notoriously elusive themes of the avant garde with the use of existing research from the field of psychology There is a long standing history of reference to psychological concepts in relation to avant garde film such as its unique relationship to memory visual perception narrative comprehension and synesthesia Yet direct analysis of these topics in light of existing psychological research remains largely unexplored until now More broadly the aim of the book is to frame avant garde filmmaking practice as a form of practical psychology In doing so two principal arguments are proposed first that many avant garde filmmakers draw creative inspiration from their own cognitive and perceptual capacities and touch on topics explored by actual psychologists secondly that as practical psychologists avant garde filmmakers provide lessons in perception that offer psychological experiences that are largely unrehearsed in commercial cinema Stan Brakhage the realm buster Marco Lori, Esther Leslie, 2018-01-10 Stan Brakhage's body of work counts as one of the most important within post war avant garde cinema and yet it has rarely been given the attention it deserves Over the years though diverse and original reflections have developed distancing his figure little by little from critical categories. This collection of newly commissioned essays plus some important reprinted work queries some of the consensus on Brakhage's films In particular many of these essays revolve around the controversial issues of representation and perception This project sets out from the assumption that Brakhage's art is articulated primarily through opposing tensions which donate his figure and films an extraordinary depth even as they evince fleetingness elusivity and paradoxicality This collection aims not only to clarify aspects of Brakhage's art but also to show how his work is involved in a constant mediation between antinomies and opposites At the same time his art presents a multifaceted object endlessly posing new questions to the viewer for which no point of entry or perspective is preferred in respect to the others Acknowledging this this volume hopes that the experience of his films will be revitalised Featuring topics as diverse as the technical and semantic ambiguity of blacks the fissures in mimetic representation of the it within the itself of an image the film maker as practical psychologist through cognitive theories the critique of ocularcentrism by mingling sight with other senses such as touch films that can actually philosophise in a Wittgensteinian way political guilt and collusion in aesthetic forms a disjunctive reflexive and phenomenological temporality realising Deleuze's image time and the echoes of Ezra Pound and pneumophantasmology in the quest of art as spiritual revelation this book addresses not only scholars but also is a thorough and thought provoking introduction for the uninitiated Contributors include Nicky Hamlyn Peter Mudie Paul Taberham Gareth Evans Rebecca A Sheehan Christina Chalmers Stephen Mooney and Marco Lori The Cinema of Poetry P. Su Friedrich Barbara Mennel, 2023-09-05 Auteurism expanded With Canadian Journal of Film Studies ,2005 acclaimed films like Sink or Swim and The Odds of Recovery Su Friedrich's body of work stands at the forefront of avant garde and Queer cinema Barbara Mennel examines the career of an experimental auteur whose merger of technical innovation and political critique connects with both cinephiles and activists Friedrich's integration of cinematic experimentation with lesbian advocacy serves as a beginning rather than an end point of analysis With that in mind Mennel provides an essential overview of the filmmaker's oeuvre while highlighting the defining characteristics of her artistic and political signature She also situates Friedrich within the cultural political and historical contexts that both shape the films and are shaped by them Finally Mennel expands our notion of auteurism to include directors who engage in collaborative and Gus Van Sant Vincent LoBrutto, 2010-06-16 This incisive book provides an in creative processes rooted in communities depth critical and biographical study of the artistic range of film director Gus Van Sant Arranged chronologically Gus Van Sant His Own Private Cinema provides a comprehensive overview of the life and art of this talented director covering his mainstream commercial and avant garde projects More than a biography the book examines Van Sant s incredibly diverse body of work exploring the influence of his open homosexuality of fine art literature and music and of the range of cinema styles to which he has been exposed Stressing Van Sant s wide ranging content genre style and cinematic presentation author Vincent LoBrutto details the filmmaker's autobiographical tendencies and how he uses the film craft literature popular music and fine arts to create his movies The book dissects ways in which each of his films reflects Van Sant s sexual orientation whether the individual film has a gay theme or not Because of its importance to Van Sant's films the book also offers a history of gay culture past and present covering its influence on art music theater and dance as well as community activism and prejudice Framing Faust Inez Hedges, 2009-03-10 In this interdisciplinary cultural history that encompasses film literature music and drama Inez Hedges follows the thread of the Faustian rebel in the major intellectual currents of the last hundred years She presents Faust and his counterpart Mephistopheles as antagonistic yet complementary figures whose productive conflict was integral to such phenomena as the birth of narrative cinema the rise of modernist avant gardes before World War II and feminist critiques of Western cultural traditions Framing Faust Twentieth Century Cultural Struggles pursues a dialectical approach to cultural history Using the probing lens of cultural studies Hedges shows how claims to the Faustian legacy permeated the struggle against Nazism in the 1930s while infusing not only the search for socialist utopias in Russia France and Germany but also the quest for legitimacy on both sides of the