Creating a Life Together Diana Leafe Christian, 2003-06-01 Everything you need to know to create an intentional community from scratch An intentional community is a group of people who have chosen to live or work together in pursuit of a common ideal or vision An ecovillage is a village scale intentional community that intends to create ecological social economic and spiritual sustainability over several generations The 90s saw a revitalized surge of interest in intentional communities and ecovillages in North America the number of intentional communities listed in the Communities Directory increased 60 percent between 1990 and 1995 But only 10 percent of the actual number of forming community groups actually succeeded Ninety percent failed often in conflict and heartbreak After visiting and interviewing founders of dozens of successful and failed communities along with her own forming community experiences the author concluded that the successful 10 percent had all done the same five or six things right and the unsuccessful 90 percent had made the same handful of mistakes Recognizing that a wealth of wisdom were contained in these experiences she set out to distill and capture them in one place Creating a Life Together is the only resource available that provides step by step practical how to information on how to launch and sustain a successful ecovillage or intentional community Through anecdotes stories and cautionary tales about real communities and by profiling seven successful communities in depth the book examines the successful 10 percent and why 90 percent fail the role of community founders getting a group off to a good start vision and vision documents decision making and governance agreements legal options finding financing and developing land structuring a community economy selecting new members and communication process and dealing well with conflict Sample vision documents community agreements and visioning exercises are included along with abundant resources for learning more West Virginia Wild Life, 1929 Reevaluation of the Stress-life Relation in Rolling-element Bearings

Richard Jay Parker, Erwin V. Zaretsky, 1972 Four groups of 12 7 millimeter diameter vacuum degassed AISI 52100 balls were tested each at a maximum Hertz stress in the range of 4 5 times 10 to 9th power to 6 0 times 10 to 9th power N m² Tests were run in the five ball fatigue tester at a contact angle of 30 deg and a shaft speed of 10 000 rpm The 10 percent fatigue lives at the four stress levels indicated that fatigue life is inversely proportional to maximum Hertz stress raised to the power of 12 This result agrees with a survey of the literature which suggests that a stress life exponent of approximately 12 is typical of vacuum processed bearing steels rather than the exponent of 9 which has been generally accepted by the bearing industry God in My Life Rita Kay Crowder Roberts, 2018-07-30 God is AWESOME and He does amazing things for each one of us even when we don't realize it Sometimes by sharing OUR experiences of God in our lives with others we encourage them to take a closer look and identify the hand of God in their own lives Our amazing God is the same yesterday today and tomorrow and He will never leave us nor forsake us In this book Rita Roberts shares her many encounters with a God who loves and protects her From an out of control dump truck to a train that miraculously did not cross her path or lost keys on a source of strength and light It is a place from which wonderful things happen People find healing find themselves They discover what they love to do And thus become a source of strength and light themselves Add such sources together And explosions occur like volcanic eruptions Imagine what can happen as a result people heal society restores Dream with me A part of the book Chapter 1 Memories Agents at the door a car accident Erik dead a dark hole into which she had fallen silently She had been dreaming it couldn't be true it shouldn't be true She woke up sweating sweating from the heat of this summer day at the end of August but even more from the dream itself And yet she was cold she felt the chill of death She realised that she had indeed been dreaming a dream that took her back to exactly one year ago the day those policemen had actually come to the door with their message of doom Erik was no more it was over her great love was gone never again together never never never again Never again that was the steep slide into darkness Silently she slipped out of bed took her clothes to the bathroom where she freshened up and got dressed She crept down the stairs to the kitchen made a mug of coffee and sat down in her rocking chair with it She stared outside where it was already starting to get a little light She had no idea what time it was but she didn't care In fact everything passed her by at the moment She looked but saw nothing in depth She thought only of Erik the great love of her youth In fact he had been that since her early childhood the boy with whom she had a click who understood her who felt her The boy who was there for her and for whom she would give her young life Other children had teased them bullied them but it had hardly touched her because Erik was there They were together and together they were fine She had lost track of him for a few years because he went to high school a few years earlier She felt alone during those years But he was also the young boy who showed her when she was fifteen who made her feel that she was good and especially that she was loved that she was loved by him that she was his everything He had never forgotten her Erik the man she had married because she knew that she loved him with her whole heart and wanted to share her life only with him The man who helped her through her traumas her sadness her pain her fears She had not realised before that there was so much in her that had been lost Erik knew from the depths of his soul what she needed to heal emotionally His inner voice gave him directions that sometimes seemed so contrary but of which she could say afterwards that it was precisely those contrary things that had pulled a lot of shit loose from her wounds so that those wounds could heal It took months for her to finally feel like she was discovering herself for the first time in her life Through Erik and her process she finally came to realise that she was an amazing woman a woman of potential with an enormous love and power within her with a desire to help others in their process of inner healing And she rediscovered what she loved so much cooking and baking and being with people being there for them That was when Erik got plans to start a guesthouse He had previously had all kinds of jobs jobs that he did because he needed to earn a living but in which he could hardly put his heart into He loved working with his hands building things preferably with wood And he especially loved people dealing with people He had a
