Cassell's Dictionary of Slang Jonathon Green, 2005 With its unparalleled coverage of English slang of all types from 18th century cant to contemporary gay slang and its uncluttered editorial apparatus Cassell's Dictionary of Slang was warmly received when its first edition appeared in 1998 Brilliant said Mark Lawson on BBC2's The Late Review This is a terrific piece of work learned entertaining funny stimulating said Jonathan Meades in The Evening Standard But now the world's best single volume dictionary of English slang is about to get even better Jonathon Green has spent the last seven years on a vast project to research in depth the English slang vocabulary and to hunt down and record written instances of the use of as many slang words as possible This has entailed trawling through more than 4000 books plus song lyrics TV and movie scripts and many newspapers and magazines for relevant material The research has thrown up some fascinating results Dirt, Undress, and Difference Adeline Masquelier, 2005-12-20 A magnificent volume It offers brand new perspectives on body politics and identity or subjectivity formation in the post colonial world Dorothy Ko Barnard College While there is widespread interest in dress and hygiene as vehicles of cultural moral and political value little scholarly attention has been paid to cross cultural understandings of dirt and undress despite their equally important role in the fashioning of identity and difference The essays in this absorbing and thought provoking collection contribute new insights into the neglected topics of bodily treatments and transgressions In detailed ethnographic studies from around the world the contributors recast assumptions about filth and nakedness exploring how various forms of transgression associated with the body's surface are drawn up into relations of power and inequality They demonstrate imaginatively how body surfaces are powerfully mobilized in the making and unmaking of moral worlds Men's wear. Hintz, 2011-08-17 THE LAST TRAIN TO HEAVEN is a story for kids from teens to 99 Like a slow starting train leaving the station the story accelerates to an earth shattering conclusion Justin Mann is graduating from High School Events have guaranteed that to say the least this will be memorable event He has no idea that events put in motion on the other side of the world will dictate the outcome of this special evening Vassily Provotich and three of his friends have been recruited into an extremely secretive project They were only told that the task they are about to complete was essential to saving the Russian space program How will four graduate engineering students and a prophet of doom contribute to this otherwise seemingly innocuous night and how many of Justins friends will actually get to ride that last train to heaven What will Justin do when he discovers that the old saying Seeing is believing is backwards Supreme Court Reports Cape of Good Hope (Colony).
