Saint Rose of Lima Shane Leslie, Wounds of Love Frank Graziano, 2004-01-15 The Peruvian mystic St Rose of Lima Isabel Flores y Oliva 1586 1617 was canonized in 1671 as the first saint of the New World and remains the object of widespread devotion today In this engrossing new study Frank Graziano uses the example of St Rose to explore the meaning of female mysticism and the way in which saints are products of their cultures Virginity austerity eucharistic devotion incessant mortification and mystical marriage to Christ characterized the devotional regimen that structured St Rose s entire life Many of her mystical practices echo the symptoms of such modern psychological disorders as masochism depression hysteria and anorexia nervosa Graziano offers a sophisticated argument not only for the origins and meaning of these behaviors in Rose s case but also for the reason her culture venerated them as signs of sanctity In the process he explores a wide range of themes from the idea of suffering as an expression of love to the assimilation of childhood trauma through religious repetition Graziano also offers a penetrating analysis of the politics of Rose s canonization He finds that her mystical union with God bypassing the institutional channels of sacrament and priestly mediation was inherently subversive to the bureaucratized Church Canonization was a cooptation by which Rose s competing claim to Christ was integrated into the Catholic canon The book concludes with a fascinating exploration of mystical eroticism with its intense experiences of vision and ecstasy The eroticized suffering of many mystics is shown to be very human in origin the mystic s wounded love is projected onto a God conceived to accommodate it Wounds of Love is based on a decade of research in archives rare books and an extraordinary range of secondary sources Introducing an innovative method that integrates history cultural studies psychoanalysis and clinical psychology this compelling work offers a bold new interpretation of female mysticism

Empires of God Linda Gregerson, Susan Juster, 2013-02-11 Religion and empire were inseparable forces in the early modern Atlantic world Religious passions and conflicts drove much of the expansionist energy of post Reformation Europe providing both a rationale and a practical mode of organizing the dispersal and resettlement of hundreds of thousands of people from the Old World to the New World Exhortations to conquer new peoples were the lingua franca of Western imperialism and men like the mystically inclined Christopher Columbus were genuinely inspired to risk their lives and their fortunes to bring the gospel to the Americas And in the thousands of religious refugees seeking asylum from the vicious wars of religion that tore the continent apart in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries these visionary explorers found a ready pool of migrants English Puritans and Quakers French Huguenots German Moravians Scots Irish Presbyterians equally willing to risk life and limb for a chance to worship God in their own way Focusing on the formative period of European exploration settlement and conquest in the Americas from roughly 1500 to 1760 Empires of God brings together historians and literary scholars of the English French and Spanish Americas around a common set of questions How did religious communities and beliefs create empires and how did imperial structures transform New World religions How did Europeans and Native Americans make sense of each other s spiritual systems and what acts of linguistic and cultural transition did this entail What was the role of violence in New World religious encounters Together the essays collected here demonstrate the power of religious ideas and narratives to create kingdoms both imagined and real

Saints and Blesseds of the Americas Fr. Daniel P. Ewald, 2009-02-23 Kirkus Discoveries book review Part devotional guide part encyclopedia Saints and Blesseds of the Americas will find a welcome place on the shelves of a new generation of Catholics Ewalds tidy collection provides an exhaustive country by country listing of all the Catholic saints and blesseds of the Western world In Catholic theology saints serve as intercessors between humanity and God blessed those who have undergone the process of beatification are only one step away from becoming saints Believers pray to either for aid in any number of life pursuits Perhaps the most gratifying aspect of this catalogue is the fact that it is extremely up to date Ewald provides not only the saints and blesseds of old but also those recently beatified and canonized For example he presents the Blessed Lindalva Justo de Oliveira martyred in 1993 and beatified by Pope Benedict XVI just last year This is a timely reference guide at least in part because the previous pope John Paul II was a prolific supporter of the path to sainthood According to the Vatican Pope John Paul II beatified and canonized more individuals than all the popes of the past five centuries combined Thus Ewald fulfills an important role in bringing his devout readership up to speed But currentness is not the volumes only strength Ewald paints quick but thorough sketches of his many subjects His brief biographies never run much more than a page or two but he has an eye for the fine points and his portraits are always extremely pertinent there are as few wasted details as there are wasted words However though his book serves best as a reference volume it also provides a surprisingly gratifying reading experience Ewald has the skill of a storyteller and each biography features a neat narrative arc A helpful compendium to the heroes of the American Catholic Church Ewald Fr Daniel P SAINTS AND BLESSEDS OF THE AMERICAS Xlibris 318 pp 2008 ISBN 978 1 4363 6762 2 Paper 978 1 4363 6761 5 Kirkus Discoveries Nielsen Business Media 770 Broadway New York NY 10003 discoveries kirkusreviews com

A Wounded Innocence Alejandro R. Garcia-Rivera, 2015-03-15 What is the theological significance of art Why has the Church always encouraged the arts What is so profoundly human about the arts In A Wounded Innocence Alejandro R Garcia Rivera answers these questions in a series of sketches that are mixed spiritual and theological reflections on various works of art written in a poetic style These reflections explore the relationship between the multi dimensional spiritual and the arts The first sketch The Beginning of Art introduces the rest that go on to explore further the human artistic and theological implications of a wounded innocence Each sketch reflects on a particular human work of art Some are conventional works of art Others may never find their way into a museum but then that is one of the implications coming out of this book A museum does not define what a work of art is its human depth does In these deeply studied yet spiritually written reflections on each work of art it is hoped that the reader will find his and her own creative depth described perhaps even revealed A Wounded Innocence is both inspiring and informative Readers will learn about art spirituality and theology and will find themselves inspired to look at works of art and even to produce a work of art It sets a new way of doing theology that is at the same time spiritual More importantly Garcia Rivera describes a theology of art Chapters are The Beginning of Art The End of Art Human Freedom and Artistic Creativity Heaven with Us The Human Aspect of Atonement The Tyger and the Lamb and A Wounded Innocence Includes black and white art Alejandro R Garcia Rivera PhD is associate professor of systematic theology at the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley The author of numerous articles he also wrote a Catholic Press Association award winning book on theology and aesthetics titled The Community of the Beautiful The Liturgical Press
