Trakakis, 2011-10-20 The End of Philosophy of Religion explores the hitherto uncharted waters of the meta philosophy of religion that is the methods and assumptions underlying the divergent ways of writing and studying the philosophy of religion that have emerged over the last century. It is also a first class study of the weaknesses of the analytic approach in philosophy particularly when it is applied to religious and aesthetic experience. Nick Trakakis main line of argument is twofold. Firstly the Anglo American analytic tradition of philosophy by virtue of its attachment to scientific norms of rationality and truth inevitably struggles to come to terms with the mysterious and transcendent reality that is disclosed in religious practice. Secondly and more positively alternatives to analytic philosophy of religion are available not only within the various schools of so called Continental philosophy but also in explicitly narrative and literary approaches.

Concepts of Creativity in Seventeenth-century England Rebecca Herissone, Alan Howard, 2013 The first genuinely interdisciplinary study of creativity in early modern England. In the seventeenth century the concept of creativity was far removed from most of the fundamental ideas about the creative act: notions of human imagination, inspiration, originality and genius that developed in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. Instead in this period students learned their crafts by copying and imitating past masters and did not consciously seek to break away from tradition. Most new material was made on the instructions of a patron and had to conform to external expectations and basic tenets that we tend to take for granted such as the primacy and individuality of the author were apparently considered irrelevant in some contexts. The aim of this interdisciplinary collection of essays is to explore what it meant to create buildings and works of art, music and literature in seventeenth century England and to investigate the processes by which such creations came into existence. Through a series of specific case studies the book highlights a wide range of ideas, beliefs and approaches to creativity that existed in seventeenth century England and places them in the context of the prevailing intellectual, social and cultural trends of the period. In so doing it draws into focus the profound changes that were emerging in the understanding of human creativity in early modern society, transformations that would eventually lead to the development of a more recognisably modern conception of the notion of creativity. The contributors work in and across the fields of literary studies, history, musicology, history of art and history of architecture and their work

collectively explores many of the most fundamental questions about creativity posed by the early modern English creative arts REBECCA HERISSONE is Head of Music and Senior Lecturer in Musicology at the University of Manchester ALAN HOWARD is Lecturer in Music at the University of East Anglia and Reviews Editor for Eighteenth Century Music Contributors Linda Phyllis Austern Stephanie Carter John Cunningham Marina Daiman Kirsten Gibson Raphael Hallett Rebecca Herissone Anne Hultzsch Freyja Cox Jensen Stephen Rose Andrew R Walkling Amanda Eubanks Winkler James A Winn De oratore libri tres Augustus Samuel Wilkins, Marcus Tullius Cicero, Cicéron, The Catholic Directory, Ecclesiastical Register, and Almanac, 1861 Australian National Bibliography, 1978 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1915 Potter's American Monthly, 1878 Solo Vocal Works on Jewish Themes Kenneth Jaffe, 2011 Solo Vocal Works on Jewish Themes A Bibliography of Jewish Composers is a comprehensive and annotated compendium of stage concert and liturgical compositions written by Jewish composers from every known time period and country Kenneth Jaffe has amassed nearly 3 000 large scale musical works for solo voice s on Jewish themes written by Jewish composers The works include over 400 cantatas 150 oratorios almost 300 operas more than 100 sacred services 20 symphonies and more than 350 stage works including Yiddish theatre Purim and sacred plays multi media pieces and musical theatre In addition original song cycles and liturgical services arranged for a modest to large complement of instruments are also included The works are organized by composer and subdivided by genre and each entry is fully annotated detailing the title opus voicing and instrumentation text source commission year completed year and location of the premiere the year of publication and the publisher if any the location of scores and the duration of the work The works are then broken down by theme such as Biblical themes works for children works of the Holocaust or Jewish suffering and persecution interfaith works and wedding music They are then cross referenced by voice type arrangement and by title A list of libraries and publishing houses of Jewish music rounds out this invaluable reference Catalog of Copyright Entries. Copyright Office, 1935 A Large Collection of Ancient Jewish and Heathen Testimonies to the Truth of the Christian Religion Nathaniel Lardner, 1764 Ecology, Liturgy, and the Sacraments Irwin, Kevin W., 2023 This book is based on the principle that the liturgy is the enactment of the work of our redemption through the raising up acknowledging and revering elements of the cosmos the earth and our fellow creatures in our common home It is inspired by Pope Francis s encyclical Laudato Si On Care for Our Common Home in its entirety not just the sections on the Eucharist and liturgy because it presents a world view and requires respecting and caring for all creatures who share this planet It is illuminated by research into the history of sacramental theologies and the contemporary context of concern for the environment In effect there is no such thing as one Roman Catholic theology of the sacraments and more often than not differing contexts in the life of the church and the world required differing contents for sacramental theology The author argues that concern for the environment is a traditional Catholic premise based on the goodness of creation and that God is creator of heaven and earth

He also argues that an ecological approach to sacramental theology can help to understand underlying factors and principles in the enactment of the liturgy of the sacraments about how and where God is discovered in the world in general and in the liturgy and sacraments in an intense and focused way through engagement with all who dwell in our common home
