St James Guide To Black Artists:

St. James Guide to Black Artists Thomas Riggs, 1997 St James's unique biographical dictionary provides information concerning approximately 400 artists nearly 300 of whom were living at the time of publication Although the focus is on fine artists sculptors painters and printmakers the index groups artists by medium listing photographers illustrators ceramists performance artists filmmakers quilt makers wood carvers and fiber artists An index of nationalities lists 26 groups from Europe Africa and the Caribbean but US artists predominate approximately 300 Nigerians and Jamaicans are the second largest groups with 16 listings each The signed entries profile the artist and list the artist's exhibitions the institutions holding the artist's work and the artist's publications Many entries provide photographs of the artists or examples of their work All illustrations are black and white reproductions and are indexed separately A four part subject bibliography covers general works and works on African African American and Caribbean art Profiles of some 80 advisers and contributors constitute the last section College and university libraries and large public libraries need this survey of black artists Copyright 1999 American Library Association Information Sources in Art, Art History and Design Simon Ford, 2015-05-19 No detailed description available for Information Sources in Art Art History and Design African Americans in the Visual Arts Steven Otfinoski, 2014-05-14 While social concerns have been central to the work of many African American visual artists painters Black Artists in British Art Eddie Chambers, 2014-07-29 Black artists have been making major contributions to the British art scene for decades since at least the mid twentieth century Sometimes these artists were regarded and embraced as practitioners of note At other times they faced challenges of visibility and in response they collaborated and made their own exhibitions and gallery spaces In this book Eddie Chambers tells the story of these artists from the 1950s onwards including recent developments and successes Black Artists in British Art makes a major contribution to British art history Beginning with discussions of the pioneering generation of artists such as Ronald Moody Aubrey Williams and Frank Bowling Chambers candidly discusses the problems and progression of several generations including contemporary artists such as Steve McQueen Chris Ofili and Yinka Shonibare Meticulously researched this important book tells the fascinating story of practitioners who have frequently been overlooked in the dominant history of twentieth century British art The Art of Ellis Wilson Albert Sperath, Margaret R. Vendryes, Steven H. Jones, Eva King, 2000 The Art of Ellis Wilson Albert Sperath, Margaret R. Vendryes, Steven H. Jones, Eva King, 2014-11-04 From the tobacco fields of western Kentucky to the streets of Harlem from the Gullah Islands off the South Carolina and Georgia coasts to the all black republic of Haiti painter Ellis Wilson 1899 1977 examined the scope and depth of black culture One of Kentucky's most significant African American artists Wilson graduated from the Art Institute of Chicago in 1923 He spent five more years in the city before moving to New York where he lived for the rest of his life Aside from his participation in the WPA's Federal Arts Project and a Guggenheim Fellowship he was never able to support himself fully by painting Yet his work has long been praised for its boldness and individuality Black workers were a favorite subject field hands factory workers loggers fishermen and more Of his 1940s series of black factory employees Wilson stated That was the first time I had ever seen my people working in industry so I painted them Over time his documentary style gave way to one that emphasized shape and color over pure representation Despite exhibitions in New York and elsewhere Wilson considered a small show at the public library in his hometown of Mayfield in 1947 to be one of the high points of his life This catalog accompanies the first major retrospective of Wilson s paintings

Represent Patricia A. Banks,2009-12-16 Patricia A Banks traverses the New York and Atlanta art worlds to uncover how black identities are cultivated through black art patronage Drawing on over 100 in depth interviews observations at arts events and photographs of art displayed in homes Banks elaborates a racial identity theory of consumption that highlights how upper middle class blacks forge black identities for themselves and their children through the consumption of black visual art She not only challenges common assumptions about elite cultural participation but also contributes to the heated debate about the significance of race for elite blacks and illuminates recent art world developments In doing so Banks documents how the salience of race extends into the cultural life of even the most socioeconomically successful blacks

No Sense in Wishing Lawrence Burney,2025-07-08

Among the most profound and dazzling debuts I ve ever read Kiese Laymon award winning author of Heavy An American Memoir An essay collection from culture critic Lawrence Burney that is a personal and analytical look at his home city of Baltimore music from throughout the global Black diaspora and the traditions that raised him There are moments throughout our lives when we discover an artist an album a film or a cultural artifact that leaves a lasting impression helping inform how we understand the world and ourselves moving forward In No Sense in Wishing Lawrence Burney explores these profound interactions with incisive and energizing prose offering us a personal and critical perspective on the people places music and art that transformed him In a time when music is spearheading Black Americans connection with Africans on The Continent

Burney takes trips to cover the bubbling creative scenes in Lagos and Johannesburg that inspire teary eyed reflections of self and belonging Seeing his mother perform as the opening act at a Gil Scott Heron show as a child inspires an essay about parent child relationships and how personal taste is often inherited And a Maryland crab feast with family facilitates an assessment of how the Black people in his home state have historically improvised paths for their liberation Taking us on a journey from the streets of Baltimore to the concert halls of Lagos No Sense in Wishing is a kaleidoscopic exploration of Burney s search for self With its gutsy and uncompromising criticism alongside intimate personal storytelling it s like an album that hits all the right notes from a promising writer on the rise
