Reprint) Amy Lowell, 2017-12-19 Excerpt from Tendencies in Modern American Poetry I wish I had space to consider all the men and women whose work has aided to make this movement vigorous and important But that must be left to future literary historians Still it is with regret that I pass by the work of Mr Louis Untermeyer and Mr James Oppenheim of Mr Ezra Pound and Mr Vachel Lindsay of Mr William Rose Benet and Mrs Eunice Tietjens and others as well but the main tendencies of which they are a part have been considered under other names It is true that at a first glance Mr Lindsay does not seem to fall very readily into any of these groups but I think a closer attention will find him to be rather popularizing the second stage of the movement than heading a completely new tendency of his own As to those poets who still cling to an older order of course in such a volume as this their work can find no place however excellent it may be in itself About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
