Stable Girl Working For The Family:

Stable Girl Patricia Harrison Easton, Herb Ferguson, 1991 Portrays a day in the life of Danielle who works in her family's racing stable and helps in the family business of training racehorses Gender, Work, and Harness Racing Elizabeth Anne Larsen, 2014-11-19 While gender equality has progressed in many sports since the second wave of the feminist movement in terms of women's inclusion participation and success harness horse racing has been recalcitrant to change Gender Work and Harness Racing Fast Horses and Strong Women in Southwestern Pennsylvania investigates the stories of women involved in harness racing to expose how they use the uniqueness of their situation to work for positive change With stirring accounts of the strong women who are surviving and sometimes succeeding in harness horse racing Elizabeth Anne Larsen's analysis provides insight for studies of gender and work occupational sex segregation and women's studies

STABLE GIRL: WORKING FOR THE FAMILY. PHOTOS BY HERB FERGUSON. Patricia Harrison Easton, 1991 The Family, 1928 Abigail's World Victoria Webster, 2025-02-20 We first meet Abigail Thomas in The Con Artist 2022 where she plays a supporting role In Abigail's World Victoria Webster's second novel she is central to the story Leaving her comfortable and unremarkable life behind she moves with her husband and two children into a wealthy enclave where she realises that she must redefine herself if she is to succeed in this new world Follow her as she navigates her way around the trials and tribulations of her neighbours with their secrets and aspirations school hierarchies with their class divides an errant husband and friendships which can flounder or flourish One day without warning Abigail finds her world turned upside down Will it right itself again Mama Brown's Family Crystal Evans, 2013-12-03 The dogs ran through the yard kicking up ruckus outside They said that dogs could hear a man coming down the road from a mile away due to their superior auditory mechanism Something was coming and the dogs were afraid Diamond rolled over in her bed and fell back into a deep sleep She could have sworn she heard noises outside but then people always checking her Uncle early in the morning She was falling back into a deep sleep when she heard a strong thud Diamond looked out the window the place was chillingly silent She knew what that silence meant she had experienced it several times over the years It was the sound of catastrophe She heard a pop it sounded like a gunshot and then eight more similar ricocheting sounds and it was coming from her Uncle's house

Researching Work-Family Discourses Eduardo R. Infante, 2011-05-25 Gender talk and work family issues have enticed many researchers worldwide in their wish to provide key insights into the globalised burden of balancing work family demands However most studies follow the traditional quantitative methodology which fails to embrace the complexity of these issues The present book is aimed to cover this gap by researching work family discourses also with qualitative methodologies based on social representations of work family and gender roles The book details the process step by step with the hazardous duty of unveiling the hidden social messages of androcentric worlds towards defining degenderised societies in androgynous terms Notwithstanding its complexity the work family discourses are retrieved from British best awarded TV sitcom Only Fools and Horses The Making of Place and People in the Danish Metropolis Christian Sandbjerg Hansen, 2021-04-06 This book investigates the sociohistorical making of place and people in Copenhagen from around 1900 to the present day Drawing inspiration from Pierre Bourdieu's sociology of social space and symbolic power and from Loïc Wacquant's hypothesis of advanced marginality and territorial stigmatisation the book explores the genesis and development of the notorious neighbourhood of Copenhagen North West As an extraordinary place the North West provides an illustrative case of Danish welfare and urban history that questions the epitome of inclusive Copenhagen Through detailed empirical analysis the book spotlights three angles and entanglements of the social history of this area of Copenhagen the production of socio-spatial constructions and authoritative categorisations of the neighbourhood especially by the state and the media the local social pedagogical interventions and symbolic boundary drawings by welfare agencies in the neighbourhood and the residents' subjective experiences of place social divisions and dishonour In this way The Making of Place and People in the Danish Metropolis analyses how social symbolical and spatial structures dynamically intertwine and contribute to the fashioning of divisions of inequality and marginality in the city over the course of some 125 years It will appeal to scholars of sociology urban studies and urban history with interests in social welfare Young Adult Women, Work and Family Maureen Padfield, Ian Procter, 2014-01-14 This text is an exploration of the interplay between employment and domestic relations within a specific group of young women which includes single working women without children and working mothers It is based on actual experiences as related in interviews and uses longitudinal data to chart the experience of young adult women living a contradiction between work and family The text also employs social theory to interpret interview data showing the interdependence of young women as active agents and the constraints and opportunities of the social structure The main conclusion is that the social structuring of women as primarily mothers who also work is falling away but that it is left to individuals to work their way through the contradictory system facing them Class, Gender and the Family Business K. Mulholland, 2003-08-12 In raising questions about the relationship between gender power class power and enterprise this book brings an insightful perspective to the study of family capitalism Based on a study of enterprise across different sectors interviews were conducted amongst 70 major business families Cassell's Family Magazine, 1885 The Changing Position of Women in Family and Society Lupri, 2022-03-28 Family pamphlets, 1913

Horse Crazy Jean O'Malley Halley, 2019-07-01 Horse Crazy explores the meaning behind the love between girls and horses Jean O Malley Halley a self professed horse girl contends that this relationship and its cultural signifiers influence the manner in which young girls define their identity when it comes to gender Halley examines how popular culture including the pony book genre uses horses to encourage conformity to gender norms but also insists that the loving relationship between a girl and a horse fundamentally challenges sexist and mainstream ideas of girlhood Horse Crazy looks at the relationships between girls and horses through the frameworks of Michel Foucault's concepts of normalization and biopower drawing conclusions about the way girls agency is both normalized and resistant to normalization Segments of Halley's own experiences with horses as a young girl as well as experiences from the perspective of other girls are sources for examination Horse girls as she calls them are girls who find a way to defy the expectations given to them by society thinness obsession with makeup and beauty frailty and gain the possibility of freedom in the process Drawing on Nicole Shukin's uses of animal capital theories Halley also explores the varied treatment of horses themselves as an example of the biopolitical use of nonhuman animals and the manipulation and exploitation of horse life In so doing she engages with common ways we think and feel about animals and with the technologies of speciesism
