Taylor,2015-07-28 A wanderer struggles to understand his uncle's downfall six years after a financial catastrophe George Chell has never met a man as witty as charming or as brilliant as his uncle Edward Chell was a financial titan ruling over a kingdom of profit with an emperor's savage grace until a stock market crash revealed that everything he had was built on sand It destroyed both empire and emperor in one fell swoop and nephew George was cast out into the world in the aftermath For six years he has wandered Britain staying in grubby hotels and trying as hard as he can to forget his uncle But when an article in the Financial Times reminds him of all he has lost George has no choice but to confront the past in an attempt to understand the disaster that upended his life Raised in the provincial backwater of a Norwich council flat George was dazzled by the bright lights of the London financial world but to save himself he will have to look at that world with new eyes

Malamud, 2016-04-30 This book offers a new paradigm for reading and appreciating animals in literature and addresses how human culture views animals in poetry Part one sets up a theoretical overview and posits some aesthetic and ethical ideals for transposing animals into art while part two presents a more focused practical application of these ideals in one strain of animal poetry as seen in the works of Marianne Moore Jos Emilio Pacheco Gary Snyder Pattiann Rogers and others The poetry analyzed in the book is respectfully and non invasively insightful into animals it is tinged with a distancing and a kind of spiritual awe regarding their existence
