Telling Performances Essays On Gender Narrative And Performance:

Telling Performances Brian Nelson, Anne Freadman, Philip Anderson, 2001 These essays engage with narratives and narrative issues in particular on the issue of performance in and of narrative with the telling of performance and the performance of telling and the way stories perform gender and identity They focus on narrative as such on narrative genres and on particular narratives but they all seek to inform thinking on narrative

A Multimodal Perspective on Applied Storytelling Performances Soe Marlar Lwin, 2019-09-18 In this volume Soe Marlar Lwin proposes a contextualized multimodal framework that brings together storytelling practitioners and academic researchers conceptions of storytelling It aims to highlight the ways in which various institutions in contemporary society have been using live storytelling performances as an effective communicative educative and meaning making tool Drawing on theories of narrative from narratology as well as from related fields such as discourse analysis multimodal analysis communication and performance studies the author proposes a contextualized multimodal framework to a uncover the potential narrativity of a live storytelling performance through an analysis of narrative elements constituting the story b capture the process of developing actual narrativity through a multimodal analysis of performance features in the storytelling discourse and c highlight the importance of context and dynamics between the storyteller and audience for an achievement of optimal narrativity in a particular storytelling event The sample analysis shows how the framework not only describes the system governing institutionalized storytelling performances in general but also serves as a useful model to examine individual performance as a unique realization of the general system The book also offers implications for possible applications of such contextualized multimodal frameworks more broadly across the disciplines

Theatre-Fiction in Britain from Henry James to Doris Lessing Graham Wolfe, 2019-06-10 This volume posits and explores an intermedial genre called theatre fiction understood in its broadest sense as referring to novels and stories that engage in concrete and sustained ways with theatre Though theatre has made star appearances in dozens of literary fictions including many by modern history s most influential authors no full length study has dedicated itself specifically to theatre fiction in fact there has not even been a recognized name for the phenomenon Focusing on Britain where most of the world s theatre novels have been produced and commencing in the late nineteenth century when theatre increasingly took on major roles in novels Theatre Fiction in Britain argues for the benefits of considering these works in relation to each other to a history of development and to the theatre of their time New modes of intermedial analysis are modelled through close studies of Henry James Somerset Maugham Virginia Woolf J B Priestley Ngaio Marsh Angela Carter and Doris Lessing all of whom were deeply involved in the theatre world as playwrights directors reviewers and theorists Drawing as much on theatre scholarship as on literary theory Theatre Fiction in Britain presents theatre fiction as one of the past century s most vital means of exploring reconsidering and bringing forth theatre s potentials

Athenian Comedy in the Roman Empire C. W. Marshall, Tom Hawkins, 2015-11-19 Athenian comedy is firmly entrenched in the classical canon but imperial authors debated dissected and redirected comic texts plots and language of Aristophanes Menander and their rivals in ways that reflect the non Athenocentric pan Mediterranean performance culture of the imperial era Although the reception of tragedy beyond its own contemporary era has been studied the legacy of Athenian comedy in the Roman world is less well understood This volume offers the first expansive treatment of the reception of Athenian comedy in the Roman Empire These engaged and engaging studies examine the lasting impact of classical Athenian comic drama Demonstrating a variety of methodologies and scholarly perspectives sources discussed include papyri mosaics stage history epigraphy and a broad range of literature such as dramatic works in Latin and Greek including verse satire essays and epistolary fiction

Twins in Contemporary Literature and Culture Juliana De Nooy, 2005-06-21 Stories of twins are told with astonishing frequency in contemporary culture Films and novels from recent decades repeatedly tell of the stranglehold of brotherly love the evil twin who steals her sister's lover the homicidal mutant twin the reunion of twins separated at birth warring twins and confusion between look-alikes Twins in Contemporary Literature and Culture asks why we keep telling twin tales and how these have been transformed in recent retellings to reflect the preoccupations of the times

Recipes and Songs Razia Parveen, 2017-02-04 This book presents a systematic approach to the literary analysis of cultural practices Based on a postcolonial framework of diaspora the book utilizes literary theory to investigate cultural phenomena such as food preparation and song Razia Parveen explores various diverse themes including the female voice genealogy space time and diaspora and applies them to the analysis of community identity This volume also demonstrates how a literary analysis of oral texts helps to provide insight into women's lived narratives For example Parveen discusses how the notion of the third space creates a distinctly feminine spatiality

Australian Journal of French Studies, 2002 Violent Depictions Sarah McDonald, Susanna Scarparo, 2009-03-26 Anything and everything may come under the rubric of violence in a society that is by and large addicted to the images of violence that are an inescapable part of contemporary reality In the wake of recent international events many have come to accept the perpetration of violence as morally acceptable and a just enterprise towards peace But what is violence How do we identify something or somebody as violent Is violence justifiable If so under what circumstances Violent Depictions addresses these and other questions on the role and nature of violence in a range of different national and historical contexts Violent Depictions is a reflection on the relationship between violence and representation and includes a number of thematic categories such as youth violence in films violence against women in literary and cinematic texts gendered representations of terrorism the violence of colonial encounters and of the remembering of institutionalised violence
