UNESCO, Religious Cultural Heritage and Political Contestation Clizia Franceschini, 2024-12-07 This book offers an innovative study of UNESCO's religious heritage and nomination mechanisms In particular it shows how these processes can easily become instruments of power politics undermining the neutrality and impartiality of the nomination processes This is particularly true where political contestation for the exercise of sovereign authority over the site is politically contested and the competing claims are primarily based on shared cultural and religious narratives which both sides in the dispute use to assert their claims In this respect religious heritage both in its tangible and intangible dimensions is the subject of national and global decisions that have political cultural and religious implications Starting from this premise the book aims to show that the global regulatory framework and institutional decisions in the field of religious heritage are not neutral but are determined by political discourses and agendas of governments and UNESCO

Ojibway Tales Basil Johnston, 1993-01-01 The Ojibway Indians sense of humor sparkles through these stories set on the fictional Moose Meat Point Indian Reserve connected by a dirt road to the town of Blunder Bay If some of them seem farfetched and even implausible Basil L Johnston writes it is simply because human beings very often act and conduct their affairs and those of others in an absurd manner These twenty two stories were originally collected under the title Moose Meat and Wild Rice Among the most memorable of the stories is They Don't Want No Indians in which all attempts are made to circumvent bureaucratic red tape and transport a dead Indian to his home for burial One of the funniest is Indian Smart Moose Smart which pits a moose in a lake against six Moose Meaters in two canoes If You Want to Play and Secular Revenge are the result of misunderstanding or imperfect communication Still other stories like What Is Sin and The Kiss and the Moonshine reveal the clash of different cultural approaches All show the warm heartedness and good will of the Ojibway Indians If they are gently satirized so are the whites who would change them and with good reason Government ineptitude and rigid piety are foisted on the Moose Meaters who have only thirty thousand acres to move around in
