LEXeter '83: proceedings Reinhard R. K. Hartmann,Exeter> LEXeter,2017-12-04 No detailed description available for LEXeter 83 proceedings Historical Dictionary of Daoism Ronnie L. Littlejohn,2019-11-29 Daoism is the oldest indigenous philosophic spiritual tradition of China and one of the most ancient of the world s spiritual structures The name Daoism comes from the term dao which means a way or a road through the field or woods to one s village It also means the way to do something such as how a master craftsman carves wood makes a bell or even butchers an ox But dao is also a nominative in the history of Daoism referring to the energizing process that permeates and animates all of reality and moves it along. However, both text and practice in this tradition insist that dao itself cannot be described in words; it is not God in the sense of Western philosophy or religion. Daoism has no supreme being even if there is an extensive grammar about nominally self-conscious entities and powers for which the Chinese use the word spirit shen. For example, the highest powers of Daoism are variously called Taishang Laojun, the deified Laozi, the Celestial Worthy of Primordial Beginning Yuanshi tianzun, the Jade Emperor Yuhuang Shangdi, or the Perfected Warrior Zhenwu. But these are expressions of dao in specific; shen they are not identical to Dao except in the most unique case when Laozi, the putative founder of Daoism and author of its major work Daodejing, is said to be one with the dao. Historical Dictionary of Daoism contains a chronology, an introduction, appendixes, an extensive bibliography, and more than 400 cross-referenced entries related to the Chinese belief and worldview known as Daoism, including dozens of Daoist terms, names, and practices. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Daoism. Research in Education, 1972-05 The Chinese Year Book Chungshu Kwei, 1935