Cold War divide after 1945 Hedges balances new perspectives on such well known works as Thomas Mann's Dr Faustus and Jack Kerouac s Dr Sax with discussions of previously overlooked twentieth century expressions of the Faust myth including American film noir and the Faust films of Stan Brakhage She evaluates musical compositions Hanns Eisler's Faust libretto the opera Votre Faust by Henri Pousseur and Michel Butor and Alfred Schnittke's Faust Cantata as well as works of fiction and drama in French and German many of which have heretofore never been discussed outside narrow disciplinary confines Enhanced by twenty four illustrations Framing Faust provides a fascinating and focused narrative of some of the major cultural struggles of the past century as seen through the Faustian prism and establishes Faust as an important present day frame of reference Classical Reception Anastasia Bakogianni, Luis Unceta Gómez, 2024-07-22 In a time of acute crisis when our societies face a complex series of challenges race gender inclusivity changing pedagogical needs and a global pandemic we urgently need to re access the nature of our engagement with the Classical World This edited collection argues that we need to discover new ways to draw on our discipline and the material it studies to engage in meaningful ways with these new academic and societal challenges The chapters included in the collection interrogate the very processes of reception and continue the work of destabilising the concept of a pure source text or point of origin Our aim is to break through the boundaries that still divide our ancient texts and material culture from their reception and interpretive communities Our contributors engage with these questions theoretically and or through the close examination of cultural artefacts They problematise the concept of a Western elitist canon and actively push the geographical boundaries of reception as both a local and a global phenomenon Individually and cumulatively they actively engage with the question of how to marshal the classical past in our efforts to respond to the challenges of our mutable contemporary world Eves

Adams Sitney, 2008-04-18 Sitney analyzes in detail the work of eleven American avant garde filmmakers as heirs to the aesthetics of exhilaration and innovative vision articulated by Ralph Waldo Emerson and explored by John Cage Charles Olson and Gertrude Stein The films discussed span the sixty years since the Second World War With three chapters each devoted to Stan Brakhage and Robert Beavers two each to Hollis Frampton and Jonas Mekas and single chapters on Marie Menken Ian Hugo Andrew Noren Warren Sonbert Su Friedrich Ernie Gehr and Abigail Child Eyes Upside Down is the fruit of Sitney's lifelong study of visionary aspirations in the American avant garde cinema Avant-Garde Film ,2015-07-14 This volume on avant garde film has emerged as part of a wider reassessment of 20th century avant garde art literature and film carried out in the framework of a research project at the University of Edinburgh It paves the way for a fresh assessment of avant garde film and develops its theory as an integral part of a newly defined conception of the avant garde as a whole by closing the gap between theoretical approaches towards the avant garde as defined on the basis of art and literature on the one hand and avant garde cinema on the other It gathers contributions by the most esteemed scholars in the field of avant garde studies relating to the classical avant garde cinema of the 1920s to new trends emerging in the 1950s and 1960s and to the impact that innovative technologies have recently had on the further development of avant garde and experimental film The contributions reflect the broad range of different moving image media that make up what we refer to today simply as film at the same time as reconsidering the applicability of the label avant garde to offer a comprehensive and updated framework that will prove invaluable to scholars of both Moving Image Studies and Art History disciplines latest wave of contemporary eco horror Canadian horror cinema has rarely received much critical attention Gina Freitag and Andr Loiselle rectify that situation in The Canadian Horror Film with a series of thought provoking reflections on Canada s terror of the soul a wasteland of docile damnation and prosaic pestilence where savage beasts and mad scientists rub elbows with pasty suburbanites grumpy seamen and baby faced porn stars Featuring chapters on Pontypool Ginger Snaps 1970s slasher films Quebec horror and the work of David Cronenberg among many others The Canadian Horror Film unearths the terrors hidden in the recesses of the Canadian psyche It examines the highlights of more than a century of Canadian horror filmmaking and includes an extensive filmography to guide both scholars and enthusiasts alike through this treacherous Avant Garde Film Alexander Graf, Dietrich Scheunemann, 2007 This volume on avant garde film has emerged as part of a wider reassessment of 20th century avant garde art literature and film carried out in the framework of a research project at the University of Edinburgh It paves the way for a fresh assessment of avant garde film and develops its theory as an integral part of a newly defined conception of the avant garde as a whole by closing the gap between theoretical approaches towards the avant garde as defined on the basis of art and literature on the one hand and avant garde cinema on the other It gathers contributions by the most esteemed scholars in the field of avant garde studies relating to the classical avant garde cinema of the 1920s to new trends emerging in the 1950s and 1960s and to the impact that innovative technologies have recently had on the further development of avant garde and experimental film The contributions reflect the broad range of different moving image media that make up what we refer to today simply as film at the same time as reconsidering the applicability of the label avant garde to offer a comprehensive and updated framework that will prove invaluable to scholars of both Moving Image Studies and Art History disciplines
