1980s At a time when famine again threatens the area this work offers a valuable insight into a highly complex and critical situation
