Howe, 2016-04-08 East Asia is a region deeply affected by conflict Colonial ideological and national wars have left their scars and legacies on regional international and national governance Yet East Asian post conflict development experiences have been viewed as remarkably successful The three largest economies of East Asia Japan China and South Korea have all experienced dramatic growth but immediately prior to their periods of expansion all experienced the devastating impacts of international conflicts and or civil upheaval These post conflict development success stories do not however tell the whole tale Other states in East Asia and in particular certain regions within some of these states while apparently emerging from similar conflictual backgrounds have experienced far less positive transitions This volume critically assesses measurements of success in East Asian post conflict development from a human centered perspective This involves a major re evaluation of accepted accounts of domestic governance and international relations in East Asia from both a comparative and interdisciplinary viewpoint Case study rich this volume provides policy prescriptions for East Asian donors and actors in an effort to provide Asian solutions for Asian problems      Contemporary Conflicts in Southeast Asia Mikio Oishi, 2015-11-30 This book looks at major contemporary conflicts intra and interstate in Southeast Asia from a conflict management perspective Starting with the view that the conventional ASEAN conflict management methods have ceased to be effective it looks for new conflict management patterns and trends by investigating seven contemporary cases of conflict in the region Focusing on the incompatibilities involved in each case and examining how they have been managed whether by integration co existence elimination or maneuvering around the conflict the book sheds new light on the significance of managing conflict in achieving and maintaining the stability of the Southeast Asian region It makes a significant theoretical contribution to the field of peace and conflict studies by proposing the concept of mediation regime as the key to understanding current conflict management within ASEAN      Environmental Politics and Governance in Southeast Asia Syed Mohammed Ad'ha Aljunied, 2025-10-02 In this book Aljunied analyses how ASEAN and its key maritime member states of Singapore Malaysia and Indonesia govern environmental issues through strategic engagements with social forces In the new millennium ASEAN states power is enhanced and solidified through regulatory statehood strategic renewal and moral ideology in order to subdue civil resistance while managing non traditional security threats Through a comparative analysis of Southeast Asia this book highlights how state capitalist society relations are shaped by politics of scale and social conflict in order to reinforce authoritarianism and intensify capitalism development agendas at the expense of environmental preservation With this the book explores how civil society challenge and are suppressed by state power at national and regional platforms A pioneering scholarly work this book represents a major contribution to the intersection between political science environmental governance and Southeast Asian Studies by offering rich theoretical and empirical insights into the dynamics of state capitalist society relations in an era of global environmental crisis

Managing Conflicts in a Globalizing ASEAN Mikio Oishi, 2019-11-11 This book investigates the patterns of conflict management in contemporary Southeast Asia The region has long been characterized by the twin process of state formation and nation building which has been responsible for most of the region's intrastate and interstate conflicts While this process is still ongoing regional conflicts and their management are increasingly affected by globalisation which not only serves as a new source of or exacerbating factor to conflict but also makes new instruments available for conflict management Employing the concepts of incompatibility management and mediation regime the book analyses the management of seven conflicts in the region the Rohingya crisis and the Kachin conflict in Myanmar the Khmer Krom conflict in Vietnam the West Papua conflict in Indonesia the political conflict in Thailand the Mekong River conflicts involving five Southeast Asian countries and China and the transboundary haze problem emanating from Indonesia The efforts to manage each of them are imagined as constituting a mediation regime and its effectiveness is assessed in terms of good governance Among the findings of the book is that the measures of manoeuvring around incompatibilities are employed predominantly in managing regional conflicts In intrastate conflicts which mostly involve ethnic minorities the authorities first aim to eliminate or impose its own position on ethnic parties When this strategy proves unsuccessful they have no choice but manoeuvre around incompatibilities which may eventually open up a space for mutual learning In interstate conflicts the manoeuvring around strategy works in a more straightforward manner contributing to regional stability However the stability is achieved at the cost of local communities and the natural environment which absorb the incompatibilities in conflict
