Standard Haematology Practice 3:

Postgraduate Haematology A. Victor Hoffbrand, Daniel Catovsky, Edward G. D. Tuddenham, 2008-04-15 Most hematologists need a revised and practical textbook in which they can rapidly search on the morning of a consultation. This book will be an important resource in such situations. New England Journal of Medicine A well established and respected review of hematology. Postgraduate Haematology is a practical readable text which will give trainees residents and practising hematologists up to date knowledge of the pathogenesis clinical and laboratory features and management of blood disorders. Postgraduate Haematology is ideal for Trainees and residents in hematology. Hematologists in practice Why Buy This Book A well established and respected review of hematology. Practical and readable text. Essential information for everyday use as well as the scientific background. Up to date knowledge of the pathogenesis clinical and laboratory features and management of blood disorders. Complete revision of all chapters and the addition of new chapters to reflect latest advances in the speciality. Standard Haematology Practice 3 J. K. Wood, 1999-12-23 Standard Haematology Practice 3 is a collection of guidelines developed by members of the British Committee for standards in Haematology and its component task forces. Their objective is to maintain standards of excellence in British Haematology. The book contains 21 guidelines that describe best practice on a number of clinical and laboratory aspects of haematology. The content is unique in that it has all been published in peer reviewed journals. Because the information is spread across six journals there is a need to condense the information into one volume that is sturdy enough to stand repeated use in the haematology department. Educational modules on clinical use of blood, 2021-12-10 The Educational modules on clinical use of blood is to provide accessible learning materials that will assist prescribers of blood and other staff involved in clinical transfusion to make appropriate clinical decisions on transfusion and contribute to wider efforts to optimize clinical practice of transfusion. The target audience for this material includes medical staff and students across a range of clinical areas nurses and midwives. It may also be useful for staff including laboratory scientists or technicians who work in blood transfusion laboratories preparing or testing blood for transfusion or managing inventories of blood products or other settings where information about how blood is used may be relevant. National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1992 Dacie and Lewis Practical Haematology E-Book Barbara J. Bain, Imelda Bates, Mike A. Laffan, 2016-08-11 For more than 65 years this best selling text by Drs Barbara J Bain Imelda Bates and Mike A Laffan has been the worldwide standard in laboratory haematology. The 12th Edition of Dacie and Lewis Practical Haematology continues the tradition of excellence with thorough coverage of all of the techniques used in the investigation of patients with blood disorders including the latest technologies as well as traditional manual methods of measurement. You will find expert discussions of the principles of each test possible causes of error and the interpretation and clinical significance of the findings.
