Stages The Crises That Shape Your Marriage:

Stages, the Crises that Shape Your Marriage Laura J. Singer, Barbara Lang Stern, 1980 Is There Life after Divorce in the Church? Richard L. Morgan, 2006-04-01 Richard L. Morgan has produced a welcome resource for those of us who have been divorced and felt we were beyond the pale of the Christian community. It is true that Jesus speaks against divorce but it is also true that some New Testament scholars believe he was speaking to protect the rights of the oppressed under ancient law, the oppressed being women. On the other hand, divorce is a painful experience that impacts over half of those who married. It cannot be ignored by religious leaders, some of whom themselves may be divorced. If we believe in acknowledging sin without casting the sinner out, we need to find ways of healing in churches. I always remind myself in giving sermons that if national statistics were right, half of my listeners had been impacted by divorce. Rev. Dr. John C. Morgan, minister, teacher, and author of Awakening the Soul, Richard Lyon Morgan is a retired Presbyterian minister and pastoral counselor now living at Redstone Highlands North Huntingdon, Pennsylvania. In addition to his doctorate in church history, he has a master's degree in counseling from Wake Forest University. A former pastoral counselor with the School of Pastoral Care, he has led divorce support groups and counseled many persons young and old going through the process of divorce. Dr. Morgan is divorced and married again with ten grandchildren.

When One Wants Out And The Other Doesn't John F. Crosby, 2013-05-24 For anyone who practices marriage and family therapy, the author says they have one kind of client population that seems to be a modal or predominating type. For three decades, he has experienced more marital situations where one of the couple wants out of the marriage and the other wants to stay in than any other type. The idea for this collection of first-person therapy methodologies developed after two successive national meetings of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT) in New York, 1985, and Orlando, 1986. The cases that were discussed were characterized by the presence of alcoholism and drug and other addictions rather than presentations that dealt with a polarized couple wherein the marriage had simply become a devitalized, humdrum relationship. This volume seeks to address the balance.

Transitions Through Adult Life Charles M. Sell, 1991 This book not only describes life's crises but also portrays the potential of life's transitions and seeks to offer answers to the problems it analyzes. It provides an overview of the various stages of adult life, what is typical in those stages, and how to deal with adults as they traverse the stages.

Time for a Better Marriage Jon Carlson, Don C. Dinkmeyer, 2002 The return of a classic. A systematic, practical model for building marriage skills, newly revised and updated. Invaluable tools to help make marriages more rewarding, effective, and satisfying by showing couples how to encourage each other, resolve conflict, communicate effectively, maintain equality in the relationship, and make better choices.
