The Internationalization of US Writing Programs Shirley K Rose, Irwin Weiser, 2018-04-02 The Internationalization of US Writing Programs illuminates the role writing programs and WPAs play in defining goals curriculum placement assessment faculty development and instruction for international student populations The volume offers multiple theoretical approaches to the work of writing programs and illustrates a wide range of well planned writing program based empirical research projects As of 2016 over 425 000 international students were enrolled as undergraduates in US colleges and universities part of a decade long trend of increasing numbers of international students coming to the United States for both undergraduate and graduate degrees Writing program administrators and writing teachers across the country are beginning to recognize this changing demographic as a useful catalyst for change in writing programs which are tasked with preparing all students regardless of initial level of English proficiency for academic and professional writing The Internationalization of US Writing Programs is the first collection to focus specifically on this crucial aspect of the roles and responsibilities of WPAs who are leading efforts to provide all students on their campuses regardless of nationality or first language with competencies in writing that will serve them in the academy and beyond Contributors Jonathan Benda Michael Dedek Christiane Donahue Chris W Gallagher Kristi Girdhar Tarez Samra Graban Jennifer E Haan Paula Harrington Yu Kyung Kang Neal Lerner David S Martins Paul Kei Matsuda Heidi A McKee Libby Miles Susan Miller Cochran Matt Noonan Katherine Daily O Meara Carolina Pelaez Morales Stacey Sheriff Gail Shuck Christine M Tardy Stanley Van Horn Daniel Wilber Margaret Willard Traub English Teaching Forum, 2006 Research Anthology on Inclusivity and Equity for the LGBTQ+ Community Management Association, Information Resources, 2021-09-24 For many decades the LGBTQ community has been plagued by strife and human rights violations Members of the LGBTQ community were often denied a right to marriage healthcare and in some parts of the world a right to life While these struggles are steadily improving in recent years disparities and discrimination still remain from the workplace to the healthcare that this community receives There is still much that needs to be done globally to achieve inclusivity and equity for the LGBTQ community The Research Anthology on Inclusivity and Equity for the LGBTQ Community is a comprehensive compendium that analyzes the struggles and accomplishments of the LGBTQ community with a focus on the current climate around the world and the continued impact to these individuals Multiple settings are discussed within this dynamic anthology such as education healthcare online communities and more Covering topics such as gender homophobia and queer theory this text is essential for scholars of gender theory faculty of both K 12 and higher education professors pre service teachers students human rights activists community leaders policymakers researchers and academicians Beyond the Five-paragraph Essay Kimberly Hill Campbell, Kristi Latimer, 2012 Love it or hate it the five paragraph essay is perhaps the most frequently taught form of writing in classrooms of yesterday and today But have you ever actually seen five paragraph essays outside of school walls Have you ever found it in business writing journalism nonfiction or any other genres that exist in the real world Kimberly Hill Campbell and Kristi Latimer reviewed the research on the effectiveness of the form as a teaching tool and discovered that the research does not support the five paragraph formula In fact research shows that the formula restricts creativity emphasizes structure rather than content does not improve standardized test scores inadequately prepares students for college writing and results in vapid writing In Beyond the Five Paragraph Essay Kimberly and Kristi show you how to reclaim the literary essay and create a program that encourages thoughtful writing in response to literature They provide numerous strategies that stimulate student thinking value unique insight and encourage lively personal writing including the following Close reading which is the basis for writing about literature Low stakes writing options that support students thinking as they read Collaboration in support of discussion debate and organizational structures that support writing as exploration A focus on students writing process as foundational to content development and structure The use of model texts to write in the form of the literature students are reading and analyzing The goal of reading and writing about literature is to push and challenge our students thinking We want students to know that their writing can convey something important a unique view to share defend prove delight discover and inspire If we want our students to be more engaged skilled writers we need to move beyond the five paragraph essay Toward a 21st-Century School Library Media Program Esther Rosenfeld, David V. Loertscher, 2007-10-15 This collection of enlightening and stimulating articles written by some of the most important figures in school librarianship demonstrates how teacher librarians classroom teachers and administrators can work together to create a 21st century school library media program With topics that emphasize student success leadership partnerships curriculum design collaborative planning and teaching literacy 21st century skills emerging technologies and so much more this compendium brings together the best of the best discussions The practicing teacher librarian as well as the student seeking to expand his or her knowledge of the field will find this compilation especially beneficial in providing an overview of the most critical issues related to the role the teacher librarian plays in their school The articles previously published in the peer reviewed Teacher Librarian The Journal for School Library Professionals with several included from the magazine VOYA Voice of Youth Advocates reveal how school libraries and teacher librarians are moving forward to meet the challenges of this new century Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia, 1988 Writing Program Administration and the Community College Heather Ostman, 2013-10-01 From the history of the community college in the United States to current issues and concerns facing writing programs and their administrators and instructors Writing Program Administration and the Community College offers a comprehensive look into
