The Gifted Church W. Clay Jackson MD DipTh,2025-02-13 What if we re missing something The New Testament describes a vibrant church empowered by the Holy Spirit with supernatural gifts of manifestation service and leadership which turned the known world upside down within three generations But as the freedom of the operation of the Holy Spirit waned and post apostolic leaders consolidated power within hierarchical systems that missional momentum was truncated In this pivotal work Dr Jackson brings an Apostolic hermeneutic to the scriptures and mountain of classical and contemporary sources to demonstrate that this historical declension from scriptural truths began its long reversal with the Reformation culminating in the worldwide outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the early 20th century The restorationist impulse of the pioneers of modern Pentecostalism caused them to embrace previously neglected manifestation gifts charismata but did not substantially alter their ecclesiology as they failed to fully actualize the edification gifts domata Dr Jackson details the function and characteristics of each edification gift or speaking leadership role within a scriptural framework of an apostolic team He warns against excesses and abuses of power and reminds each disciple maker that the character of the Giver not the characteristics of the gift is the true determinant of our ability to serve faithfully This book will challenge the pastor theologian to rethink church leadership and to reengage the whole church in the kingdom expansion that characterized early Christianity It will provide enrichment and clarity regarding the roles of those who portray and embody various types of edification leadership gifts The result will be a church whose missional impulse is not outsourced to designees but internalized within each member of a Body that is equipped for service within local and global contexts

Pastoral Care and the Means of Grace Ralph L. Underwood, 1992-10-01 The emphasis on pastoral freedom is nearly spent and found wanting Many caregivers today are seeking to balance such freedom with a sense of God's transcendence and communal order which entail personal and ritual formation In Underwood's resulting spirituality the soul of pastoral care is prayer The substance is Scripture studied in both liturgical and personal settings The evangelical principle is reconciliation Baptism lays the foundation for pastoral care by providing the paradigm for all transformations Eucharist constitutes the eschatological horizon for pastoral care as ministry in the human encounter of God's presence This winsomely written book stands at the forefront of a broad movement among scholars and clergy in nonliturgical traditions that aims at retrieving explicitly religious resources the means of grace The result is a rare truly ecumenical contribution to pastoral care which deepens practice by providing a vision and a spirituality

Biblical Pastors Were Not and Are Not Ceos. James D. Martin,2020-06-02 The emergence of the pastor Chief Executive Officer CEO position in churches today has become widely acceptable in Mega and Meta churches Recent studies have not explored this issue David Fisher acknowledges that in the 21st century being a pastor presents major challenges because it leads to professional and personal identity crisis resulting from secular and ecclesial challenges Studies have supported the idea that there is the need for church leaders to adopt the secular models of leadership and several noted authors have shown that churches today have become like other organizations that have to market their products This is a problematic interpretation because leadership in modern churches has gone beyond the biblical and theological definitions of becoming shepherds of their flock and servants of God In the search for an effective pastoral leadership role this paper will explore the contemporary definition of pastoral leadership and compare it with what the scriptures say concerning the elders and servants of God assigned the duty of being shepherds of their flock

In His Image Michael J. Wilkins,2020-04-06 A Disciple will be like his teacher Luke 6 40 What does it mean to be a follower of Jesus The ultimate goal of discipleship is to be like the Teacher to be like Jesus Himself Every Christian wants to understand what that means But even if we understand it is it possible Michael Wilkins asserts that it s not only possible it s a life that all Christians are called to not just a select few So why do we so seldom experience it As Wilkins points out even the first followers of Jesus had a hard time grasping what it meant to be His disciples Like them our difficulty often lies in not clearly understanding who Jesus is not recognizing the resources available to us as God s children or not believing who we are to be as Christ s followers But like the early disciples our lives can radically change If we want to follow Jesus we can become like Him Jesus takes us exactly as He finds us writes Wilkins and transforms us into His likeness So come learn what it means to walk with Jesus and reflect His image to the real world

History of Pastoral Care G. R. Evans, 2000-05-01 A history of pastoral care is a history of the Christian church in action But if any sense is to be made of the centuries of Christian work and effort not only the practicalities of making the message of the Gospel a reality on earth but also the ideas which have shaped the attempt century by century must be examined This is the history of 2000 years of thought and practice in Christian pastoral ministry Until comparatively late in that story the bulk of the formative thinking took place in the Middle East and in Europe and this forms the background for recent developments in understanding human nature and the ways in which that understanding has influenced our thinking in pastoral care Subjects covered range from the Biblical foundations to the sects and new religious movements from the Fathers the monks the Friars the Templars to the changes at the end of the twentieth century
