

STAFF MANAGEMENT IN HUMAN SERVICES

Behavioral Research and Application

DENNIS H. REID

MARSHA B. PARSONS

CAROLYN W. GREEN

An integral component in the provision of human services is the effective supervision of staff performance. The scope of this book is to describe and critically review organizational behavior management research and application as it relates to the supervision of staff performance in human service settings. Discussed herein are over 100 applied research investigations that have evaluated methods of improving staff work performance in a variety of human service settings: institutions for mentally retarded and mentally ill people, schools, nursing homes, preschools and mental health centers. Supervisors and aspiring supervisors in the human services along with current and future researchers in the management field will find this book to be an invaluable resource providing effective and realistic strategies for managing the work activities of human service staff on a day-to-day basis.
