Testimonies of Exile Abena P. A. Busia,1990 Testimonies of Exile Abena P. A. Busia,1990 Testimonies of Exile Abena P. A. Busia,1990 FontFrom Kofi Anyidoho,James Gibbs,2000 Includes articles annotated filmography interviews creative writing and book reviews Testimony After Catastrophe Stevan Weine,2006-08-14 Survivors of political violence give testimonies in families and communities trials and truth commissions religious institutions psychotherapies newspapers documentaries artworks and even in solitude Through spoken written and visual images survivors testimonies tell stories that may change history politics and life itself In this book Stevan Weine a psychiatrist and scholar in the field of mental health and human rights focuses on the testimony of survivors for the hope it might hold hope expressed by survivors again and again that no matter what horrors or humiliations they have endured some good might come of their stories It is through the thinking of Mikhail Bakhtin and his approach to narrative that Weine seeks to read the testimony of survivors of political violence from four different twentieth century historical nightmares and to read them as the stories they are meant to be fully conveying their legitimacy resourcefulness power and finally hope A deeply involving compassionate occasionally confrontational blend of practical hands on experience and dialogic theory emerging from the author s decade long work in Europe and Chicago with survivors of the Balkan wars this book is committed to the proposition that efforts to use testimony to address the consequences of political violence can be strengthened though by no means guaranteed if they are based on a fuller acknowledgment of the personal and ethical elements embodied in the narrative essence of testimony These elements are what Testimony after Catastrophe seeks to reveal Displaced Memories M. Edurne Portela,2009 Displaced Memories analyzes the representation of traumatic memories political imprisonment torture survival and exile in the literary works of Alicia Kozameh Alicia Partnoy and Nora Strejilevich survivors of Argentina s Dirty War 1976 1983 Beginning with an examination of the history of Argentina s last dictatorship the conditions that led the authors to exile and the contexts in which the texts were published Portela provides the theoretical tools for the understanding of narratives of trauma and displacement caused by political violence The author proposes a theory that critiques post structuralist paradigms of trauma which present trauma as an unclaimed experience impossible to apprehend as she argues for an analysis of the symbolic uses of language presenting trauma as a claimed experience that can be brought into representation and therefore create the conditions of possibility for working through Technology Meets Testimony Anja Ballis,Florian Duda,Markus Gloe,2025-02-04 The Technology Meets Testimony network funded by the DFG merges history education computer science and media studies Running from June 2020 to August 2024 this international collaboration spans Germany the USA and the UK The project aims to preserve and present Holocaust survivor testimonies through interactive digital 3D formats Central to the project are testimonies from survivors like Pinchas Gutter whose testimony was captured with 32 cameras and processed with advanced speech recognition These testimonies allow meaningful engagement with the past The book is divided into four chapters Media Technology and Testimony Educational Use in Schools and Universities Museum and Archival Applications and Survivors Perspectives These sections examine the design implementation and impact of 3D testimonies evaluate their effectiveness in classrooms discuss the role of moderators and technological setups in archives and feature reflections on the creation process and significance of preserving survivors stories through technology This interdisciplinary approach addresses critical questions about preserving and presenting Holocaust testimonies best practices for creating engaging digital experiences and how different audiences learn from these resources Technology Meets Testimony bridges the gap between survivors and future generations setting a precedent for using technology to preserve historical narratives

American Indian Stories Zitkala-Sa, 2019-11-20 In American Indian Stories Zitkala Sa eloquently weaves together a series of poignant narratives that explore the complexities of Native American identity and the cultural dislocation experienced by Indigenous peoples in early 20th century America Written in a lyrical style infused with personal reflection and cultural critique the book offers a rich tapestry of stories that illuminate the struggles and resilience of Native Americans Its literary context is rooted in the broader movement of American realism while also drawing upon traditional storytelling methods thus bridging the gap between oral tradition and written word Zitkala Sa a prominent figure in the Native American rights movement and an accomplished writer and activist was born in 1876 on the Yankton Sioux Reservation Her own experiences with cultural displacement having attended a white boarding school and subsequently grappling with her dual identity deeply influenced her writing Through American Indian Stories she seeks to give voice to her people's struggles while challenging the dominant narratives imposed by colonial society ultimately advocating for understanding and respect for Indigenous cultures This compelling collection is recommended for readers interested in the intersections of identity culture and social justice Zitkala Sa's insights provide a vital commentary that resonates today making this work not only a historical document but also a call to action for empathy and recognition of Indigenous experiences

The Camp Colman Hogan, Marta Marin-Dòmine, 2021-02-03 The camp is nothing if not diverse in kind scope and particularity in sociological and juridical configuration in texture iconography and political import Adjectives of camp specificity embrace a spectrum from extermination and concentration to detention migration deportation and refugee camps And while the geographic range covered by contributors is hardly global it is broad Chile Rwanda Canada the US Central Europe Morocco Algeria South Africa France and Spain And yet is to so characterize the camp to run the risk of diffusing what in origin is a concentration into a paratactical series of identity particularisms While The Camp does not seek to antithetically promulgate a universalist vision it does aim to explore the imbrication of the particular and the universal to analyze the structure of a camp or camps and to call attention the role of the listener in the construction of the testimony For by naming what cannot be said is not every narrative of internment and exclusion a potential site of agency articulating the inner splitting of language that Giorgio Agamben defines as the locus of testimony to bear witness is to place oneself in one's own language in the position of those who have lost it to establish oneself in a living language as if it were dead or in a dead language as if it were living

Stories of the Stranger Martin Palmer, Gordon Brown, 2014-10-01 Encompassing scriptural historical folk and newly commissioned tales a collection exploring the centrality of the stranger in every major faith tradition a commonality that could create a more compassionate world Every faith has as a fundamental moment of its formation the experience of exile the experience of losing everything or being thrown out of being dispossessed and of relying on the generosity or not of strangers Furthermore every major faith tradition has popular stories showing how you are more likely to meet the divine in the outcast the reject the beggar than you are in the king the prince or indeed minister priest or nun Faiths are therefore often the first to welcome and help refugees Classic tales on this theme have been retold here from a contemporary perspective with humor and wit Sitting alongside powerful illustrations the tales serve to remind readers of the centrality of the stranger in all traditions thereby creating the potential for a more compassionate world This collection is a resource for reflection ideal for storytelling groups for drama art and poetry and a unique educational tool as well
