Sabine von Löwis, Beate Eschment

Stamps In My Passport A Collection Of Travel Vignettes:

Post-Soviet Borders Sabine von Löwis, Beate Eschment, 2022-08-18 This book investigates how borders in former Soviet Union territories have evolved and shifted in the thirty years since the end of the Cold War The collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 led to fifteen independent states and numerous de facto states but this process of rebordering is not finished and social economic infrastructural cultural and political networks and spaces continue to develop This book explores the intersection between these geopolitical shifts and the individual lived experience drawing on cases from across border regions in the Caucasus Central Asia and Eastern Europe Throughout the book introduces and frames the case studies with well informed theoretical conceptual and methodological overviews that situate them within border studies in general and post Soviet border spaces in particular Overall the book demonstrates that like a kaleidoscope the dynamic elements in these newly evolved border regions are similar yet strikingly different in their juxtapositions with the appearance of new configurations often dependent on changing geopolitical constellations This timely guide to the post Soviet world thirty years after the Cold War will be of interest to researchers across border studies politics geography social anthropology history Eastern European Studies Central Asian Studies and Caucasian Studies
